MR. SMITH IS FOUND.

Centreville Merchant a Victim of "Knockout Drops."

While the police and detectives were searching the city and his relatives visited Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore in an effort to find him, Mr. David Smith, a prominent grain merchant of Centreville, Md., was recovering from the effects of "knock-out drops" at the home of Mr. Simon Otto, a constable and private policeman, who lives at 232 North Mount street. Such, at least, is the story told by Mr. Smith and his brothers-in-law, Messrs. Samuel T. Bouchelle and E. A. Cann. Mr. Smith is now at the Johns Hopkins Hospital suffering from gastritis, the result of his experience.

As told in The Sun of yesterday, Mr. Smith arrived in Baltimore on Christmas Day to sell a large quantity of wheat. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the following day he called on his friend, Dr. Thomas Sudler, pharmacist, at 700 East Baltimore street. At that time he had in his possession a check for $500 and about $10 in money. From that time until yesterday afternoon—exactly a week—his whereabouts were a mystery to his family. As the days passed and no news was received from him his wife and friends became alarmed.

Searched in Three Cities.

The police departments of Baltimore, Philadelphia and Wilmington were notified, and on Friday of last week Messrs. Bouchelle and Cann, brothers-in-law of Mr. Smith, came to Baltimore and made a canvass of all the hotels in the hope finding him. Last Tuesday they returned to Centreville, and then went to Philadelphia and Wilmington in a fruitless effort to find some trace of the missing man.

Dr. Sudler was communicated with by Mr. Smith's family, and the doctor visited all the local hospitals with the hope that he might be found. Messrs. Bouchelle and Cann and Mr. Frank Harper, State's Attorney for Queen Anne's county, arrived in Baltimore Thursday night to continue the search for the missing man.

Found in Hospital.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Dr. Sudler received a telephone message from the Johns Hopkins Hospital saying that Mr. Smith was at that institution. Dr. Sudler immediately notified Messrs. Bouchell and Cann and the three went to the hospital and saw Mr. Smith, who is in Ward E, under the care of Dr. Bunting.

Tells of "Knockout Drops."

To the three gentlemen Mr. Smith toldthe story of his experiences. He said that Thursday afternoon of last week he had met a strange man in a saloon in the center of the city and took one drink with him. Immediately afterward he relapsed into a semi-conscious state and remembers nothing more until he was picked up by Mr. Simon Otto, whom he had known for some time, on Baltimore street, with his currency gone.

Mr. Otto took him to his home, where he remained for a week. He suffered terribly with burning pains in the stomach and Mr. Otto called in a physician, who advised that Mr Smith be removed to a hospital. Late Thursday night Mr. Smith was removed to the Johns Hopkins Hospital, where the physicians say he is suffering from gastritis.

Mr. Otto Did Not Think of Family.

Messrs. Bouchelle and Cann saw Mr Otto at the hospital and he corroborated the latter part of Mr. Smith's statement. When asked why he had not communicated with Mr. Smith's family Mr. Otto told Messrs. Bouchelle and Cann, so the latter say, the idea had not occured to him. To the gentlemen Mr. Otto gave a card with the following inscription:

"Simon Otto, police, 420 East Baltimore street."

Inquiry at 420 East Baltimore street elicited the information that Mr. Otto lived at 232 North Mount Street. A reporter of The Sun called at that address twice yesterday, but was told each time that Mr. Otto was not at home. A diligent search of various halls in the center of the city, where Mr. Otto has been employed at different times, failed to locate him.

Mr. Smith will probably be able to leave the hospital in a few days unless some complications develop.—Sun of Saturday.

HEAD OF FAMOUS FACTORY RETIRES.

William Deering, founder of the great harvester concern which bears his name has retired from active business, leaving the company to his sons, Charles and James, and his son-in-law, Richard F. Howe. Mr. Deering's reasons for retiring are failing health and a desire to rest from business worries after an active career of more than half a century.

Mr. Deering is one of the best-known men in the West, and is one of a number of men who, through their public spirit and force, have made Chicago what it is today. He was born in Maine in 1826.

In 1879 Mr. Deerng established the Deering Harvester Company at Deering now part of Chicago. It covers eighty acres, and 7,000 men are employed, the output of the company being thirteen hundred harvesters a day.

Many educational institutions have been endowed by Mr. Deering. It is estimated that his gifts to the Northwestern University have exceeded $400,000.

Strawberries 75 Cents a Quart.—A commission merchant in Baltimore on Monday received a consignment of 80 quarts of strawberries, grown in Florida. The berries, which were shipped in refrigerators, were of excellent quality and size. They were said to be unusually good for this season of the year, and to compare favorably with summer berries, which are not seen in the market until June The dealer sold part of the consignment at 75 cents a quart, while the summer berries, being more plentiful, only from 25 to 50 cents a quart. The berries are known as the "Lady Thompson" and were grown at Plant City, Fla.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF

DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 729 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
