J. LLOYD McFEELY'S SAD DEATH.

A Highly Esteemed and Well Connected Young Business Man Commits Suicide in Baltimore.

In the NEWS last week we noted the death of Mr. J. LLOYD MCFEELY. Below we give full particulars. The Morning Herald of last Saturday had the following:

"The report of a pistol from the front second story room of house 714 North Carey street early yesterday morning started Mrs. Mary Bennick, a boarder in the house, who immediately notified W. T. Earp, the landlord. The latter hastened to the appartment and found J. Lloyd McFeely, who had occupied the room, dead in an arm chair, with a bullet hole in his head, and a revolver lying by his side. The bullet had entered the right temple, plowed its way clear through the man's skull, out through the left temple and continued its course through the window. The Northwestern Police Station was called up and Coroner Jones notified. After an investigation the latter decided that the case was one of suicide, and that an inquest was unnecessary. Financial troubles are given as the reason for the man taking his life.

EMPLOYED AS SOLICITOR

"McFeely was employed as a solicitor by the York Safe Company, 32 South Charles street. He came to this city about 10 months ago and had boarded with the Earps for six weeks. His home is in Chestertown, where his widow and one child now reside. Undertaker E. Madison Mitchell took charge of the remains. It is said that he had been brooding over his troubles for some time but none of his friends thought his difficulties were serious enough to cause him to take his life The weapon he used was a five shooter, 32 caliber, and when found four of the chambers were loaded. Thursday night he went to his room without eating any supper, and for sometime was heard pacing the floor. In the morning, before the shot was fired, he was again heard walking the floor.

SKETCH OF THE SUICIDE

"The deceased was a son of William J. McFeely, of Chestertown, and leaves two brothers, Percy T. McFeely, of Ridley Park, Pa., and George McFeeley, of Phila. The bereaved widow is a sister of Jefferson D. and D. Arthur Bacchus, both prominent business men of Chestertown, and a half sister of Rev. Geo. Q. Bacchus, of the Maryland Conference, and Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. McFeely was for some years engaged in the hardware business in Chestertown, and was regarded as a man of high character."

THE FUNERAL SERVICES

The body of the deceased was brought over Saturday evening on Steamer Ford and taken by Undertaker J. N. Dodd, to the Bacchus residence on High street, where the funeral services were held on Monday morning with the following bearers: J. D. and D. A. Bacchus, C. L. Dodd, Wm. F. Russell, Rufus Parks and Wm. A. Wheatley. The heart-broken wife and daughter and distressed father, brothers and sister and other relatives, and many friends attended the funeral and followed the remains to Chester cemetery.

Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, and at one time the pastor of the deceased, conducted the services and referred in touching terms to his personal relations. He paid a high tribute to Lloyd McFeely's generous disposition and sterling character—his excellent worth in all the relations of life during the many years of his close acquaintance with him. "I have never faltered in my high estimate of this young man's character," said Dr. Greenfield, and then in eloquent words he pictured the adversity and distress which swept off his feet the struggling victim of misfortune. The bereaved ones have the sincere sympathy of the community.

His life was insured for $5,000, but otherwise he had no property. The policy was paid up to December 1st.

NEWSY CHURCH ITEMS.

The Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society of the Diocese of Easton met in Elkton Wednesday. Mrs. Annie E. Physick, of Chestertown, presided. Rev. William Schouler delivered the address of welcome. The other speakers were Rev. Archdeacon George C. Hall and Rev. William F. Jeffers, both of Wilmington, Del. Mrs. George C. Hall, of Wilmington, wife of Archdeacon Hall, and Mrs. William T. Malster made addresses on "Woman's work and the Work of the Young In Connection With Missions."

The officers are: President, Mrs. Anna E. Physick, Chestertown; corresponding secretary, Miss Rebecca Wickes, Chestertown; recording secretary, Mrs. G. E. Haddaway, Easton; treasurer, Miss Loise P. Dawnson, Easton; vice-president, Mrs. William H. Wallis, Kennedyville, representing the Northern Convocation; Mrs. J. L. Findlay, Church Hill, Middle Convocation, and Mrs. Addie H. Byrd, Princess Anne, representing the Southern Convocation. Miss E. May Stevens, of Cambridge, is president of the Junior Branch.

Union religious services of the M. P. and M. E. congregations in Chestertown will be held in the M. E. Church on Thanksgiving day morning, at 10.30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield.

Rev. C. K. Morris, pastor, says, there will be an all day meeting in Piney Neck on next Sunday the 24th inst, Miss Sillitoe is with us and will conduct the service. Dr. Corkran will preach in the afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to come over and help us.

Rev. B. F. Jester, of Bay View, Cecil county, has decided to withdraw from membership in the Maryland Methodist Protestant Conference, and will join the Wilmington Methodist Episcopal Conference. He will likely be given a place at Rock Hall by Mr. Corkran.

60 CENTS FOR CORN!

Kent Farmers in Good Humor—Crops Disappointing in Quantity But Good in Quality.

The farmers of Kent as they harvest their corn crop seem to be in better g'ee than for many years As the sheller hums he knows that every bushel means sixty cents whereas last year he was glad to get one-half as much.

Messrs. Turner and Carter at Worton Station are buying large quantities of corn and paying top prices. They say corn is in fine condition and but little rejected. On Dec. 18, 1899, this firm began paying 25 cents per bushel and and 29 cents for cob corn, and yesterday paid 60 cents.

A farmer near town received 57 cents for rejected corn on Monday while several about Betterton netted 61 cents the same day for no. 2.

The yield has been very disappointing and 40 bushels to the acre is considered a fine yield. Mr. John N. Bennett raised 38 bushels to the acre and sold for 50 cents. A landlord in town was delighted one day this week when he received his corn returns. It had been loaded for 675 bushels but weighed out over 800 bushels! This is an exception, however.

Mr. Hiram M. Brown is buying thousands of bushels and says most of it is grading the best.

Mr. F. H. Harper says there are several 50 bushel crops in his neighborhood but that the average will fall below 40.

Mr. Geo. W. Sutton, near Locust Grove, got a yield of 53 bushels of corn per acre on his farm.

Mr. Bartus Trew, near Pomona, got 51 bus. per acre off his corn field. He got 23 bus. per acre from his wheat crop and sold it at $1.00 per bushel for seed. It was the "Improved Fultz" variety and weighed 59 lbs. per bushel and had no difficulty in selling all of it.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. J. Wesley Jarman one of Kent's best citizens, agriculturists and popular neighbors died at his home at Chesterville on Sunday, aged 58. He was stricken with paralysis several years ago, but partially recovered. This was followed by another several weeks ago from which he never recovered. He leaves a wife and five children. Dr. J. Allen Jarman, of Chestertown is one of his sons.

Mr. John Bryan while out mending a bridge on the public road near Millington, on Tuesday was stricken with paralysis and had to be carried home. Doctors and nurses treated him as best they could but he expired during the night, aged 70. For many years the deceased lived at Morgnec removing to Millington in 1899. He leaves a widow and an adopted daughter, Miss Clara Bryan. His brothers are Rich'd., Joshua and Alfred and one sister, Elenora.

Mrs. Caroline Hadaway, aged 67 years, 7 months, died at the home of her sons, John E., and Walter H. Hadaway, near Edesville, on Thursday, Nov. 21. She had been sick for about ten days previous to which she had been the light of the home, a devoted mother to her loving children. She was a faithful member of Wesley Chapel Church and until recent years, when her infirmity prevented, always took an active part in church affairs. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at the house at 2 o'clock; interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah Casey, wife of George W. Casey, formerly of Kent county, and oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meeks, of Still Pond Neck, died at the late residence in Phila., on Thursday morning, of cancer, aged 45 years. She is survived by a husband and eight children. Funeral will take place at her father's residence at Coleman's, this (Saturday) afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp officiating. The pall-bearers will be: A. J. Hackett, Jas. H. Robinson, Joseph S. Clark, John B. Parrott, T. B. Crew, and Wm. G. Rasin. Interment in Still Pond cemetery.

George M. Jenkins, aged 58, died at his residence in Trappe, on Tuesday morning. Mr. Jenkins was one of the wealthiest men and one of the largest land owners in the county. His wife, who survives him, was a Miss Mallalieu of Millington.

Sale of Property.—Mr. Wm. J. Morrison has purchased of Philip Henson his pretty home near the depot for $1,000. Mr. Morrison will improve the interior and remove there next year. Phil, who is employed on the Emma Ford, will make his home in Baltimore.

Mr. A. S. Turner, of Worton Station, has purchased of Mr. Harry E. Cooper his residence in the village for $1100 and will remove there next year. Mr. Cooper will move elsewhere in the village.

Mr. Henan Hurd has purchased a home in Worton from Mr. G. T. Williams.

Mr. A. P. Emerson has purchased a residence in Fairlee from Mr. Geo. E. Noland.

Mr. Thos. W. Trew, member-elect to the Legislature, has purchased of Mr. J. V. Kilbourn his mercantile business at Lankford.

Officer Cooper has purchased of Eben F. Perkins, Esq., attorney, a tenant house in Lynchburg for $175, making nine houses in that settlement owned by the efficient night officer.

THE Kent County Commissioners on Tuesday appointed Mr. George W. Clark as Constable for Millington.

WEDDING EVENTS.

Miss Mary C. Thomas, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. George Anthony Trapp, were married on Tuesday, Nov. 12th and will be at home after Nov. 20th at 3403 Morgan Ave. The bride has frequently visited friends in Chestertown, was very popular and a charming young lady.

A dispatch Tuesday from Newark, Del., says: The wedding of Rev. W. P. Compton, pastor of the Zion Circuit Methodist Episcopal Church, Cecil county, and Miss Blanche E. Street, daughter of James Street, of Newark, Del., was solemnized this evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, on Chapel street. Only the members of the immediate family and a few invited guests were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robt. Watt, presiding elder of the Wilmington district, assisted by Rev. J. P. Otis, pastor of the Newark Methodist Episcopal Church, and Revs. Aloysius Green and William T. Hammond. The house was decorated with potted plants and ferns. A reception was tendered the newly married couple by the congregation of Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, at Zion, Cecil county, after the ceremony. The groom is well known in Kent and has the best wishes of a host of admirers here.

The beautiful home of Mrs. L. M. Corey, near Melitota, was the scene of a pretty wedding on the morning of Nov. 18th at 8.30 A. M. The contracting parties were Miss Maud Hasson and Mr. James Willis. The rooms were tastefully decorated with holly and the arch and chancel rail were trimmed with evergreen and chrysanthemums and tied at the top with a bow of white ribbon. Promptly on time to the strains of Lohengrins Wedding March rendered by Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth the couple entered the spacious parlor and took their places before the chancel-rail, where the Rev. John M. Arters impressively read the marriage service. "Oh Promise Me" was softly rendered during the ceremony.

The bride looked charming in a becoming costume of dark green melrose cloth, with white applique and chiffon trimmings, and carried in her hand the white bound wedding book of the Methodist Episcopal Church from which the service was read. She has for years been Organist of Salem M. E. Church and is prominent in all church work.

The groom wore the conventional black. Mr. Willis is a prosperous farmer of the 6th district, and is also connected with church work. After refreshments were served Mr. and Mrs. Willis left for a Northern trip, via Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Willis' traveling dress was a tailor suit of mode cloth. They will be at home after Nov. 28th.

Mr. George T. Scoons and Miss Annie Shields, both of Rock Hall, drove to Chestertown Tuesday night and were married at Sacred Heart rectory by Father McSweeney.

Miss Bettie Davis, an intimate friend and school-mate of Mrs. W. G. Smyth nee Lizzie M. Corey, was married to Mr. Walter Saulsbury, at her home in Wilmington, North Carolina, on Tuesday morning. The bridal party left immediately after their marriage for Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, and from thence to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Symth's on Friday, where they will spend several days, returning home the middle of next week.

The wedding of Miss Cora, daughter of Mr. Chas. W. Stephens, formerally of Kent, to Mr. John Broening, Jr., took place at the Second English Lutheran Church Baltimore, on Tuesday Nov. 12, at 7.30 P. M. The Rev. G. W. Miller performing the ceremony, immediately after which a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walraven, 1537 W. Franklin street.

The ushers were Harry E. Stephens, a brother of the bride; Thos. S. Anderson, a cousin; Chas. T. Kienel and H. I. H. Fisher, Jr. At 11.30 Mr. and Mrs. Broening took a train at Union Station for New York, Boston and other points north, and on their return will reside at 1211 W Franklin street Baltimore. A number of Miss Stephens' Kent friends attended her wedding.

Fires in Kent.—Dr. Robert M. Price, the Fire Marshal of Maryland, will be in Kent next week to investigate certain fires of recent origin. The State is giving more concern than ever before in its history to the matter of incendiarism. It is something in which everyone is more or less interested. The law punishes arson with penalties of the severist character, and justly so, as villains of the deepest die are guilty of such crimes. Dr. Price is a zealous but discreet official, while his deputy, Charles V. Wantz, Esq., is especially gifted in fire investigations. Any one having information of any kind bearing upon supposed incendiary fires should communicate with the Fire Marshal, Baltimore.

Announcements.—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fowler have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ida E., to Mr. W. Frank Truitt, formerly of Kent, but now of Baltimore, to take place at the home of the bride on Wednesday evening, Nov. 27th.

Miss Virgie Porter, the pretty daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Porter, of Church Hill, and Mr. D. Edw. Monro, will be married Wednesday, Dec. 4th, at noon, at St. Luke's P. E. Church, Church Hill.

THE NEWS has received a number of letters from children throughout the country addressed to Santa Claus. All of these will be published later.

Stack Yard and Thresher On Fire.—While Mr. Wilson Cochran, near Massey, was threshing wheat Thursday week a spark of fire got into one of his stacks and destroyed a large part of it. About 350 bushels of wheat was burned and the thresher also was damaged. The threshing outfit belonged to Mr. Carroll Clarke, of Millington. The wheat was insured by Mr. James G. Beck.

Man Drowned in Fairlee River.—During the terrific gale and storms of last week Fairlee river was crowded with oyster vessels looking for harbor. At one time it is said fully 50 oyster boats were in the river.

One of the colored hands on one of the boats was standing on deck and the sudden jibing of the boom knocked him overboard. He had not been found at last accounts and his name is not known.

Barge Launched.—At the yards of the Enoch Moore and Sons Company, Wilmington, was launched Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the large steam barge Jennie B. Woodall, under construction for Captain Woodall, of Georgetown, Md. James Woodall, Jr., son of the captain, was the sponsor. The boat is 145 feet long, 23 feet beam and 8 feet depth of hold. It is to be used in the transportation of grain, etc.

I. U. PARISH CHRIST CHURCH, will not have any service on the afternoon of Sunday, Nov. 24th, owing to the funeral of Mrs. Caroline Haddaway on that day.
