OCTOBER COURT NEWS.

Judge Stump Eulogized by the Whole Bar—Judge Brown on the Bench —New Hours for Court— Witness Sent to Jail for Contempt.

The court house was crowded Monday morning upon the opening of the October term of the Circuit Court for Kent county. Chief Judge James A. Pearce was on the bench and also associate Judge Edwin H. Brown. The regime of officers of the court were on duty as follows: James T. Dixon, Clerk; Willard Melvin, deputy-clerk; John C. Davis, Sheriff; S. Jack. Davis, deputy-sheriff; John D. Urie, State's Attorney; John H. Greenwood, Crier; Jervis Spencer, Bailiff. Charles H. Hurlock and Wm. H. Blakeney were later sworn in as bailiffs, the former in place of J. E. Thomas, removed from county, and the latter in the place of George C. Atkinson, resigned, on account of ill health.

The roll of the panel jurymen was called and all answered to the call except B. M. Hazell, who was excused from attendance. Juryman Charles L. Watkins was also excused and Charles England and Wm. G. Smith drawn to supply the vacancies.

Judge Pearce announced the selection of Mr. James S. Harris as foreman of the Grand Jury, and the remainder of that body was drawn as follows:

GRAND JURY.

Jas. S. Harris, foreman,	Wm. H. Bonwill,
Lewis C. Ayres,	Ed. B. Pennington,
Tilghman Shafer,	Benj. F. Vansant,
Virgil M. Kendall,	Wm. H. Bowers,
Samuel Mann,	James S. Bradley,
John Medders,	Wm. H. Wallis,
B. J. McCauley,	Wm. Wagner,
John P. Nicholson.	Chas. L. Watkins,
Alday Clements,	Hiram M. Brown,
Clarence S. Hurlock,	Garrett Foxwell,
Richard S. Jones,	Joseph C. Kendall,
John E. Hadaway,

PETIT JURY.

Wm. A. Crew,	A. H. Johnson,
P. A. M. Brooks,	Samuel Burgess,
Charles M. Brown,	Arthur P. Emerson,
Samuel Todd,	W. D. Pennington,
Howard Turner,	Benj. M. Hazell,
George Beck,	Harry C. Willis,
Stephen Boyer, Jr.,	Edw. W. Hepbron,
Thos. W. Toulson,	Joshua R. Jarrell,
A. Hendrickson,	D. James Hall,
John C. Brice,	Thos. G. Wroth,
James W. Ivens,	James A. Casey.
J. Page Gale,	Elmer E. Leary,
M A. Toulson,

The jurymen not drawn on the grand jury compose the petit jury for the term.

Judge Pearce made the charge to the grand jury in a very few words, stating that there were no cases before the court to which it was necessary to make special mention.

The court announced that an experiment of changing the hours of the sessions would be tried during the present term, granting a recess of one hour at noon for dinner. The regular hours of session will be 9.30 A. M., to 12 M., and 1 P. M. to 4 P. M.

Judge Martin arrived on the noon train and took his seat on the bench.

Upon the arrival of Judge Martin, Judge Pearce announced that the Court would adjourn out of respect to the memory of the late Judge Stump.

Maj. Eben F. Perkins, then on the part of the Kent county Bar presented the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, since the last session of the Circuit Court for Kent county it has pleased Divine Providence to remove by death from the Bench of this Circuit—while yet in the prime of life and his greatest usefullness—a most distinguished judge and honored brother, the Hon. Frederick Stump, and

WHEREAS, It is meet and proper that the Bench and Bar of the county should place on record a testimonial of the loss which we have sustained by his death, as well as our high appreciation of his life, character and eminent public service.

Therefore be it Resolved, That by the death of Judge Frederick Stump the citizens of this circuit lose a learned, just and upright judge; his county a most honorable citizen, and State a patriotic and honorable son.

Resolved, That rarely in the history of our country has one of its citizens ever worn the Judicial Ermine, by the voice of the people for so long a period, evidencing in the most distinguished manner the high appreciation of his honorable service, his just and upright life.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the Court at its next session, with the request that the same be spread upon its minutes; that an engrossed copy be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

After reading of the resolutions, eloquent and touching speeches were made by the three judges and every member of the bar, eulogizing the life and character of the deceased Judge.

Tuesday.

The case of Clifton Raleigh for shooting fire-crackers on the streets of Chestertown, was an appeal from magistrate who fined him $1.00 and costs. The court dismissed the appeal. R. D. Hynson for Raleigh; J. D. Urie, for State.

The appeal case of Miss Nettie Dean was tried and a verdict of not guilty. W. W. Beck, for Miss Dean; J. D. Urie, for State.

W. H. Jones for trespass and assault, another appeal case, was tried and found not guilty. R. D. Hynson for Jones; J. D. Urie for State.

Alex. Chaney, Jr., for cutting a colored man in Santiago was found not guilty. W. W. Beck for Chaney; J. D. Urie for State.

George Harris was tried and found guilty of carrying concealed weapons. J. D. Urie for State.

The grand jury brought in indictments against Lee Atwood, Robt. H. Latham, John Flanagen, James H. Matthews.

Wednesday.

The appeal case of Alex. Wright for assault, tried and found guilty. L. W. Wickes for Wright; J. D. Urie for State.

Albert Straughn was tried for violating the local option law several years ago by selling orange soda at Sandy Bottom. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. M. deK. Smith, R. D. Hynson, W. W. Beck for Straughn; J. D. Urie for State. One of the witnesses in this case, from Rock Hall, was sent to jail for refusing to answer a question. He was asked if the orange soda tasted like lager beer and on refusing to answer yes or no, the court sent him to jail until he could give a direct answer to it. He answered all questions after a night in jail.

Biscoe vs. Wm. Darrell was taken up and created much interest. Mr. Biscoe sued for a horse now held by R. D. Hynson, Esq., sold to him conditionally by Mr. Darrell. The jury brought in a verdict in favor of Mr. Biscoe; Marion deK. Smith for Biscoe; H. H. Barroll for Darrell.

The grand jury brought in presentments against George T. Parks, Charles Brown, Walter H. Milligan, Richard O. Barroll, Jos. Jones Wm. Brooks, Albert Pagent; true bill against R. H. Latham, Lee Atwood, Jas. H. Matthews, John Flagan, Chas. Brown, Geo. T. Parks.

The Cecil county ejectment suit was taken up. This case is Lenox Burkhead vs. Edwin Reeside and wife. The suit is for a tract of land in Cecil known as the Marley Mill farm. The array of lawyers on each side is especially formidable. Wm. S. Evans, State's Attorney of Cecil county, George A. Blake, of Cecil, Hall Harris, of Baltimore and Marion deK. Smith, of Kent, appeared for Mr. Burkhead; Albert Constable, of Elkton, R. D. Hynson, H. W. Vickers, of Kent for Mr. Reeside.

The jury was Edward W. Hepbron, foreman; A. P. Emerson, H. C. Willis, Wm. G. Smith, J. Page Gale, M. A. Toulson, J. W. Ivens, Augustine Hendrickson, D. Jas. Hall, John C. Brice, J. R. Jarrell, Thomas W. Toulson. The case occupied all of Thursday and Friday and will be argued today.

Adjourned in Honor of Judge Russum.

The court on Thursday adjourned from 11 o'clock to 1 o'clock in honor to the memory of ex-Judge George M. Russum. Wm. M. Slay, Esq., in a few well-chosen words addressed the court and spoke of Judge Russum's genial disposition; his sound judgement and excellent qualities and made the motion that the court adjourn in respect to his memory. Judge Martin replied on behalf of the court and spoke of Judge Russum having occupied the bench as Chief Judge and the present embarassment of the court at not being able to adjourn for the day and attend the funeral.

The Grand Jury adjourned yesterday, having examined 9 constables, 121 witnesses, made 32 presentments and found 32 true bills; have found the jail clean and neat and the prisoners comfortably provided for.

The following presentments were brought in yesterday:

Herbert Brookins, Edgar Clarkson, Ruben Butler, Henry Beaker, Alex Chaney, Wm. Johnson, Jane Davis, John Wilson, Ezekiel Reynold, Thos. Brown, Wm. S. Walker, Jos. Jones, Rich. O. Barroll, Walter H. Milligan, Wm. Brooks, Wm. Waters.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Clara V. Scott, 40 years old, wife of Dr. Edward A. Scott, of Galena, and daughter of Mr. Sam'l J. Diggs, of Baltimore, died Wednesday evening at the home of her father, 1717 East Baltimore street, of consumption. She leaves a husband and two young daughters. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. W. L. McDowell, pastor of Broadway Meth. Epis. Church, will conduct the services, Interment will be in Greenmount.

Ex-Judge George M. Russum died Monday evening in the drug store of George & Redden, Denton, of heart trouble with which he had been suffering for several days. He was in his 67th year and at the time of his death a Candidate for State Senate on the Republican ticket. He has stood the brunt of many political battles and after repeated defeats would remark that he was a "candidate for Heaven only." He was a man of gentle mind, making friends by the score and possessing marked ability as a lawyer.

James B. Barnett, of Honey Grove, Texas, died on Thursday of last week, aged about 70. The deceased lived in Chestertown for many years and was a carriage trimmer for Mr. John Greenwood, removing to Texas, where he has since resided. He was a brother of Mrs. James A. Shaw, of Chestertown.

Geo. C. Walls, a m erchant of Galena died Wednesday morning 23rd, inst., of Brights disease after a few days illness, aged 29 years. He leaves a mother and one sister the wife of Mr. Chas. E. Faulkner. Mr. Walls was a member of the Kent Lodge I. O. O. F. for several years. Kent Lodge has been unfortunate in losing its members by death being the third this year; before this year Kent Lodge had not lost a member by death for thirteen or fourteen years. Mr. Walls will be buried in the M. E. Church Cemetery on Friday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Services will be held at the church.

A Serious Accident. — Col. Josiah Massey received a message Sunday that his son, Hubert, employed in Wilmington, had been seriously hurt. It seems that Hubert was attempting on Saturday night to connect a gass main with a new stove which had been purchased of him during the day. As soon as the pipe was disconnected an explosion occurred! Hubert was knocked over and when he came to his senses was lying at Mr. John Shuster's with both eyes filled with plaster, eyebrows burned and feeling all shaken up. The Fire Company was called and a big fire averted. Mr. Massey was doing nicely at last reports and an eye specialist thinks he will recover his sight in a few days.

MRS. ANNA EDSON TAYLOR went over the Horseshoe Falls in the Niagara river in a barrell Thursday afternoon and came out alive. Her feat is unparalleled in the history of adventures in the Niagara river and rapids, of which there have been many, most of which have resulted fatally.

MATRIMONIAL.

Sunday weddings are a novelty here and when Capt. Harry Pheffer, the popular waterman, let it be known that he was to marry, a whisper of surprise went through society. Capt. Pheffer, accompanied by his intended, Mrs. Sarah D. Blackway, went to Sacred Heart Rectory Sunday afternoon and were married by Rev. J. T. McSweeney. The bride is the daughter of Mr. James A. Kirby and has been successfully conducting a store on Cannon street for several years.

Mr. George W. Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Watts, of Quaker Neck, and Miss Margaret L. Mabbett, of Baltimore, were married Wednesday evening of last week at Bethany M. E. Church, Baltimore.

The engagement is announced of Miss Clyntonia Gladys Legg, youngest daughter of Col. William Henry Legg, and Mr. James Alexander McGregor, of Worchester, Mass. Mr. McGregor is first officer of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey ship Blake, now stationed in Baltimore for several months prior to its departure for Porto Rico. The wedding will occur during the early winter.

The wedding of Miss Ada Skirven, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Skirven, and Mr. H. Stockton Startt, is announced to take place in St. James M. P. Church on Thursday, November 7th, at 8 p. m.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. Harry Davis, of Still Pond, has been visiting her son, Henry, in Wilmigton, Del.

Prof. Thos. D. Bowers, of Easton, James W. Chapman, Esq., of Baltimore, and Mr. J. Frank Davis, of Wilmington, spent Sunday in Chestertown.

Mr. Wm. H. Stewart, of Easton, visited his mother, near town, Sunday. He expects to remove to Birmingham, Ala. about November 1st.

Master Gaylord Hurlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hurlock, has secured a position in Cambridge.

Mr. Morgan Matthews, the faithful messenger of the Western Union Telegraph Co., has been promoted to assistant operator. Mr. Harry Jewell goes to Lynch's Station and Master Louis Rusk becomes messenger.

Mr. George W. Moffett, of near Masseys, was in town Thursday. He is about 75 years old and says he knows of but three men living who mustered for the Mexican war in 1847 at Harmony, this county. "The day we mustered," said he, "there were thousands on foot and on horseback stretching from Harmony to below Kennedyville and at night we received word that the war was over."

Miss Lida Edwards who has been sick with scarlet feyer is convalescent.

Mr. Wm. Culp, the faithful and efficient operator at Chestertown, accompained by his sister, Miss Susie Belle Culp, are enjoying a trip to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. Mr. West, of Clayton, is substituting during Mr. Culp's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clendaniel are on a visit to the Buffalo Exposition.

Mr. Charles N. Satterfield, of Rock Hall, has been made purser on the steamer Gratitude.

Miss Annie Butler of Crumpton, has received the scholarship to St. Mary's Seminary.

Mr. John Townsend, a former Washington College pitcher, visited the college and friends in Quaker Neck this week. He pitched for the Philadelphia team the past season but has an offer of $2400 from the Washington team which he is likely to accept.

Miss Sadie Frazier, has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Wilmington, and Philadelphia.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hurlock, son of Mr. R. L. Hurlock of near Chester bridge, has formed a partnership with Mr. Frank Wright to conduct a general produce and commission business at 304 S. Charles Street.

Misses Clara Jones, Maude Miller, Merritt Miller and Charles Middleton attended the dance at Dewey Park this week.

Mr. Arlie Dickerson and Miss Neta Russell drove from Milford, Del., to Chestertown and spent Sunday and Monday with her cousin, Miss Ada Barnett.

A party of four who went chestnuting in fine style on Monday afternoon succeeded in capturing two small chestnuts; they returned home and reported them as being very scarce.

Sale of Property.—Joseph N. Wheatley, agent, on last Saturday sold at public sale the residence of the late Harry Rickey on corner of Maple Avenue and Queen street to Mr. George H. Snitcher, of Queen Anne's, for $2300. It is now occupied by Mr. Wm. H. Brown.

Mr. Charles S. Smith has sold the Brice dwelling on corner of Kent and Cannon streets to Mrs. Ida F. Blyman for $750.

Messrs. Marion deK. Smith and Hope H. Barroll, receivers, sold at public sale on Tuesday the following properties located at Rock Hall: Leonard S. Disney house to James P. Price for $365; Marion Downey lot to Lillie E. Downey for $305; D. C. Elburn house to R. D. Hynson for $275; Darius Benton home to J. T. Frazier for $101; Mary E. Hubbard residence to E. E. Leary for $279; D. E. Joiner lot with improvements to C. J. Reiche for $305; the J. W. Fogwell house was held up at a bid of $235 and may be bought at private sale.

Other sales to take place Nov. 12th will be found in the NEWS.

Severely Injured. — Margaret A., young daughter of Rev. Alfred Smith, D. D., was injured while on a merry-go-round at Dover, Del., which several children had built of beams, bolts and chains in the rear of the parsonage. The apparatus collapsed and a beam hit little Miss Smith on the side of the head producing unconsciousness and making her seriously ill.
