WHERE DOCTORS FAIL

To Cure Woman's Ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds. Mrs. Pauline Judson Writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Soon after my marriage two years ago I found myself in constant pain. The doctor said my womb was turned, and this caused the pain with considerable inflammation. He prescribed for me for four months, when my husband became impatient because I grew worse instead of better, and in speaking to the druggist he advised him to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. How I wish I had taken that at first; it would have saved me weeks of suffering. It took three long months to restore me, but it is a happy relief, and we are both most grateful to you. Your Compound has brought joy to our home and health to me."—MRS. PAULINE JUDSON, 47 Hoyt Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

It would seem by this statement that women would save time and much sickness if they would get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and also write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helps.

"REAP AS YE SOW"

A Practical Sermon to Young Men by a Baltimore Divine.

Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters, of the Immanuel Babtist Tabernacle, St. Paul street and North avenue, Baltimore, preached Sunday evening on Galatians, 6-7: "For whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" Among other things he said:

"One of the most thoroughly abominable and dangerous maxims is the very common one that a young man must sow his wild oats. It is a notion that has ruined thousands

"I have somewhere seen a sculptured representation of Bacchus, the god of drink and revelry. He is riding on a panther at a furious bound. How many a man thinks as he begins his fast life that he has mounted a well broken steed and he can stop it when he pleases. But he finds, when he approaches the chasm, that he is astried a savage beast that no human power can pull up.

"There is an awful mystery in the downward progress of sin, and how often do we see that men who were once the master of sin become its slave. They never intended to be bad, but, step by step, they lowered themselves, freely indulged their baser passions, until a vicious life became domineering, then controlable.

"If the sum of all the pain that comes from the sowing of wild oats could be harvested it would rend the heavens with its outcry. The harvest that comes of sowing wild oats is bitter disappointment, a loveless home, a heart consumed to ashes, the misery of the unsatisfied and the shame of the unclean.

"Nothing ever comes from the siren's maddening song except misery and disappointment. Edgar Allen Poe, one of the most brilliantly gifted men of letters America ever produced, died friendless and alone in the streets of Baltimore before he was 38. 'The Raven,' which he saw on the bust above his chamber door, was delirium tremens—Only this and nothing more.'

"What a price to pay for a few days of sensual delights. Young men make a sad mistake when they think it necessary to have a personal acquaintance with the seamy side of life. The social vice is astonishingly on the increase and is sapping the physical strength and the moral manhood of the nation. Behold the sons of our rich and indulgent fathers galloping through sensuality to a quick decline, enduring the agonies of a shattered life, dying of extreme old age before they are 35.

"I plead with you, young men, with an earnestness which almost takes my breath away, avoid as you would a malignant friend the mocker of woman's purity and life's holier affections. Not one woman in a hundred passes the portals of shame through deliberate choice. Man's damnable deceit and base betrayal open the door. Yet society draws back its skirts lest perchance it touches the woman's garments as she passes but to the man puts forth a willing hand to clasp with his which led her to destruction and disgrace.

"Society stones the woman, but is all smiles on the fallen man. Sex should make no difference in sin. I protest against stoning the woman while the man goes free."

The Negro Race in the United States.—The negroes in the forty-five States and four Territories of the United States number 8,840,789, or about one-ninth of the total population. In the eight Southern States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas nearly two-thirds of the whole, or 6,108,788, still dwell, but during the past ten years at least 150,000 have migrated to the Northern States. Pennsylvania, of the States, and Philadelphia, of the cities, made the largest gains from 1890 to 1900. During the decade Pennsylvania gained 49,249 negroes, New York 29,143. New Jersey 22,206, Illinois 28,857, and Indiana 12,290, white the remaining twenty-six of the thirty-one States, known as free States in 1860 gained 50,000. The The five cities having more than 60,000 negro residents are Washington, 86,729; Baltimore, 79, 256,; New Orleans, 77,-714; Philadelphia, 64,024 and New York, 60,066. During the ten years Philadelphia made the largest gains of the cities, the increase being 23,242, Memphis was second, with 21,204; Chicago, third, with 15,879, and New Orleans fourth, with 13,223. The negro population has increased 55 per cent in Philadelphia in ten years, 111 per cent. in Chicago; 74 per cent. in Memphis and 68 per cent. in New York city proper. In the decade ending in 1890 Washington, D. C., led all the cities in the gain made, but in the last ten years Philadelphia's increase was double that of Washington and Chicago gained 4749 more than the capital. Another notable fact shown by the census is the very slight gains and in some instances actual losses in negro population in many of the Southern cities. The increases in Charleston, Chattanooga, Nashville, Vicksburg, Dallas, have been very small, and while Pittsburg gained 9190, and Indianapolis Ind., 6798, Lynchburg lost 1548, Petersburg lost 1470 and Richmond 100 of negro population. This migration and distribution of the race, which is likely to continue and increase, some students of the "negro problem" regard as a movement destined to help appreciably the solution of existing difficulties.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Horse Sense.

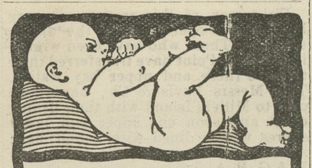

"Any fool can take a horse to water, but it takes a wise man to make him drink," says the proverb. The horse eats when hungry and drinks when thirsty. A man eats and drinks by the clock, without regard to the needs of nature. Because of careless eating and drinking "stomach trouble" is one of commonest of diseases. Sour and bitter risings, belchings, unnatural fulness after eating, dizziness, headache, and many other symptoms mark the beginning and progress of disease of the stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures through the stomach diseases of other organs which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach, and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cures obstinate cough and heals weak lungs.

"I was taken with Grippe, which resulted in heart and stomach trouble," writes Mr. T. R. Caudill, Montland, Alleghaney Co., N. C. "I was unable to do anything a good part of the time. I wrote to Dr. Pierce about my condition, having full confidence in his medicine. He advised me to take his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which I did. Before I had finished the second bottle I began to feel better. I have used nearly six bottles. I feel thankful to God for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I can highly recommend it to all persons as a good and safe medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

143 Market Street,
Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901.
In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

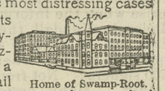

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
