BEAUTY REIGNS SUPREME!

Fragrant Chrysanthemums, Superb Music and a Bounteous Supper Served by the Ladies' Improvement Association.

EVERYTHING A SUCCESS AND STAM'S HALL A SCENE OF FAIRY SPLENDOR.

Beautiful! lovely! grand! were the expressions of all who were fortunate enough to get within Stam's Hall on Tuesday evening. The hall was literally packed, and music, flowers and women were the attractions.

On entering the hall a most magnificent mass of the queen of Autumn beauties greeted the eye. On closer inspection their beauty was, if possible, still more pronounced and striking. In the centre of the hall were banked the different specimens and designs, while above them, suspended from the ceiling, was a huge ball of evergreen and yellow chrysanthemums. Around this were the different tables and at the end of the hall the colonial tea gardens where tea was served by "ye ancient dames" in beautiful colonial costume. Mrs. James A. Pearce had charge of the tea room and her able and picturesque assistants were Mrs. Gooding, Mrs. Richard D. Hynson, Mrs. Chas. C. Hopper, Misses Josephine Wickes, Tillie Rasin, May Jones, Addie France, Bertie Burchinal, Barbara Anthony, Bulah Hayes, Hope Wickes, Emma Beck, Grace Wilkins.

One of the most popular and successful features of the two evenings was the gypsy tent which was managed by Mrs. Emil Sprague, assisted by Misses Rida Knight, Anna and Louise Stam. Mrs. Sprague read palms and told the past, present and future of scores. Her talent in this line as wonderful and more than one giddy swain and blushing maid was made happy by the bright prospects for the future that was told them. The married men and ladies were also made glad by having pleasant fortunes revealed to them, If all the good luck comes true that was prognosticated there will be no need to have any more chrysanthemum shows to raise funds for the ladies' improvement association.

The cake table was under the direction of Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Mrs. Wm. F. Russell, Mrs. Wm. R. Aldridge, Mrs. A. M. Culp.

The variety table was managed by Mrs. Dr. Chas. R. Twilley, Mrs. Joel R. Clements, Mrs. Thos. S. Bordley, Misses Idel Baker and Hallie Toulson.

To Mrs. Hope H. Barroll's untiring efforts is due in a large measure the big success of the whole affair. Her assistants on the chrysanthemum committee were Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, Mrs. Dr. H. B. Simmons, Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, Miss Clare Vannort.

The supper on Wednesday evening was a sumptuous affair under the direction of Mrs. Jervis Spencer, Mrs. Allan Harris, Mrs. B. F. Fleming, Mrs. W. J. Vannort, Mrs. Curtis E. Crane, Mrs. Wm. E. Jarrell, Mrs. James A. Brice, Mrs. H. L. Boyd, Mrs. Jas. T. Dixon, Mrs. Wm. W. Beck, Mrs. Dr. C. W. Whaland, Mrs. John D. Welch, Misses Mary Beck, Maggie Plummer; the salads were served by Mrs. John N. Dodd and Mrs. Geo. W. Hatcherson; the waitresses were Misses Lillie Greenwood. Hallie Westcott, Mary Fleming, Nellie McWhorter, Eva Hurlock, Nellie Valliant, Mary Gray, Cora Massey, Corine and Rose Vickers, Rebecca Eliason and Avis Sheppard.

PRIZE WINNERS.

The excellence of the chrysanthemum exhibits made the competition sharp. The judges, Mrs. Grace R. Bordley, Marion deK. Smith, Esq., and Col. Wm. J. Vannort, had a difficult task, but made the awards to the general satisfaction of all.

The prizes were beautiful ferns and palms and were presented from the stage on Wednesday evening to the successful contestants.

The following are the prize winners:

Best single bloom—1st, Miss Anna G. Lambert; 2nd, Miss Etta Edwards.

Finest collection—1st, Miss Anna G. Lambert; 2nd, Mrs. Dr. H. B. Simmons.

Collection containing greatest variety—1st, Mrs. Dr. H. B. Simmons; 2nd, Miss Anna G. Lambert, Best design in town—Mrs. Belle Smith.

Best design out of town—Mrs. Irving L Walker.

Best potted plants—Mrs. Joel R. Clements.

Best collection of potted plants—Mrs. Dr. H. B. Simmons.

Best single bloom grown out of county—Wm. Lehr, Annapolis.

Best collection grown out of county—Wm. Lehr, Annapolis.

Such georgeous home-grown blooms were never before exhibited in Chestertown and it seemed hardly possible such specimens could be grown out of doors. They rivaled hot house plants in every respect and such an improvement was noticed in quality over former years as to be really marvellous.

Miss Anna G. Lambert had thirty-two different varieties and Mrs. Dr. Simmons nearly as many.

Miss Etta Edwards had specimens of the "Fisher's Torch" that would have done honor to a professional.

Mrs. Belle Smith's design was a star and crescent and was a beauty.

Mrs. Irving L. Walker's design was a Fleur-de-lis of exquisite beauty.

The concert was entirely by home talent and each performer showed themselves to be artists. It would be impossible to particularize among so much that was excellent, but each musician gave an interpretation which added to their own peculiar charm made each number a grand success and received the unstinted approval of the whole audience. The Opera House Band rendered fine music.
