LOCAL NEWS.

Milk Route Sold.—Mr. James T. Anthony, near Chester bridge, has bought out the Chestertown milk route of Mr. Robt. Moffett and will hereafter take charge of the route and supply Chestertown customers.

Blackberries in November. — Ex-Comptroller Marion deK. Smith has wonderful blackberry plants at his Chestertown home. Just think of it, ripe blackberries in November! The day after the election he gathered ripe berries and they were good specimens of his unique variety. This is the latest he has ever gathered, but has had them ripe as early as July 4th.

Bedworth, Jr., Wins.—The $400 stake race at Greenwood, Del., on Thursday was won by Bedworth, Jr., best time 2.14¼. Democracy failed to show up and Prince A., was the competitor. Prince A., has beaten Democracy and won one heat from Bedworth. The 3500 people present were sorely disappointed at Democracy's back down. The Chestertown contingent were compelled to hire a special train at Queenstown to take them to the race as the regular train left before the Ford arrived.

Bedworth, Jr., has made a wonderful record this season in races won. He has entered nine races, winning eight and coming in second in the ninth. About $1800 has been earned for Mr. Wm. Bell in this one season.

A Chestertown Carter's Hard Luck. — Jim Blake, a colored Chestertown carter, is having bad luck these November days. About three weeks ago one of his horses stuck a nail in his foot, took the lock-jaw and died. Two weeks ago Bailiff Hudson arrested him for trotting on the streets of Chestertown and he was fined. Last Saturday another one of his horses fell down a well in Lynchburg and landed on an old pump stalk. The animal was so badly hurt that he died in great agony. Jim shed tears over his hard luck and many have sympathized with him.

Eggs Going Up. — Eggs are selling in Chestertown at 25 cents per dozen and are scarce at that. Are Kent's farmers' wives salting them down or getting ready to make a corner on them? The big Chicago packers, Armour & Co., and the refrigerating houses are placing in cold storage every case of eggs that they can buy. They expect to have the market cornered by January 15.

Then it is asserted, the public in that section, at least, will be compelled to meet the demands of the combine or abstain from eggs. The retailers of eggs have shown their alarm over the condition by demanding 27 cents a dozen for their supply. A week ago eggs could be bought for 22 cents

No fewer than 500,000 cases of eggs have gone into cold storage since July 1. Armour & Co. are reported to own about half this number.

New House at Tolchester. — Supt. George E. Noland will move into his new house at Tolchester this week. The building is a great improvement over the old residence and gives the popular superintendent and estimable wife a home worthy of their excellent management.

Public School Notes. — Miss Maud Ringgold has resigned her school at Sassafras and Miss Annie B. Weer appointed in her place.

The School Board on last Tuesday appointed Miss Freddie Strong as assistant teacher at Locust Grove in place of Miss Weer, who goes to Sassafras.

The new school house at Massey will be ready for occupancy about the middle of December and the colored school at Chesterville has been put in thorough repair.

The Kent school board has agreed to give $10 to any school that will raise $10 toward the purchase of a school library. The schools of Miss Ethel Soloway, Mr. Walter A. Sparks, Mr. W. C. Copper and Miss L. M. Booker have raised the necessary funds and now have libraries that will prove of great benefit to scholars, teachers and patrons.

A new feature in Kent school matters will be inaugurated by Examiner Jos. Peterson this month. It is the holding of group meetings for teachers. The first of these meetings will take place on Nov. 22 at Rock Hall; second, Nov. 25 at Galena, third on Nov. 27 at Chestertown. At these meetings Mrs. Ida A. Elliott, Hon. M. Bates Stephens and other well-known educators will be present and give practical talks on matters of interest to teachers.

Gunning Accidents.—George Berry, colored, near Conowingo, shot himself Friday afternoon while gunning and died soon afterward. He was lifting his gun over a fence when it was discharged. The wound under his arm caused him to bleed to death.

John M. Clayton, of Golt's, was gunning Tuesday and placed his hand on the muzzle of the gun and while laying it on the ground he struck the hammer against a log, causing the gun to go off, shooting away three of his fingers. He was brought to Sassafras and Dr. E. N. Jeter dressed the wound.

Thomas Crompton, Jr., aged 21 years, was shot in the head and instantly killed Wednesday by his companion, Eugene Davis, aged 40. The two were hunting on the farm of Mr. S. S. Stouffer, near Sharpsburg. Davis had purchased a breech-loading gun but a few hours before and says that the shooting was an accident, but he is under bond to appear before a coroner's jury. Davis had fired into a flock of partridges and wounded several of them. It was while running to catch the wounded birds that Davis says his gun caught in the long grass and was discharged.

HARPER & SON, of Still Pond, say the past month has far exceeded their sales for the same month last year and point to this fact as being caused by the special values they are offering and the attractions they offer for money saving.

Present From Mrs. Roosevelt —Mr. Wm. D. Crosby received last Monday a handsome Irish linen embroidered handkerchief from the wife of President Roosevelt. The handkerchief was given to the ladies of Rock Hall M. E. Church and was expected in time for their festival. It will be taken care of by Mr. Crosby and sold at a future time The gift is highly appreciated and will no doubt bring a high price.

A Christmas Cargo.—Preparations for Christmas were seen yesterday at the Gay street dock in a cargo being stowed on board the schooner Agnes for Chestertown, Md. Packages of toys, miniature wagons, hobby horses, chairs, buckets of candies and boxes of other gifts for children made up the bulk of the shipment. While the little ones figured extensively in it the older tastes were not forgotten, for alongside the cabin house lay barrels of good cheer.—Sun.

This cargo belongs to Mr. Charles S. Smith, the cash merchant.

Held For Court.—Wm. Moore, a colored character of Kent, was given a hearing on Wednesday before Justice France for the attack on Mr. James W. Chapman on Saturday night week. Jas. Coleman, Emma Keys, Rebecca Ringgold and Susie Wilson gave very damaging testimony connecting him with the assault and Justice France held him for the action of the grand jury. Moore has rather an unsavory reputation and is also wanted in Galena for larceny.

Aug. Copenhaver's Will.—The will of Augustus Copenhaver, filed for probate in the Orphans' Court for Baltimore on Monday, leaves in trust for his son, John H. Copenhaver, and the son's wife, with remainder to their children, a farm of 62 acres in Baltimore county and an insurance policy for $2,000 on the life. The balance of the estate is to be held in trust for the widow of the testator, Mrs. Elizabeth Copenhaver, for life. Upon the death of the widow the following bequests are to be paid:

Three thousand dollars each to Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville, Kent county, Marvland, Mrs. E. Frank Dodson, of Moore, Delaware county, Pa., daughters of the testator, and his son, Willie E. Copenhaver, of Springfield, Ohio.

Struck Senseless.—A dredger, whose name is not known, was taken to the Johns Hopkins Hospital Monday suffering from a fractured skull. He was employed on the oyster pungy Annie K. Dukes, Capt. L. A. Jones. While at work off the Tea Tables, opposite Kent county, the man was struck by the crank handle of the dredge.

"ROMULUS," the fast trotter of Ex-sheriff Bedford Roe, has been purchased by Mr. Samuel Hicks and some interesting races can be looked for on the snow this winter.

MUST REMIT BOARD BILL.

On This Promise Kent County Deputy Sheriff Got a Prisoner.

William Parker, colored, was taken from the Central Police Station to Chestertown, Kent county, on Monday, by Deputy Sheriff, S. J. Davis. He is wanted here on the charge of assaulting and robbing Herbert Warren, colored.

The deputy sheriff said that Parker, Herbert Brookins and another colored man met Warren as he was riding a bicycle along a road near Edesville, several weeks ago, grabbed and choked him almost into insensibility and robbed him of $5. Mr. Davis said all three men were indicted. Brookins was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. The deputy sheriff brought him to the institution Monday.

Parker had been locked up at the Central Police Station for several days and had eaten meals to the aggregate cost of $1.25. Captain Schleigh wanted Deputy Sheriff Davis to pay the board bill before getting the prisioner, but the deputy said that he did not have the money, but he promised to have the Sheriff of Kent county to remit the sum in question and with this understanding he got the prisoner.

Real Estate Sales. — Marion deK. Smith and Hope H. Barroll, Esqs., receivers of the Chester Loan Association, on Tuesday sold the following properties at public sale:

The Darius Scott property to C. J. Reiche for $210; the D. W. Crosby property to Hettie E. Crosby for $470; the Columbus L Kendall property to Lena Kendall for $105; the John W. Hyland property to John T. Frazier for $115; Meeks property to Jas. A. Casey for $275; the Drew property to R. D. Hynson for $400; the Warren property in Still Pond Neck to Dan'l C. Crew for $550.

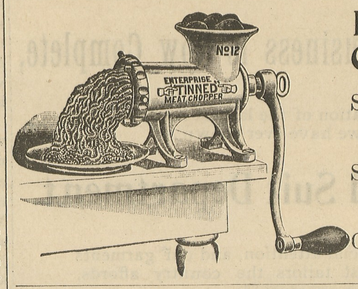

A LIGHT RAIN on Tuesday did the wheat much good in Kent, but the need of more is everywhere shown.
