Fairlee Notes.

Local Notes.—To Hagerstown fair, Mr. Wm. T. Keyser, Mr. F. Burton Warren and Mr. W. G. Smyth started on last Wednesday afternoon, via. steamer Susquehanna, to Havre-de-Grace, to Baltimore, thence on Thursday morning direct to Hagerstown.

Mrs. Perry Biggs, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crew, of Wilmington, spent the early part of the week with their parents, near Melitota, Mr. and Mrs. F. Frank Crew. Mr. Crew went to Wilmington eleven years ago, and secured employment under the Pennsylvania Rail-road management, and at that time married and by strict attention to business and economy has saved sufficient means to buy a very nice farm, after which he is looking now. Bravo Frank!

Rev. and Miss Jno. M. Arters and Miss Minnie Hudson, started for Easton on Friday morning, to attend the Epworth League Convention.

On Monday Rev. Mr. Arters was in Baltimore, looking after parsonage business. Truly he is a live up to date business man.

Last Sunday being rainy the services in our village church were materially interfered with.

Farmers in this neighborhood are about through seeding wheat, and the rain of Sunday and Monday was gladly welcomed.

Keiffer pears are going to market, the most of them having been picked. Mr. Reinhart has bought a great many during the season, and paid very good prices.

Apples have been picked, but there are very few in this section, and they are said to be worth four dollars per barrel.

Festivals are now the order of the day, one can scarcely keep up with the dates, but they are all fairly well patronized.

Telephone communication established in our town is a great convenience, and is very well patronized.

From Johns Hopkins Hospital, Mr. Thos. Nugent returned on last Saturday. Mr. N. has been there for some weeks under treatment, and we are sorry to learn that he has not fully recovered, but will return to the University in a few days.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

John Judefind, one of Kent's oldest and best-known citizens, died at his home near Edesville Monday night aged 88 years and ten months. The deceased had been decrepit for a year or more but had been confined to his bed but ten days only. He leaves three children, viz., John, Wm. K. and Mrs. Annie Gale and a number of grand-children. He was a Baptist in religion but attended Wesley Chapel church regularly. The interment took place in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore.

Mrs. Eliza J. Willins, wife of Wm. W. Willin, died in Elkton Saturday, aged 78. She leaves five children one of whom is Mrs. James T. Ford, of this county.

Miss Clara Foulks, aged 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Foulks, of Crumpton, departed this life last Wednesday evening after a prolonged illness of about four weeks.

Thomas Houston, who committed such an awful murder near Airy Hill many years ago, died at the almshouse Monday aged 89.

Josh Hamilton, a well-known colored carter, of Chestertown, died Sunday of typhoid fever.

Santiago Row.—The colored folks seemed to be in high glee Saturday night and Santiago was a veritable East Side. Constable Dill and Officer Hudson made six or eight arrests all of whom were tried before Justice France who dealt out justice to them. One was sent to the House of Correction for carrying concealed weapons, another was given a like sentence for cutting and others were fined. Appeals were taken in two cases. One man who was charged with disturbing the peace turned out to be an old criminal and his offence was proven to have been an aggravated assault for which he was sentenced to the House of Correction for 12 months. He remarked that he'd take his sentence. Santiago is located in the upper part of Chestertown and has become a noted battle ground for all sorts of conflicts. Officer Cooper also made several arrests Saturday in the same section.

WM. MALKOW, proprietor of the Chestertown Bargain store, is selling out his entire stock consisting of men's, boys' and children's clothing, furnishing goods, hats and shoes, regardless of cost.

A good place to spend your evening. Come to Union Revival Services at Sassafras M. P. Church, beginning October the 20th. Interesting addresses, inspiring songs and good fellowship are features of the meeting. You are invited to bring your friends. Everybody is welcome. J. McLain Brown, A. Matzen, pastors.

RT. REV. BISHOP MONAGHAN will be at Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, on Sunday, October 20th, at 8 A. M. and 7 P. M.; at St. John's Church, Rock Hall at 10.30 A. M., on the same day. He will preach at the 10.30 and 7.30 o'clock services.
