Democratic Primary Election.

—o—

Notice is hereby given to the Democratic voters of Kent county to hold Primary Elections to elect six delegates in each of the several Election Districts of said county—

At Millington, for the First Precinct of the First District.
At Galena, for Second Precinct.
At Kennedyville, for Second District.
At Worton, for Third District.
At Chestertown, for Fourth District.
At Rock Hall, for Fifth District.
At Fairlee, for Sixth District.
At Pomona, for Seventh District, on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28th, 1901, at 2 o'clock P. M. The delegates elected for the several election districts will meet in Chestertown on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1st, 1901, at 11 A. M., to elect three persons as Delegates to represent Kent county at the Democratic Judicial Convention to be held at DENTON, MARYLAND, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3rd, 1901, to nominate one person for Associate Judge of the Circuit Court for the Second Judicial Circuit of Maryland.

WM. W. BECK,
J. THOS. PENNINGTON,
J. H. O. STOKES,
State Central Committee for Kent Co.

THE American people have been at school this week learning the lessons taught by the dreadful tragedy at Buffalo. The horror of the deed—the illustrious life sacrificed—the noble wife bereaved—excitements and apprehensions in the public mind—are all elements in the lesson. This nation is a quick learner, and some of the immediate results will be unanimity of sentiment against anarchy and better laws regarding foreign emigration; political and religious divisions obliterated for a time congealed into one of patriotism and religion, while human mortality is brought face to face with every one—the wheels of commerce is stopped and the business world is hushed while this wonderful death scene rivets the public attention. The religious faith of a great President is brought to view and the Great I Am is recognized as never before. Truly—

"God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform."

THE Enterprise says the Republicans will have no candidate for Judge to succeed Judge Stump, and it speaks by authority, no doubt.

THE Baltimore papers report that "State's Attorney J. D. Urie, of Kent, had a conference with Senator McComas in Baltimore on Tuesday night." What's up now?

THREE Democrats were nominated for the legislature by the Republican Convention of Wicomico. Of course they will be zealous Republicans hereafter, and cannot expect to get Democratic votes.

THE Dorchester Era has placed the Independent Republican ticket at the head of the editorial column and is heartily supporting it. In Talbot the Republicans are in revolt against bossism and have such men as M. M. Higgins, Clayland Mullikin and others leading their ranks.

No Emperor nor King ever had greater respect shown him than has been evidenced by the united people of America at the bier of the late President McKinley. All nations unite in laying upon his casket their wreaths of honor and tribute to one who was dearly beloved and who had the sympathy of all classes and parties.

GROVER CLEVELAND is the only ex-President living. He attended the funeral in Washington, riding in the carriage with President Roosevelt with whom he is quite friendly, the latter having served on the Civil Service Commission under Mr. Cleveland.

CHAS. J. BONAPARTE, ESQ., as counsel for the Republicans, proposes to "go to law" to compel the State authorities to give that party the use of the State census lists in the present campaign. He says he may not succeed in getting the lists, but he "will make it interesting reading to the public." Charley is always happiest before the footlights.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has outlined in some detail the policy he is to follow during his incumbency of office. When he took the oath of office Saturday with much definiteness he said:

"It shall be my aim to continue absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace (and he emphasized that word), prosperity and honor of the country."

He has requested the old cabinet to remain with him during his term of office. It is indeed gratifying to a large class of citizens to see evidences of a continuation of that peace, honor and justice which has characterized the administration of McKinley for a year past. Roosevelt has not the esteem and confidence of the people that McKinley had, but it is hoped that with increased responsibilities he will lay aside prejudice and temper and rule with courage, honesty and common sense.

DR. C. W. WHALAND, of Chestertown, repeatedly predicted the President's death from the day he was shot. He judged entirely by the temperature and pulse as reported by the attending physicans. Did the doctors deceive the public or were they ignorant of the real situation?

The Dead Trolley Line.

Capt. Hill, the President of the board of county commissioners, was not present last Tuesday and the subject of a reconsideration of the board's action relative to the demand for four additional directors in the proposed trolley line in Kent was not formally presented. Yet the attorney for the board was seen by a number of gentlemen interested, and he gave it as his opinion that the board would not rescind their action. The railroad company, it was evident from telegrams received, would have again taken up the matter if the county had even at that late day taken reasonable action, but the failure of the board to do anything, coupled with the confident opinion of their legal adviser, looks like a death-blow to the enterprise. We adhere to the opinion expressed in our last issue that the demand of our county authorities was unnecessary and unreasonable, and it has discouraged if not finally killed an enterprise which would have been of untold benefit to the county, especially to the sections through which it would have run. We do not believe there is any sentiment against the enterprise. There may be a few who hesitated to endorse it because of extreme caution, but the number are so very few that this can be no reason against it. It is a great enterprise. We had the strongest assurance from the Vice-President of the Westinghouse Company that it would have been built—and at once—as his company had the contract for rails, etc. A large sum would have been paid the county in taxes, while the county and no individual was asked to contribute a single dollar or take a dollar's worth of stock. Thousands of dollars would have been spent in the county in work for our mechanics, and the advantages of quick and pleasant travel between the extremes of the county are incalculable. The county gave nothing but the use of a part of the public roads—and that in no wise to interfere with other travel, full protection having been secured in this.

The extra demand for four directors discouraged the capitalists who were about to invest so largely. They said this is an unreasonable demand and it looks like a political move altogether, and they had no liking for anything political when it touched matters of business.

They argue if the county is to allow political interests now to interpose such an unheard of demand what might not be done hereafter? So that they prefer to withdraw altogether the half million dollars and more they were about to invest here and place it somewhere else.

Are we not as a county—through our county commissioners — acting very blindly?

TO NAME A JUDGE.

Democrats Confer About The Vacancy In Second District.

A meeting of the members of the Democratic State Central Committees for Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline and Talbot Counties was held at State headquarters at the Eutaw House Wednesday to arrange for the selection of a candidate to succeed the late Judge Frederick Stump, of the Second Judicial district.

After discussion it was decided that the nominating convention meet at Denton, Caroline county, at noon on Thursday, October 3. The dates of the primaries and local conventions in the various counties were left with the State Central Committees in the several counties. It is thought that the primaries will be held on Saturday, September 28, and the county conventions on Monday, September 30, or Tuesday, October 1.

There will be 18 votes in the convention, divided as follows: Cecil, 4; Kent, 3; Queen Anne's, 4; Talbot, 4; Caroline, 3. Kent has now the Chief Judge of the circuit, Hon. James Alfred Pearce; Talbot has an associate judge, Hon. W. R. Martin. The fight for Judge Stump's successor will, therefore, be worked out by Queen Anne's, Caroline and Cecil counties.

MAY BE QUEEN ANNE'S MAN.

In Queen Anne's it is understood that P. B. Hopper and Edwin H. Brown will contest for supremacy in the Democratic primaries. W. H. Deweese and Henry R. Lewis are talked of as the candidates of the Caroline county Democracy, although Mr. Lewis has not come out formally as a candidate. The only name mentioned in Cecil on the Democratic side is State's Attorney W. S. Evans. Ex-Senator John S. Wirt has declined to enter the primaries in that county. The State Central Committeemen who attended the meeting at the Eutaw House seemed to be confident of success in their counties this fall and said that the nominations already made for county offices and for the Legislature had smoothed out local troubles and placed the party on a better fighting basis than ever.

State's Attorney J. D. Urie, Hon. G. M. Russum and L. Marshall Haines, Esq., held a conference this week and we learn from good authority that the Republicans have decided not to name a candidate for Judge.

THE sentiments expressed by Wm. Jennings Bryan on the shocking death of McKinley are but in keeping with the lofty character of the defeated candidate. Says he, among other things:

"No one can estimate the far-reaching effect of such an act as that which now casts a gloom over our land. It shames America in the eye of the world. It impairs her moral prestige, gives enemies of free government a chance to mock at her and excites an indignation which, while righteous in itself, may lead to acts which will partake of the spirit of lawlessness.

"As the President's death overwhelms all in a common sorrow, so it imposes a common responsibility, namely: So to avenge the wrong done the President, his family and the country, as to make the Executive's life secure without abridgement of freedom of speech or freedom of the press."

ESTATE OF MR. MCKINLEY.

One Report Estimates Its Value At About $200,000—Paid Heavy Debts.

A Washington despatch to the World says:

"The value of the estate of the late President, inclusive of everything he owned and the insurance policies upon his life, is believed to be about $200,000. When Mr. McKinley was elected for the first time he had lost practically every cent he possessed by endorsing notes for Ohio friends. He was a generous man, caring little for money. He stepped into the White House financially wrecked, not merely having lost all of his money but heavily in debt and with notes out against him.

"His friends, prominent among whom were Mark Hanna and H. H. Kohsaat, went to his rescue. They took up his paper and put him on his feet.

"The President was frugal and lived plainly at the White House. He saved a good part of his salary of nearly $1,000 a week and devoted it to repaying the friends who had come to him in the hour of need. Eventually he paid back every penny advanced on his behalf, a sum total of about $100,000.

"The Canton home, the farm near that place, and life-insurance policies amounting probably to not more than $60,000, comprise the bulk of the estate."

Mrs. McKinley will get a pension of at least $5,000 per year.

Senator Frye, of Maine, become vice-president and his salary jumps from $5,000 to $8,000. President Roosevelt's salary is increased from $8,000 to $50,000.

REVIVAL Services wil commence at the Chesterville M. E. Church South, next Sunday September 22nd. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings. they will be conducted by Rev J. Ryder, the pastor and other visitng ministers. Services each night at 7.30 o'clock.

THE W. C. T. U. will meet next Wednesday evening. 1t.

FAIRLEE W. C. T. U., will hold her last regular meeting before State Convention, (which meets at Westminster Oct. 1st) at the residence of the local Pres, Miss Minnie Bramble on Sat., Sept. 28, at 3 o'clock P. M.
