RAILROAD NEWS.

Earnings--$100,000 Paid for the Kent Road--Directors Elected.

The 15th annual meeting of the Delaware Railroad Company and the first since the company has acquired practically all the branch roads of the Peninsula, was held in Dover last Thursday.

The stockholders' meeting was held at noon and these directors were elected for the year: Henry F. Kenney, Ridley Park, Pa.; E. Tatnall Warner, Wilmington; John P. Green, Samuel Rea, Philadelphia; Samuel Bancroft, Jr., William H. Swift, Wilmington; Walter O. Hoffecker, Smyrna; Manloye Hayes, Dover; William T. Watson, Milford; Thomas Curry, Greenwood; James G. Ross, Seaford; Hezikiah Harrington, Harrington; William T. Records, Laurel; Murray Vandiver, Havre de Grace; Md.; Charles T. Westcott, Baltimore, Md.

The freight earnings show a decrease of $56,696,44, while the passenger and miscellaneous earnings increased in the sum of $16,696.55.

The decrease in the freight earnings was entirely due to the large fallings off in the fruit traffic, the revenue therefrom being reduced nearly $150,000 below that of the preceding year.

The extraordinary expenditures of the year amounted to $349,306,71.

The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company having acquired in your interests the Baltimore and Delaware Bay and Smyrna and Delaware Bay railroads, sold these roads to your company as of June 1, 1901, free and clear of all incumbrances, for the sum of $100,000, that price having been agreed upon between the two companies as a fair valuation therefor. These lines are now operated by the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company under the same terms and conditions as those upon which they operate the other lines of your system.

The directors submitted to the stockholders of the company a statement of its operations for the year ending Oct. 31, 1901, together with the reports of the trustees of the two sinking funds.

Its mileage is as follows:

Main line, Shellpot Crossing to Delmar, Del.	95.22
New Castle Cut-off, Junction Shellpot Branch to New Castle, Del.	5.45
Branch, Townsend, Del., to Massey's, Md.	9.25
Branch, Clayton, Del., to Smyrna, Del.	1.29
Branch, Seaford, Del., to near Oak Grove, Del.	5 73
Branch, Clayton, Del., to Oxford, Md.	54.30
Branch, Massey's Md., to Centreville, Md.	25.90
Branch, State Line near Oak Grove, Del., to Cambridge, Md.	27.24
Branch, Clayton, Del., to Maryland State line	6 95
Branch, Delaware and Maryland State line to Chestertown, Md.	22.92
Branch, Worton, Md., to Nicholson, Md.	3.72
Total	257.97

INCREASE IN WAGES.

Wages of engineers, conductors, baggagemasters, breakmen and flagmen on the P. W. & B. railroad Monday, received notices of an advance in the rates per trip now paid to an extent of 7 to 7½ per cent.

Under the new schedule the yard conductors receive $2.90 for night work of ten hours and $2 75 for day work; flagmen $2.52 night, and $2.38 day; breakemen, $2 40 night, and $2.28 day. The through conductors receive $2.65 for one way between Philadelphia and Baltimore; flagmen, $2.10, and brakemen, $2.

PICTURE AGENT ARRESTED.

Mr. Newnam Was in Chestertown and Did Good Work for Many Citizens.

M. Newman, a picture agent is in all kinds of trouble and Sheriff Delahay had him in his care for a day. From what we can gather, Newman visited our town several weeks ago and wanted to enlarge pictures for his health, or as he said to advertise his school. He succeeded in landing a good supply of victims who were willing to buy his frames at prices ranging from $1 to $12 and here is where he came in for traveling expenses. He went to deliver a picture to Mrs. Frederick Startt on Wednesday and insisted on her taking a frame but she said her husband said he did not want any frame. After a long talk he finally offered her a frame for $1 which offer she accepted and paid him the money. He grabbed the frame and made out of the house and, as the woman's husband was away, she sought the assistance of Officer Thomas who soon landed his bird in Justice Aker's court and, after a hearing, was consigned to the care of Sheriff Delahay under $200 bail. Justice Aker has been busy ever since Wednesday giving advice to the other victims of Newman.

Here is another lesson for our people in dealing with strangers and one that will make some of them pay dearly for their learning. We have seen several of the frames and they are worth about one-fourth the price paid and we feel sure our dealers would be glad to supply them at one-fourth the price and make a good margin. Again we say, beware of the oily tongue agents as they do not talk for their health, they are after the shining gold. Deal with home people and be happy. Newman was released from jail, Thursday evening.—Queenstown News.
