Fairlee Notes.

Local Notes.—Farmers are busy husking corn, but they complain the very dry weather causes the fodder to break up and handle badly. Some are shelling and shipping their corn.

Mr. Walter Evelyth and wife are visiting Mrs. Marie Corey, near Melitota, having come from their home in Philadelphia last week.

Miss Gertrude Emerson entertained a number of her young friends last Monday evening at a birthday party. Refreshments were served and Miss Gertrude received quite a number of nice presents from her young friends.

The Mite Society of Salem M. E. Church held a very pleasant and profitable supper at Mr. and Mrs. T. H. M. Brambles on yesterday, Friday, evening.

Miss Ida Hudson, Flatland, is taking quite a trip abroad, visiting Baltimore, Annapolis, Washington and Philadelphia.

The weather is just what our village builders would have for pushing their rush of work through.

Mr. Sparks, of Chestertown, the house mover, is moving several buildings for Mr. John P. Nicholson and he has one to move for Mr. Thos. W. Skirven.

The M. E. Parsonage will be under roof in a few days and other mechanical jobs are being pushed to completion.

Mr. R. A. Smith has built a new stable near his recently built dwelling. Mr. G. F. Bacon has rented Mr. Smyth's property for next year and Mr. Frank Getshell takes the property he vacates.

The Fairlee Mill is undergoing a change in machinery under an expert millwright and Mr. Frank Getshell.

There have been a number of marriages in our community and still there are more to follow.

Great many around are suffering with severe colds prevailing almost as an epidemic.

Rock Hall Locals.

The sixth anniversary of Rock Hall Council No. 149 Jr. O. U. A. M. was celebrated on last Thursday evening in the K. of P. Hall, at this place. A grand supper was served to over two hundred friends and members of the order. The supper continued until 8 o'clock. Mr. Chas. N. Satterfield, master of ceremonies, then introduced Mr. Max Alexander, who gave a short address on the objects of the order. He was followed by Mr. Aaron Goodman, of Baltimore; and then came the star speaker of the evening, Rev. M. P. Fykes, of Brantly Baptist Church, Baltimore. After the speaking came the dancing, which lasted until 2 A. M. The music was furnished by Prof. W. E. Wilson's orchestra.

It is said that Rock Hall is soon to have a physician of the homeopathic faith and a good one. He will live in the village.

Mail Driver Kelley says he does not notice any decrease in the mail matter along his route, although several rural routes have been opened this year radiating from Chestertown and Rock Hall.

A stereoptican lecture, "Life of Christ," will be given next Friday evening in the Rock Hall K. of P. Hall, by Mr. Geo. B. Twilley for the benefit of the Jr. O. U. A. M.

Chesterville Items.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Monaghan of the diocese of Wilmington, administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of fourteen children on Sunday morning. The revernd gentleman preached an able sermon to the congregation and addressed the children both before and after the sacrament was received. Rev. Father Dailey said high-mass while the choir was ably assisted by Miss Tilly Rasin, of Chestertown and Messrs. Gressert and John Dorsey, of the Bohemia choir.

Rev. Father Dailey, of the Bohemia parish, will preach his last sermon tomorrow and then will be stationed at Galena. Mass will be said every Sunday until further notice, beginning next Sunday.

Local Notes.—Mr. Hubbard Brinsfield was the first to finish husking corn in this vicinity and Mr. Thomas second; they both have a fair crop.

Some farmers in the county claim to have a good yield per acre. The greater part of the farmers in this vicinity say they have not over two-thirds of a crop. We hope to be able to report in our next issue the average crop.

Sunday was a beautiful day for churchgoers. Some of our folks went to the Catholic church to see the Bishop confirm the class of children, which was a very pretty service.

Messrs. Lipscomb and son, of Kennedyville, are painting the roofs on the out-buildings of Mr. E. B. Pennington.

Miss Annie Foxwell is on the sick list, but is now much better.

Rev. C. K. Morris, of Rock Hall, was the guest of Mr. Wm. T. Lusby on Wednesday.

Rumor has it that we are to have several weddings this season. One of our young men, it is said, is to marry pretty school marm in the First district, at an early date.

Mr. Peter Stevens cut his leg about two weeks ago while hauling wood. The wound is getting along as well as can be expected by home treatment.

Died, at the residence of his mother, near here, on Wednesday, Nov. 6th, Hynson Cole, son of Harriett and the late Charles Cole in his 14th year. He was confined to his bed about six weeks when death claimed him. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon conducted by Rev. J. Ryder at Chesterville M. E. Church, South. Interment at Crumpton cemetery.

To Erect a Monument.—Col. Wm. M. Marine, of Baltimore, met in Chestertown Saturday morning the committee having in charge the erection of a monument at the grave of General Philip Reed and the mark of the scene of the battle of Caulk's Field. Colonel Marine has given the promoters of the work valuable assistance and was prevailed upon to become a member of the committee to select the site for the scene of the battle. Mrs. Thomas Hill, of Baltimore, who owns the Caulk's Field farm, has tendered a site for monument on the battlefield. The treasurer of the fund reported that about $300 had been raised and that a widespread interest in the patriotic undertaking had manifested itself.
