IMPORTANT TO VOTERS.

Every Democratic voter who casts a ballot at the November election and wishes the same counted as his sentiments should see to it that he makes his X mark IN THE CENTRE of the space opposite the candidate's name, AND BE PARTICULAR THAT NO POINTS OF THE X MARK TOUCH ANY OF THE LINES FORMING THE BOX OR SPACE IN WHICH HE MARKS HIS BALLOT, otherwise the ballot will be thrown out. Hence care should be taken when marking the ballot.

Sassafras Items.

On October 18th a meeting of the New Castle Presbytery will be held to ordain Rev. Robert Hollett as minister of old Drawper's. For years this pulpit has not been filled.

About 3,000 baskets of apples have been shipped from Townsend stacoin this autumn, and the growers around here are well satisfied with this season's apple crop.

Miss Maud Ringgold, our efficient teacher here, attended the Teachers' Association at Chestertown last week.

Mrs. John F. Ernest and Mrs. Frank Sylvester visited Warwick friends on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Rasin and Mrs. John Johnson visited Rev. J. McLain Brown and family at Warwick on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones and two daughters, Mrs. Wills and Miss A. Laura Jones, of Chesapeake City, spent Saturday and Sunday with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rasin, of near Galena, and enroute for their home on Sunday were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester, their cousins, of Sassafras.

Messrs. Robert S. Griffith and William H. Spry visited Rev. J. McLain Brown and family, of Warwick on Monday afternoon.

Our town was indeed saddened and shocked on Monday to learn of the death of our ministers little son, Rev. J. McLain Brown, of Warwick. The bright little fellow only ten years old, has only been ill a week. It was only a few Sundays ago we heard him sing so sweetly with his little sister in our church. His parents are almost protracted over his unexpected and sudden death. They have the sympathy of our whole town. His funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 from his parents residence to proceed to Salisbury his former home where he will be buried.

Mrs. Harry Griffith and children spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. W. R. Lockwood.

A Fine Supper.—The Kings Daughters served an excellent supper in the old Chambers House on Water street, Wednesday evening, and realized about $50. The Menu was as follows:

Slumberer of the deep; Marine Swimmers; Roast Squeeler; Sugar cured Walker; Roseleaves shredded and dressed; Physician's Hobby; The hotest of hot things heated with hotness; Sweetest of sweet things sweetened with sweetness; Staff of Life.

A Warning. — Wilbert Calhoun, a well-known young man of near Laurel, Del., died Saturday from excessive cigarette smoking. The parents, like many in Kent, tried pleading and most drastic measures to check their son from the habit, but to no avail.

Chesterville Items.

Local Notes.—The farmers are busy seeding wheatand some few have finished. Mr. Baxter was the first to begin seeding and the first to finish. The next long job will be corn husking.

The cool weather has driven our city cousins and summer boarders home to return to their different occupations. Many of them left with heavy hearts.

Sunday was a splendid day for the blues, and we all had 'em. Mr. Ryder postponed his sermon for tomorrow.

Revival services have been discontinued until the busy work is all through with the farmers. They say they have not the time to worship and work at the same time.

Now Messrs. Editors we are anxious to know who played the joke on you by writing up the swell colored wedding and having it published in the marriage column. Your correspondent has been accused by many. The writer made a mistake in the bride's name. She was Bessie Harris instead of Brown. [Not Brown, eh? Well the writer did not state what color and as this is the latest no doubt we may be pardoned.—EDS.]

There will be a great many changes at the end of the year, some leaving the county. Rumor has it that Mrs. Jennie Coppage will go to Rock Hall, Samuel Biddle takes her place, Fletcher Melvin goes on his farm, near Morgnec, John Edwards comes from Cecil to the Brook farm; Mr. Hudson comes from Masseys to the Boggs farm; J. Mr. Clarence Cochran is able to be out again having been housed for a week.

Miss Maggie Clements is visiting friends in Wilmington.

From the looks of the fruit trees we will have a second crop. The frost wasn't in time to kill the fruit.

The Apple crop is a complete failure this year and those who have apples can secure good prices.

GRAND

Democratic Mass Meeting

In ROCK HALL,

On SATURDAY, November 2nd

AT 8 O'CLOCK P. M.

The Democracy of Kent county will have a grand rally in the Hall at Rock Hall, on SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 2nd, commencing promptly at 8 o'clock.

HON. LLOYD WILKINSON,
Ex-Speaker of House Delegates, and
HON. J. B. SCHWATKA,
Sheriff of Balto. City, will positively be present, and probably others. Democrats, Republicans and Independents are cordially invited to be present and hear the vital issues of the campaign discussed. By order,

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

PROHIBITION COLUMN.

STATE TICKET.

For Comptroller of Treasury:
WILLIAM KLEINLE,
of Baltimore city.

For Clerk of Court of Appeals:
DR. G. WEEMS PETHERBRIDGE,
of St. Mary's county.

COUNTY TICKET.

For State Legislature:
EDWIN W. SPEAR,
BENJAMIN F. RASH,
For Sheriff:
JOSHUA R. JARRELL.
For Treasurer:
M. A. TOULSON.
For County Commissioners:
R. T. TURNER.
JAMES E. APSLEY.

Execrable Consistency.

You who believe in Prohibition,
You occupy a strange position.
If you're so anxious to promote it,
Why don't you come right up and vote it?
You pray for it in public places;
You say you think it is a disgrace
That drunkards through streets go reeling;
And show such sympathetic feeling
For all the suffering and the woe
That comes from drink! It grieves you so
To see how many in our town
Before the curse are going down.
You put your name to Temperance pledges;
You work quite hard (around the edges),
But when it comes to real work,
Then, brother, is the time you shirk;
And, after all you have professed
Of love for temperance and the rest,
Your zeal and earnest agitation,
And fervent prayers for men's salvation.
You turn and go straight to the polls,
And vote for rum to damn men's souls!

My beloved christian brother and fellow traveller to the judgement seat of Christ—who will render to every man according as his work shall be—are you a partner—by vote—in the dark and horrible crime of slaughtering the happiness and purity of the home circle, through, and by your anarchistic ballot, which bears its part to accentuate your citizenship to perpetuate the satanic—"Legalized Saloon."

Dare you expect to escape the consequences of your turpitude, culpability and responsibility when brought to face God in that inevitable investigation at the great tribunal, in that portentious moment, you will have to answer for your shortcomings. God will then rule yea, and nay either for endless bliss, or woe to you. Is not this a matter of momentous concern, do you not fear God's wrath concerning the far-reaching consequences of your vote! Never damn your conscience, and soul through any pretext, or complicity to further the ends of Democratic, or Republican saloonism. Sever your allegiance to such parties, and vote with an honest purpose to save your home, and all homes from the curse of rum, to this end, vote no other than a "Prohibition Ticket."
