LOCAL NEWS.

Buried at Galena.—James Walters, an aged and respected citizen of Cecil died at the home of his son, James Walters, on Bridge street extended, on Sunday of last week, after a short illness. He was eighty-three years of age, and is survived by four children—three sons and one daughter. His funeral was held on Wednelday, interment at Galena, Played With Dynamite. — Monday afternoon, while several small boys were playing in St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Cemetery, at North East, a seven year old son of Mr. Frank Bryan found a stick of dynamite. The little fellow not knowing what he had found, began tossing the dynamite about, and soon expleded. A thumb and two fingers of the little fellow were blown off.

Card Club.—The Card Club of Masseys has been reorganized with twenty members. The first meeting was held at the hospitable home of Mr. Jacob Shallcross, the members present being—Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Massey, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Comegys, Miss Sue Taylor, Miss Anna Cacy, Miss Eva Comegys, Miss Mabel Comegys, Miss Evelyn Cochran ; Messrs. Paul Comegys, Isaac Gibbs, Edwin Hurtt, Stephen Ford and J. T. Shallcross.

Cholera.—Kent county is not the only place where the cholera is raging. The death of hogs near Laurel, Del., has reached alarming proportions. Everybody who own swine has suffered. Cholera is the cause of the wholesale slaughter of the porkers. It is said that ninety per cent. of the hogs in that section have died. Already the price of pork has advanced, and it promises to be much higher during the winter.

Mr. Ben Coppage, of near Church Hill, has lost forty hogs and has twenty more sick. Mr. Phillips, of Barclay, expected to kill his hog on Tuesday but it died Sunday.

Weather Signals—Farmers who live along the lines of the rural free delivery mail routes will have the advantages of the United States weather bureau's forecasts of the weather. All they have to do will be to watch the mail cart go by. Arrangements have been made by the postoffice department and the weather bureau to have the mail carts equiped with signals which will be displayed on the sides. They will be as conspicuous as possible, so that they can be read from a considerable distance from the highways. Mail carts will receive their weather predictions for routes in the morning and will put up the proper signals on both sides of their carts.

A Cecilton Wedding.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Anderson, in Cecilton, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening of last week, when their daughter, Miss Annie Anderson, was married to Mr. William B. Woolleyhan, of Earleville. The house was decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and potted plants, and during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. George W. Townsend, pastor of Cecilton Methodist Episcopal Church, the couple stood beneath an archway of a double heart. The bride was attended by Miss Clara Manlove, who wore a gown of white organdy, witn blue ribbons, while the bride was gowned in white organdy, with white riboons, and oarried bride roses. The flower girls were Misses Emma and Blanche Brown and wore white organdy with pink ribbons. James Davis, of Earleville, was best man.

Maryland Girl Was Stage Struck.—The Binghamton, N. Y., correspondent of the Baltimore Herald says: "Mary Helen Donovan, a well dressed young lady, who gave her residence as Queenstown, Md., and said her father was a wealthy fruit grower of that section, was arrainged before Judge Smith today on charge of waywardness, her mother being complainant. Her mother alleged that Miss Donovan had become stage-struck, and desiring to exploit her histrionic abilities had run away from home to join the Katherine Rober Co. The girl had in her possession letters of introduction to theatrical people here. The girl was found here by Detective Stephenson, and has promised to obey her mother and give up stage career. "As far as we can learn no one by this name now resides at or near Queenstown.

TO BE QUEEN OF THE BAY.

New Queen Anne's Steamer Will Be Swift And Fine.

The Queen Anne's Railroad Company has given a contract to the Baltimore Drydock Company for the construction of a new steamer at a cost of about $125,000, to be used in connection with the railroad.

It is the intention to build a vessell which will be the queen of the bay. Experts are going over the plans and work on the new vessell will be started within the next few days. It is to be finished by the middle of June. All the latest features will be provided for the safety and comfort of passengers. The style of architecture will be unusual, as it is said the new steamer will embrace features of both steamer and steamship. The material will be steel and iron. The vessell is to be 210 feet in length, with 32 foot beam, and is guaranteed to make 17 miles per hour.

The object of the owners and constructors will be to give to Baltimore not only the fastest but the most complete excursion boat going out of the harbor. The steamer is to be propeller, and is to be constructed especially for hard weather.

On the lower deck will be the purser's quarters and quarters for the crew. Aft will be the culinary department, fitted with the latest appliances for dispatch in serving meals. On the second deck will be a mammoth dining room, staterooms, lavatories and private parlors.

The saloon will be fitted with luxurious furniture throughout. On the third deck will be a promenade, pilot house, captain's quarters and smoking room.

The vessell will be fitted throughout with electric lights, call bells and enunciators. In the pilot house will be a steam steering apparatus.
