LITTLE TOBE TO GO

The Tiny Trotter To Be Docked And Shown In The Ring.

Persons who are familiar with the race horse Little Tobe will hear with regret that he has been sold and is to go out of Maryland. Little Tobe is a son of Pamlico, 2.10, and has a trotting record of 2.19¼.

His mark is not a criterion by which to judge his speed. He was a close second over the Pimlico track to Gretchen in 2.12¾. He was then owned by Mr. Allie Merriefield, who at the time refused $5,000 for him. Later he was purchased by Mr. Ormond Hammond, who sold him to Mr. E. J. Diggs, who in turn sold him to Mr. Herman Bernheimer.

Yesterday Mr. Bernheimer sold him for a good price to Mr. S. B. Nelson, agent of the American Horse Exchange, New York. Little Tobe will be docked and used as a show pony in the ring. He is thought to be the greatest trotter of his inches in the world and is deemed a most perfect speciment in conformation of a little horse. He is a rich bay and his trotting action is superb. He is only 14 hands high. If a wheeler can be found to match him Mr. Nelson says he will train the horse to lead a tandem team and may soon be exhibited in Maryland.

ITEMS HERE AND THERE.

Miss Lida Hague is at home on a little visit.

Misses Clara and Daisy Jones returned last week from a most delightful three-weeks visit to their aunt and uncle Dr. and Mrs. Glascock, of Talbot. Miss Clara gained 12 lbs. in weight and Daisy 3 lbs. Daisy was quite poorly when she left, but after bathing and boating on the beautiful Miles river and partaking of the fine meals cooked by her lovely aunt Nannie, the roses returned to her cheeks again—indeed Dr. and Mrs. G, entertain most beautifully in their home for we have partaken of their hospitality and know.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Plummer, who moved on the Capt. Thompson farm on Lankford Bay, have one of the prettiest and most healthy situations in this fair county of Kent for a home, and as they have greatly improved the place have now one of the loveliest water situations imaginable and we need not add they are still as ideal entertainers of their many friends as ever; indeed they never seem so happy as when surrounded by their friends. Mr. P. has a tame fox he caught when quite young and it is quite amusing to children, and his daughter who is spending the summer home has twin chickens hatched from one egg—they are light-Bramah pullets and exactly alike.

Miss Theresa Rohleder, of Baltimore, is visiting there, also Mrs. Paradee, mother of Mrs. P. She is 73 years old and weighs 198 lbs. and is quite a youthful looking lady in spite of her beautiful crown of gray hair. She has been visiting Mrs. J. C. Jones, at Lynch's, this week and is at Mr. and Mrs. Dodson's now and expects to leave for home next Saturday.

Mr. Charlie Rohleder, son-in-law of Mr. Plummer, is over with his wife and is much pleased with the country and will for a while at least remain on the farm. We wish all success and happiness.

VISITOR.

ON EARTH AGAIN.

"Blind Tom," who is a wonder in more ways than one, is still in charge of the family that owned him as a slave, at his birth. The present Mrs. E. Bethune, who manages his tours, is a danghter-in-law of General James N. Bethune, his old "massa." During his career as a pianist Blind Tom has gained much newspaper datoriety. He has been reported dead at least a score of of times, and has far outclassed the cat with the nine lives. His career as a nine-life wonder began way back in 1879, when he was reported to have died in New York city of consumption. A New York journal gave a column of space to the account and an interesting analysis of his brain by a prominent physician was published. A few years later he was a victim in a railroad accident and in 1889 was reported a victim of the Johnstown flood. The fact that Blind Tom had performed at Johnstown at the time led to the report.

He next experienced death through the kindness of a Cincinnati paper, and as alleged, broke his neck falling off a balcony. He rested apparently very quietly a few years when a thrifty local paper had him jumping off the St. Louis bridge. The music of the waters had so attracted his attention, so it was claimed, that he had taken the fatal leap to get nearer to the harmonious murmuring of the water. Since then he has been, as alleged, in numerous railroad wrecks in the East and had his name at the head of the dead list quite frequently. Two years ago the New York papers again gave Tom a "write-up," and claimed that he was dying in an insane asylum in New York City.

Blind Tom will give a concert at Stam's Hall on Friday evening, Oct., 11, 1901.
