FOR the benefit of the seventy-six millions of people who have been seriously handicapped in discussing Mr. Czolgosz by the impossibillty of pronouncing his name, it may be stated as near as a decent American tongue can come to it, the pronounciation is "Sholgosch." It is the unanimous opinion of the country that a man with such a name as that ought to be deported anyhow.

"ONCE the idol of his party, now there is none so mean to do him honor."

These words were spoken last Wednesday night by a prominent Republican at an open meeting of the board of governors of the Union League Club when the name of George L. Wellington, senior United States Senator from the State of Maryland, was stricken from the roster of the club and he was expelled from membership. The words above were applied to him by a member of the Legislature that made him Senator and was his most loyal and devoted supporter, Mr. Samuel S. Ford. The action of the club is said to be unparalleled in the history of this country, and was taken with almost church-like solemnity.

The cause of Senator Wellington's expulsion from the club of which he was once the life and his ostracism by its members is these words, which he is reputed to have said when asked for an expression of opinion in regard to the attempted assassination of the President:

"McKinley and I are enemies. I have nothing good to say about him, and under the circumstances do not care to say anything bad. I am indifferent to the whole matter."

Sassafras Items.

The general complaint here is every one suffering from colds.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Johnson visited Middletown on Tuesday.

We are indeed grieved to learn of the long continued illness of Mrs. Hannah Staats, of Warwick. She has been sick a long time and great fears are for her recovery. She is a most estimable lady.

Rev. I. McLain Brown wishes to announce that there will be a special service next Sabboth morning at 10.30 o'clock in the Rehoboth M. P. Church at this place. A feature in the singing will be his three children singing in the Japanese language.

It was red letter day for Dewey Park on last Wednesday. A Gala day sure. Messrs. Shallcross and Massey deserve much praise. The Tournament was fine. The fish supper was all that could be expected and indeed everything was most elaborate, About five hundred guests was there. The dancing and music was fine and the most delightful affair of the season.

Mrs. Lena Hartly and Mrs. Harry Griffith visited friends in Sassafras on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Heathers and daughter, Miss Heathers, of Felton, Delaware, are visiting their relatives Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson near town.

Miss Minnie Hickman visited Warwick on Monday afternoen.

Miss Lizzie Roberson, of near Iron Hill, is visiting her brother, Elwood Roberson, near town.

Miss Mary Lane, of Wilmington, is visitin her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Spry.

Mrs. Jesse Sheppard and daughter, little Miss Jessie, are visiting her sister. Mrs. Laura Townsend, of Sassafras.

Mrs. Jesse Hartley, of Wilmington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith.

Mrs. John F. Ernest visited her mother, Mrs. Gunkie, of Warwick on Tuesday.

The death of Mr. Walter G. Clayton, one of our bright Bohemia Manor farmers was indeed a shock and grief to his friends here, so young to die of typhoid fever. He was just in the prime of early manhood, surrounded by a loving wife and family and had everything to live for.

The relatives here of Charles S. Ellison feel very uneasy over his continued illness. They sincerely trust he will soon recover. He too is another bright Bohemia Manor farmer and neignbor of the late Mr. Walter Clayton. The typhoid fever is said to be bad there.

A Dream.

"I dreamed that I was dead the other night after I had been reading some things about Maryland politics," said Mr. Jacob Neale, of Baltimore, at the National, "and through some error I found myself in a position to view the new arrivals in Heaven. Shortly after I had recovered from my surprise at this strange situation, I noticed a great commotion among the elect. The big door swung open and intense interest developed in the new-comer. Who do you suppose it was? Representative Sydney E. Mudd, of the Fifth District. He had on wings and a long white robe, and above his head there shone a halo. It was not an ordinary halo, formed of golden letters, reading, 'Gone but not forgotten.' As soon as Mr. Mudd's spiritual being got far enough inside the gates to be recognized, there was a break in the ranks of the blessed. I think there must have been about 11,000 of them who rushed out and grasped eagerly for his hand. 'You did not forget us when we were dead, like the rest of them, but included us in the census,' said the 11,000 in chorus, and Mudd seemed to be pleased. But, of course, that was only a dream."

To the Ladies

We have on hand a number of LARD CANS belonging to different LADIES of Kent and Queen Anne's counties. Cool weather is coming on, Hog killing will soon be the order of the day and we would be glad if the Ladies would call and get their empty cans. Ladies get them in readiness to fill with LARD this fall and we will buy the LARD from you in larger quantities and pay you the Highest market prices for the same.

LADIES if you have any surplus LARD on hand now, bring it to us we also want Country Hams and other Meats and Produce..

LADIES come in we want to sell you a general supply of Groceries, Provisions, Spices, Pickles, etc., and for the GENTLEMEN a good Chew, and a good Smoke the best 2 for 5 cigar in town. Come and try them.

Respectfully yours for business,
