Politics.—Now that the several parties have their tickets made up, the political pot is getting on a simmer. On Saturday night the "politics" and the candidates were much in evidence in our town, and each side heard many good things to cheer them on the way to Nov. 5th. The make-up of the G. O. P. ticket is pleasing to everybody as a rule, to the Democrats because it can, and will, be beaten; to the Republicans because it is composed of clean men, and devoid (?) of bossism. We are especially pleased, that our chums, H. W. Davis and J. T. Stevens, are on the ticket. Big "Tom" and big "Budd," what a team of competitors for the Sheriffalty! No better could be selected, but of course the big fellow of the 7th district will pull through allright.

Ayres and Stevens, another "bully good" pair matched for the commissionership. We all love, but while we love "Hot Pot" (Stevens) none the less, we love Ayres the more, therefore, he will win out. The legislative candidates are not so well-known except Mr. Kendall. He is one of us, and while our attention will be given to those of the Democratic ticket, yet if we must again suffer defeat, we shall be proud that Azariah will be one of the successful ones, for we know that our interests, and every other interest, will be safe in his hands, so far as his power to defend and protect them.

Fires.—A very heavy smoke prevailed here the greater portion of Sunday and a report was circulated that Chestertown was in the grasp of a conflagration. Great releif was felt when later the report was found to be incorrect.

This town, however, was visited by the fire fiend on Tuesday morning between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, and the dwelling of Mr. Hayward Middleton was totally destroyed, together with nearly all the household goods. The fire originated it is supposed from a foul chimney. Besides the loss of house and furniture, there was also destroyed a sum of cash money. The building was insured through the agency of Joseph N. Wheatley & Co., for $600.

Personals.—Messrs. Wm. Hickey and Chas. Davis, Jr., are quite ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. O. W. Beale, chief clerk for Mr. S. J. Wickes, who has been touring northern New York for two weeks has returned to his post of duty, much improved in health.

Oysters.—The oyster business continues very dull. Swan Point oysters are in quite poor condition, but business would be very much better than it is, if the oystermen, as a whole, would confine themselves to catching the best grade, and handle them properly.

Church.—Sunday was an ideal autumn day, consequently, the church services were much better attended than has been the case during the past 2 months. Pastor Chairs, of the M. E. Church having recuperated from his recent indisposition, preached two strong sermons the one in the evening, being the best, since his stay with us.

Kennedyville Items.

The Kennedyville W. C. T. U., met at the M. P. Church last Friday evening. The program opened with singing by the choir and audience "Nearer My God to Thee," Mrs. Annie Redmile presiding at the organ. Rev. Louis Randall gave the scripture reading, drawing from it the lesson of personal responsibility, after which he offered an earnest prayer. The president followed with a few remarks addressed especially to the young ladies present, urging them to discontenance the use of tobacco by their male friends and to endeavor to personally influence them to high ideals of life; believing, she said, that the young womanhood of the land has in this direction a power beyond conception. "Work for the Night is Coming" was then sung, after which Miss Katie Weer read "The Old Man's Account of the meeting." The following recitations were then given: "Extract from Ten Nights in a Bar-room," by Mr. Geo. Medders; "Old Ace," by Miss Emma C. Shafer and "Papa's Letter," by Miss Virgie Weigand. The following delegates were elected to the State Convention at Westminster: Mrs. E. T. Othoson and Miss Lula Van Dyke; alternates, Mrs. Emma Godwin and Mrs. Emma Jarrell. The Union voted to take twenty-four copies of the White Ribbon Herald. It has sent nineteen dollars for the state assessment. After singing "Precious Name" the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Louis Randall.

Mr. J. T. Jump, of Henderson, will succeed Mr. George Moffett as agent of the railroad at this place.

Mr. Richard Haggerty while making a trip to his old home in New York will visit the Pan American Exposition.

The McCormick corn harvester is proving a complete success in meeting the needs of the farmers. Mr. T. Shafer, the agent, with his force of men has had a busy week in putting up and starting the machines.

Rev. K. M. Bull has returned from the Pan-American Exposition, and Niagara Falls. He considers the scenery in the Alleghany Mountains by the P. R. R. route, Niagara Falls, and scenery in Wilkesbarre Mountains, by the L. V. R. R. route will be worth the expense of the trip. In route he also visited his own and his wife's parents, brothers, sisters, and other relatives and friends at Buffalo, and Batavia, N, Y., and at Towanda, Orwell, Fremont, Nottingham, and Kennett Square, Pa., Orwell in Northern Pa., is his native town. Besides other interesting events he baptized two babes and gained over three pounds during the trip. He says, take the trip if you can.

Temperance Notes.—At a special meeting held at Mrs. A. E. Vannort's Wednesday, the following delegates were elected to the State W. C. T. U. Convention which meets at Westminster Oct. 1, 2 and 3: Mrs. Jas. Brice, Mrs. T. R. Hubbard; Alternates, Mrs. M. A. Toulson, Mrs. Geo. W. Simmons; Special Finance Committee, Mrs. A. E. Vannort, Mrs. M. Lucas, Mrs. Jas. Brice. Regular meeting same place Sept. 18th, at 7 P. M.

Lightning's Work.—The storm of last Tuesday night was very severe, the lightning especially being vivid., On the farm of Mr. Richard C. Smyth, near Melitota, lightning struck a tree, passed down to the ground into a chicken coop, killed 20 chickens and burned the feet off an old hen without killing her!
