PIANOS AND ORGANS.

SUMMER NOTES.

From the feathery kingdom everywhere is Nature's tribute to the season now upon us in all of its radiant beauty.

STIEFF PIANOS

Are the epitome of art and skill in man to attune our lives to the charm of music. How pleasant, therefore, to Nature's music at our outer doors, while the Celebrated Steiff Pianos will give pleasure and profit within doors. Between the two this summer should be an ideal one to you—for the "Stieff" is known everywhere for its excellence, merit and tone-quality, which is not surpassed anywhere.

NELATON'S REMEDY —FOR— RHEUMATISM

is a certain cure. It has made hundreds of friends everywhere, as the following will show.

Mr. Wm. T. Davis, Cambridge, Md., writes:—

For two years or more I have had Rheumatism very badly and have tried all kinds of medicine without getting any relief. NELATON'S REMEDY was recommended to me and after taking only one bottle I was entirely cured, and have been troubled for over three months, thanks to Nelaton's Remedy for Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. E. Lowery, Fisherman and Oysterman, of Cambridge, writes:—

Two years ago last February. I had terrible attacks of Rheumatism whenever the weather turned bad. I could not lay down or raise my arm to feed myself. I tried Nelaton's Remedy and a few bottles cured me completely. I have not had any Rheumatic pains or symptons since and I tell any manhe is foolish to suffer with Rheumatism when Nelaton's Remedy can be had.

Mr. Moses Tisch, of Easton, Md., writes:—

Nelaton's Remedy for Rheumatism is a wonderful medicine. It cured me when I had Rheumatism so bad I had to walk around with sticks. I heartily recommend NELATON'S REMEDY to any who suffer with Rheumatism as it is a reliable and sure cure.

Dr. J. B. R. Purnell, of Snow Hill, Md., endorses Nelation's as follows:

I have used the NELATON REMEDY in neuralgia and general Rheumatism with satisfactory results. The ingredients evidence a combination useful for arthritis and and various forms of gout and rheumatism, particularly when accompanied with hepatic torpor.

The Excuse

Made by many a man for taking a drink at the bar is that he needs a bracer. He feels weak, his stomach is "out of sorts" and liquor makes him "feel good." The tired man who sits on a pin leaps up with new energy, but no one would say that this energy was evidence of the strength giving power of a pin. So with the energy induced by liquors. They only spur the body on, but do not strengthen it.

Strength is made from food properly digested and assimilated. When the stomach is diseased there is a failure to extract the nutrition from food and the body grows weak. The weak body needs strengthening, not stimulating. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nutrition of food is perfectly extracted and assimilated and the body nourished into health and strength.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is no other medicine "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and allied organs.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have been of great benefit to me," writes (Prof.) Pleasant A. Oliver, of Viola, Fulton Co., Ark. "Before I used the above mentioned remedies my sleep was not sound: digestion bad; a continual feeling of misery. I now feel like a new man."

THE DIOCESE OF EASTON.

REPORT FROM THE JOURNAL OF CONVENTION.

A Very Flourishing Condition Reported in All Departments—Mission Pledges Considerably Overpaid.

The Journal of the thirty-third annual Convention of the Diocese of Easton has been completed. The following figures taken therefrom show a prosperous condition of affairs:

The number of families is 1673 and of parishioners, 6685. The largest parish is Spring Hill, Wicomico county, with 700 parishioners, Rev. F. B. Adkins rector.

There were 236 baptisms during the year, 217 infants and 19 adults.

The number confirmed was 198, the largest classes (18 each) being presented in Holy Trinity church, Oxford, and Christ church in Cambridge.

There were 74 marriages and 176 burials.

The number of communicants shows a growth, having increased 224, despite 135 by death and removal.

There are 217 Sunday-school officers and teachers and 1811 pupils.

The churches and chapel are valued at $276,650, insured for $142,745. The rectories, etc., are valued at $76,400, insured for $44,100. There are parish houses at Easton, Cambridge, East New Market, Church Hill and Pocomoke.

The invested funds amount to $22,613.93. There are 107 guilds, societies and other organizations.

The total contributions for the church at large aggregated $1605.45 including missions, Clergy Relief Fund, Church Building Fund, etc.

The amount for diocesan purpose was $3288.81, including Convention, Clergy Relief and Mission Funds, Home for Friendless Children and other uses. The pledges for Diocesan Missions were generally largely overpaid, in one case about $33.

The contributions for parochials object were $38,446 65. Of this sum $18,426.51 was paid in salaries to the clergy. There are three rectors receiving salaries of $1000 each, Rev. Leonidas B. Baldwin, of Easton; James A. Mitchell, of Centreville, and Thomas Carter Page, of Cambridge.

The aggregate of contributions for all purposes was $43,542.31.

DEATH OF CAPT. B. FRANK COHEE.

The Angel of Death has again visited us our neighbor, Capt. B. Frank Cohee, of Fredericktown, departing this life on Saturday, July, 27th, after a short illness of pneumonia, aged 68 years.

He had been in poor health for some time, but on the preceding Thursday was taken with a cold, which developed into pneumonia. He sank very rapidly until a few moments before midnight, when he quietly passed away.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, the 30th, at 10 a. m., services being conducted at the Catholic Church in Galena, of which he was a member; interment in the church burying ground near Lambson's. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. Fletcher Wilson, N. Scotten, J. Hudson, James J. Hall, John Walmsley and Joseph Powell.

Captain Cohee was born in Fredericktown in 1833, at the age of 21 he became captain of a vessell plying between Georgetown and Baltimore, which position he held until a few years ago, when he engaged in the fishery business on Elk river.

As the funeral procession passed by the vessels, lying at the wharves, their respective captains "dipped their colors" in commemoration of their departed friend.

By his decease the community loses one of its best citizens, a man whose character, life and devotion to his home and family commanded the respect of all who knew him. He is survived by a wife and ten children, all of whom are married except two. They all bore their great bereavement bravely, feeling that their loss was his gain.

"Life! we've been long together;
Through pleasant and cloudy weather;
'Tis hard to part when friends are dear;
Perhaps' twill cost a sigh, a tear;
Then steal away, give little warning,
Choose thine own time;
Say not, good night, but in some brighter clime,
Bid us good morning."

A FOLK-LORE QUERY.

A well known author in writing of witches, states that on this side of the water they lose their broomsticks. He was evidently not familiar with the witches of Salem, Mass., or with that unique poem, "The Broomstick Train," in which Oliver Wendall Holmes depicts these same Salem witches as having returned to earth with their broomsticks, which may be seen on top of the trolleys, propelling them along. This statement in regard to the broomstick has given rise to the question: What methods of locomotion have the witches in Maryland used?

Will some of your readers kindly tell how they were supposed to travel through the air and if they had any general meeting place; how they turned people into houses when they rode them, and where they took them. W.
