Death of an old Lady.—Mrs. Eliza Chapian died at the residence of Capt. Stanford W. Bullen, Thursday Nov. 7th, 1901, age 82 years. Mrs. Chapian was the daughter of Mrs. Catharine Porter of Kent Island, who lived to be 84 years of age. For the past 16 years the deceased was housekeeper for Capt. Bullen taking care of his children and household.

Changes in Roman Catholic Priests.—Bishop Monaghan, of the Diocese of Wilmington, which includes Cecil county, has made a number of changes among the priests of the diocese which will take place about the end of this month. The changes are as follows:

The Rev. John A. Daly, of Bohemia, Cecil county, has been appointed pastor of St. Denis's Church, Galena, Kent county, Md. His place will be filled at Bohemia and Middletown by the Rev. C. P. McGoldrick, who has been stationed at Easton and Cambridge as assistant to the Rev. Father Temple.

Rev. F. V. Campbell, of Elkton, has been appointed to the new position in the diocese, of chaplain to the county almshouse and workhouse. He will reside at St. Ann's Church in Wilmington, where he will also assist the pastor, Rev. F. J. Connelly, in the work of the parish.

Rev. James. J. McKenna, assistant at St. Ann's, has been promoted to the position of pastor of Port Deposit, to succeed the Rev. P. P. Arnd, who is transferred to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Elkton, as successor to Father Campbell.

A Double Wedding.—On Thursday afternoon Nov. the 14th at 3.30 o'clock the parsonage of Piney, Neck Kent County, Maryland, was the scene of a quiet, yet pretty double wedding, the contracting parties were Mr. Jarrett T. Price, and Miss Mary E. Ford, Mr. Samuel O. Whaland and Miss Emma E. Everett. The bride was neatly gowned in tailor made suits, Miss Ford's was drab or tan colored cloth, with hat to match, trimming pink and brown. Miss Everett's was navy blue cloth, with hat to match, trimmings light blue and cream. Grooms wore the conventional black suits. Mr. F. Wilson witnessed the novel ceremony, which was performed by C. K. Morris, pastor of Piney Neck Church. After the ceremony they repaired to their home on East Neck Island, where they will in the future reside. Mr. Price is the son of Mrs. Kate Everett by a former husband, and Miss Everett, a daughter by her present husband Mr. Wm. Everett. The happy couples have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long prosperous and happy voyage through life without a ruffle, storm or tempest.

THOUGHTLESS BEHAVIOR.

Chestertown, Nov. 15, 1901.

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS:

The ladies interested in the Town Improvement Society are to be heartily congratulated upon the success of the entertainment given in Stam's Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings; and the young ladies who took part in the musical programme deserve the sincere thanks of all who were fortunate enough to enjoy the very delightful performance.

To those who truly love music, however, much pleasure was lost because of the thoughtless chatter and the apparent forgetfulness on the part of some persons in the audience, that common courtesy demands perfect silence, when a musician is doing all in his or her power, for the entertainment of others.

Few persons realize the amount of time, thought and money that must be expended before a musician is qualified to appear before even the most indulgent audience; and no one in that audience should be so inconsiderate as to annoy or distract the musician who is giving his or her best for sweet charity. Let us hope that when we have the privilege of enjoying another musicale performance in Chestertown, everyone in the audience will help the musician and the music lovers, by keeping a respectful silence. MUSIC.

Burke Carried to Easton Jail.—Friday afternoon Sheriff Meredith and Constable C. Sidney Jump took Lloyd Burke, who stands indicted for criminal assault and rape on Helen Tarman, the 10 year old daughter of T. J. Tarman, of Centreville, to Easton and lodged him in Easton jail. He will be tried in Easton on Nov. 20th.

Bishop Joyce to Preside Over Wilmington Conference.—The annaul sessions of the Wilmington Methodist Episcopal Conference will be held at Crisfield, Md., beginning March 19th, Bishop Isaac W. Joyce presiding. The conference has met at Crisfield but once, in 1887, when Bishop Henry W. Warren presided. The coming session will be the occasion of Bishop Joyce's first visit to the conference. Isaac W. Joyce, D. D., LL. D, was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, October 11th, 1836. At the age of 14 he removed with his parents to Tippecanoe county, Indiana. He was graduated at Hartsville University and joined the Northwest Indiana Conference in 1859. He served in the pastorate from that time to 1888, except four years spent as presiding elder. In 1880 he was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference and appointed to St. Paul's Church, and subsequently to Trinity, in Cincinnati. He was a delegate th the General Conference in 1880 and 1888, and at the latter session was elected bishop. He possesses considerable executive ability, and is one of the hardest workers in the Board of Bishops. He generally holds revival services at conference sessions. He resides in Minneapolis, Minn. The annual session of the Delaware Conference (colored) will be held at Salisbury, Md, beginning April 9th, Bishop Stephen M. Merrill presiding. Stephen M. Merrill, D. D., LL. D., was born in Jefferson county, Ohio, September 16th, 1825. He joined the Ohio Conference in 1864, became editor of the Western Christian Advocate in 1868, and was elected bishop in 1872. Ohio Wesleyan University gave him the degree of D. D. in 1868, and Northwestern University that of LL. D. in 1886. He is the author of many religious books. He resides in Chicago. He presided at the Wilmington Conference sessions of 1885 and 1893.

Secret Societies.—Washington Camp No. 34, P. O. S. of A., of Chestertown, had two distinguished visitors at their meeting on Tuesday evening week. A. M. Geisbert, National master of Forms and editor of The Campfire, the official organ of the order, was possibly the most distinguished guest the camp has ever entertained. On the same evening Mr. A. P. Marine, a member of the City Council of Baltimore, and secretary of The Maryland Death Benefit Association of the order, was present. Both gentlemen made interesting speeches. Washington Camp No. 34 has a membership of about seventy, and is constantly making new accessions from among the most representative of our citizens.

The attractiveness of Fraternal Hall has been greatly increased by a magnificent mounted specimen of the bald eagle. The bird is very finely mounted, and is contributed to Washington Camp No. 34 P. O. S. of A., by William E. Valliant, State vice-president of the order in Maryland, and one of the most enthusiastic and well-posted lodge men in the State.

A movement is now on foot looking to the union of the Fairlee Conclave Improved order Heptasophs with Chestertown Conclave No.371. The Chestertown members of the order have voted unanimously to have the Fairlee members join them, and only the formal transfer remains to complete the union of the two conclaves. The Chestertown conclave is one of the most active on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Death of Isaac L. Noble,—Mr. Isaac L. Noble, a prominent citizen of Caroline county, died at his residence in Preston on Thursday evening, aged 72 years. Mr. Noble was born near Federalsburg, and went to Preston in early manhood. In early life he pursued the occupation of carpenter, and by energy, perseverance and frugality accumulated a considerable estate. He leaves a widow—a sister of Dr. W. F. Corkran, of the Wilmington M. E. Conference—and five children: Chas. Fulton, of Atlantic City; Wilbur C., now at Syracuse University; Frederick, a student at Washington College; Mrs. William T. Kelley and Miss Edith, of Preston. The funeral services were held at Preston Saturday afternoon. Mr. Fred. Noble, of this year's graduating class of Washington College, was at the bedside of his father when he died having left here on Tuesday before the sad event.

Addicks is Downed.

President Roosevelt on Tuesday appointed Robert G. Houston to be collector of Customs for Delaware, with headquarters at Wilmington.

This appointment has been eagerly awaited because it would clearly demonstrate the attitude of the President on the Republican factional fight in Delaware. Mr. Houston, who resides in Georgetown, Del., where he is a prominent lawyer and newspaper man, is a staunch Regular Republican, and has been an active opponent of J. Edward Addicks since the entry of the latter as a Senatorial aspirant.

ONE ward in Philadelphia has 4200 voters and it was thought the vote would be close. But the Republicans reported 4150 majority! All the Union votes had vanished! The so-called Democratic party in Philadelphia is as corrupt as the Quayites and Unionist, and then the rape goes on.
