TO THE CITIZENS OF CHESTERTOWN.

Since announcing my candidacy for re-election as Commissioner of Chestertown I find that the action of the board in reference to parading of bands on the streets has been misunderstood and misinterpreted. At that time many persons complained that parading the streets was calculated to frighten teams, causing them to break away and the result would be a law suit vs. the town. Many ladies also expressed an unwillingness to come to town, fearing injury to self and team, hence the board thought it for the best interests of the town and its citizens to adopt precautionary measures.

If the citizens wish the bands to parade the streets under a permit, I am willing, if a petition be presented signed by responsible citizens to advocate the granting of said petition. My only desire is to subserve the best interests of the entire community.

WARNING TO TRESPASSERS.

The Farmers and Citizens of Kent Island, Queen Anne's Co., Md., are tired of having so much trespassing and taking away of our property and will not allow it any longer. Therefore, we take this method of warning all publicly and if this does not stop it we will open fire on the next one caught within gunshot, and they will have to take the consequences of our shooting. We have been trying for some time to get them and take them before a justice but they have their sails up all ready to jump in their boats and sail away, with what ever they have in their boats or in tow before our eyes and often curse and abuse us to a very great extent. We hope this will put a stop to it without someone getting hurt or sent to prison, as we certainly mean to stop it.

COURT NEXT WEEK !

Indications Point to Short Term—Damage Cases Carried Over.

The April term of Circuit Court will convene next Monday. The jury drawn is as follows:

Jesse E. Ireland,	Robt. G. Nicholson,
Peter Brinsfield,	Jos. R. Usilton,
Harry Nichols,	Wm. T. Hepbron,
John Price,	W. W. Hubbard.
Wm. H. Loper,	Alfred C. Loud.
James Brice,	Walter S. Trew,
John C. Davis,	John R. Bennett,
Jefferson D. Ayres,	Walter U. Lusby,
Harry Griffith,	Carson W. Harris,
Geo T. Williams,	Clarence Scotten,
Samuel Mallalieu,	Hamilton C. Crew,
Wm. R. Larrimore,	Walter T. Morris,
Wm. A. Wheatley,	Frank P. Cochran,
Harry C. Derringer,	Geo. W. Atwell,
Herman B. Massey,	R. S. Crew.
Harvey Brice,	Theo. Dempsey.
Charles H. Price,	Chas. M. Hurtt.
Enoch N. Roland,	Lewin J. Usilton,
William Morris,	Geo. B. Westcott,
Charles C. Wood,	Samuel A. Merritt,
Jos. F. Leary,	Benj. H. Coburn,
James B. Wilson.	Jos W. Howard.
Harry H. Gresham,	J. D. Bacchus.
Walter H. Hadaway,	J. H. Carvil Maslin.

Mr. Joseph E. Leary has been excused from serving on the jury and Mr. W. Sheppard Morris drawn instead. It will be noted that not a single juror comes from the sixth district.

The civil docket is unusually well stocked with damage cases but several of them will be carried over. The damage case of J. S. Vandergrift against William Burke is ready for trial, as also is the damage case of George W. Warner against Jonathan G. Moore for $5,000. This is another branch of the now celebrated Millington case, one brauch of which resulted in a verdict of $975 for Mrs. Warner at last fall's term. The damage cases of Albert Groves against Mrs. Lydia C. Shaw, and William A. Blakeney against William A. Burke will be carried over.

The case of the Farmers' and Merchants' Steamboat Company against L. B. Russell for $100, amount of stock subscribed, will come up Tuesday.

The case of Albert Godwin against the county commissioners for $500 damage will probably be tried. This is a claim for damages claimed to have resulted from backing water on Godwin's wheat by a roadmender. The celebrated peach brandy case is also on the docket. This is a case of Bosley against ex-sheriff Jno. C. Davis who undertook to make sale of the brandy in question; itwas found in Mr. Strong's cellar, a government bonded warehouse. Under these circumstances the sheriff did not make the sale and the suit was instituted. Sheriff Fletcher has 16 inmates in jail, 14 of which are court cases, but none of them are of especial interest or importance.

The suit of Charles Gathers vs. the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company for $10,000, removed from Hartford county to Cecil county, has been removed to Kent county for trial.

H. H. Barroll, Esq., attorney for Walter W. Needles, has entered suit against John Bartley for trespass in the sum of $5,000.

FINE PROPERTY DEVISED.

The will of the late John Bordley was filed in the Orphans' Court Thursday. It was made in 1889 and witnessed by Messrs. Jas. W. Lambert, C. C. Hopper and Eben F. Perkins. The principal features are as follows:

"I give and bequeath to my son, John Bordley, the sum of $1, and no more, advances having been made to him. This is my son's request and for satisfactory reasons understood between us. The furniture I give to my daughter, Nannie R. Bordley. My real estate in Chestertown situated on the West corner of Cross and High streets now occupied by me as a dwelling with the store rooms and buildings, now occupied by T. S. Bordley as a store, McIntyre and Hodgkins as a store and the building occupied by the Williamson Bros., colored, as a store, I give and devize to my daughter, Nannie R. Bordley, for during her natural life, or so long as she shall remain unmarried. Should my daughter marry, the above real estate shall be divided between Thos. S., Nannie, Mrs. Toulson and Mrs. Draper; should Miss Nannie not marry, from after her death, I devise the above real estate to Thos. S., Mrs. Toulson and Mrs. Draper or their heirs. The rest of my estate I devise to Thos. S., Isabelle Toulson and and Delma Draper. Thomas S. Bordley was named as executor and took out letters Tuesday.

The late John Armstrong left an instrument of writing in which he bequeathed all his personal and real estate, excepting the Hotel in Chestertown, to Mr. Ezekiel Sparks with whom he was associated for many years. The nephews and nieces will likely contest the provisions of the paper. His estate is estimated to be worth about $10,000.

Wedded.—Miss Elizabeth Lansing, daughter of Mr. Thomas Lansing, 2624 Woodbrook avenue, Baltimore, was married last evening to Mr. Durhia G. Jester, at the parsonage of Clifton M. E. Church, Clifton street and Woodbrook avenue. The pastor, Rev. John T. Ensor, performed the ceremony. Miss Lansing wore a dress of gray broadcloth and carried bride roses. A reception followed the ceremony.

POLICE JUSTICE LAW!

The Governor's Signature Attached to the Wrong Paper?

Several local laws have been received by the County Commissions, among them being two Police Justice laws! one introduced by Delegate Kendall providing for three police justices and one introduced by Senator Baker providing for one justice in the Fourth District. Senator Baker's bill seems to have been passed as an amendment to Delegate Kendall's bill but the Governor's signature is attached to the Kendall bill and not to the Senator's. It is a question among Kent's lawyers as to whether a police justice for Chestertown can be legally appointed under these bills. If he can, then some one has made a bungle in sending from Annapolis such a loose bundle of laws.

Church...

Newsy Locals of Religious Life in Kent and Elsewhere

Rev. W. M. Sherwood preached to a large audience in Christ M. P. Church Sunday night on the "Value of Small Things." The young man gave an earnest and practical address which was well received.

High Mass was celebrated at Sacred Heart Church Sunday, Rev. Father McSweeney officiating. The choir furnished extra music, Mr. W. W. Chapman's solo being specially pleasing.

The Delaware M. E. Conference, colored, was held last week in Germantown, Pa. The appointments for Kent county are as follows: Chestertown, W. E. Waters; Coleman, W. A. Hubbard; Fairlee, J. B. Brinkley; Melitota, George R. Hollis; Pomona, J. W. Bond; Still Pond, F. T. Johnson; Chesterville, B. F. Lowber; Millington, C. S. Briggs; Sassafras, J. H. Johnson; Galena, C. W. Moore.

In addition to newly-elected vestrymen heretofore mentioned in the NEWS are the following: Shrewsbury, Dr. Edson, rector, James W. Hurtt, Edw. B. Pennington, Dennis J. Nowland, J. Herman Ireland, Philip G. Wilmer, William Janvier, T. J. Pennington; Wardens, W. H. Wallis, and Harry C. Deringer; treasurer, E. B. Pennington; register, William Janvier.

At St. Paul's, Rev. C. T. Denroche, rector, George Beck, George Bell, James Bell, Thomas W. Skirven, R. C. Morgan, Walter B. Strong, Walter Francis, I. F. Walbert, vestry; J. Page Strong and Howard Rees, wardens; George Beck, treasurer; I. F. Walbert, collector; T. W. Skirven, superintendent of cemetery.

Rev. W. E. Avery, of Scott M. E. Church, Wilmington, was stricken with paralysis Sunday while closing his sermon. His wife ran to his assistance and gave out the last hymn "Thy Will be Done."

The Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton will be held in St. Paul's parish, Kent county, on Wednesday, April 30, and Thursday, May 1st. Rev. Giles B. Cooke is dean of the convocation.

The friends of Rev. J. L. Elderdice, pastor of Wesley Chapel church, will be sorry to learn that he has been compelled to undergo a surgical operation. He is now at the Maryland University Hospital. We are glad to report that he is doing well and hopes to be out in a short time.

Rev. W. R. Graham goes to Easton under very favorable auspices and will succeed. The Westminster Advocate in speaking of his six year ministry there ends an article thus: "Like Admiral Schley he leaves his work with the consciousness of having done his whole duty conscientiously and well, and that wherever he may go the great heart of his people will follow him until his life-work finished, he hears the well come, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into your reward."

Pair of Fast Horses.—Messrs. Wm. Jones and Wm. T. Lane drove to Chestertown Tuesday behind one of the fastest pair of horses on the Peninsula. As they jogged through town many citizens could hardly believe the above statement. These horses were none other than Reddy Russell, 2 16¼ and Henrietta, 2.19¼. Mr. Lane says these two horses will trot at Prospect and Electric Parks next month and have also been entered at Tolchester. Reddy weighs 155 pounds less than last year and Henrietta 115 pounds less so that they are in better shape for work than heretofore.

WITNESSES in the case of Mary Hoffman to establish will of her husband alleged to have been burned by Christian Hoffman, testator, in which Mrs. Mary Hoffman was bequeathed all the property, were heard before the Orphans' Court Wednesday. Mrs. Mary Hoffman was represented by John D. Urie, Esq., and the sister of Mr. H., by J. W. Chapman, Jr., and W. C. Conwell, Esqs., of Baltimore. The case will be concluded on Wednesday, May 7.

J. F. M. Woodall passed two guardian accounts Tuesday in the case of wards, Katie and John Welch.

DON'T forget the oratorical contest to be held in Stam's Hall next Friday evening.

BUSY DAY ON 'CHANGE.

Sale of the Wickes Property in Chestertown---A Water Street Lot Brings $1,425—Farms Sold.

Tuesday was a live day in real estate transactions and many persons attended and took part in the bidding.

Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., trustee, offered the valuable town property belonging to the late Thomas S. Wickes, Auctioneer Greenwood in charge. The brick store formerly occupied by Mr. Wickes was held up on a bid of $2,350 from Mr. John C. Davis and may be bought at private sale.

The Fiddis house and lot, now occupied by the Isaac Robinson Co., was held up on a bid of $3,250 from Hope H. Barroll, Esq. The lot in the rear of this property and fronting on Cannon street was purchased by Chapman & Lambert for $326.

The new store building, heretofore occupied by Miss Wickes, was purchased by Mr. Wm. R. Maul for $2,800. Mr. Maul also bought the lot in the rear of his present store and of his new purchase for $400.

Next came the Water street lot with a frontage of 46 feet and adjoining the home of Lewin W. Wickes, Esq. Col. W. J. Vannort, whose home lies opposite this lot, was also a spirited bidder but withdrew in favor of Miss Anna R. Wickes who got the lot for $1,425.

The lot on Queen street adjoining Wm. H. Lambert's home, now tenanted by Frank E. Duyer, together with the building and stable were bought by Mr. Fred. G. Usilton for $800.

The Maple avenue lot adjoining the lands of W. J. Vannort and of the late Harry Rickey, was bought by Mr. Jos. Guest for $250.

Mr. M. A. Toulson purchased the Lynchburg property for $240.

Hope H. Barroll and Lewin W. Wickes, Esqs., sold the different interests in the Beck farm, near Smithville, and occupied by Mr. Wm. H. French, to Mr. J. Frank Crew, of Wilmington, for $5,650. This farm contains about 193 acres.

On Wednesday Mr. Wickes sold the Fiddis property occupied by the Isaac Robinson Company, at private sale to Mr. Jacob F. Thompson for $3500 also the alley between the Wickes store and the Fiddis property for $300.

Charles T. Westcott, Esq., has sold at private sale, his farm located near Fairlee and tenanted by Mr. Isaac Simms, to Mr. Purnell Jump. The farm contains 337 acres and adjoins Mr. Jump's farm on which he now resides.

Birthday Party.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Anthony gave a birthday party Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Grace, at their home, "Riverside," near Chester bridge. Various games were played and after delightful conversations, refreshments were daintily served and fine coffee sipped from miniature china cups, souvenirs of the late M. E. Church bazar. During the evening excellent piano music was rendered by Miss Evelyn Taylor. Mr. Warren Hurlock also furnished excellent violin music with Mr. Lewin Skirven piano accompanist. Among those present were: Misses Clara Peacock, Olive Anthony, Miss Anderson, Ethel Smith, Elizabeth Snitcher, Fanny Anthony, Julia Burchinal, Anna Jester, Evelyn Taylor; Messrs. Walter Peacock, N. Y., Bert Richardson, Fred Noble, Clements and Simeon Jester, Warren Hurlock, Lewin Skirven, Norman and Harry Jefferson, Henry and Leon Brown, Harry Gibson, Rumsey Anthony. As the Sabbath morning drew near we all bade good-bye, wishing our young hostess many such happy birthdays.

Shooting Accident.—Mr. Clarence Thompson, of Rock Hall, accidentally shot himself with a pistol Monday afternoon. Mr. Thompson was handling the weapon when it was discharged. The ball struck his hand and glanced, penetrating his left leg above the knee. Dr. T. B. Wilson was summoned and probed for the ball but was unable to locate it. Mr. Thompson was taken to the home of his father in Still Pond.

PHILADELPHIA, April 16th, 1902.

Mrs. H. H. Barroll, President Ladies Improvement Society of Chestertown, Md.

MADAM:—I have received from Mrs. Beck the signatures of the citizens of your town who are willing to give me the garbage; I also have interviewed the prominent hotels and slaughter shops and I find that a majority of them have made other arrangements in regard to their offal; consequently I do not think it would justify me in undertaking the removal of the garbage of your town.

I am, Madam, Yours Respectfully,
P. V. HENDRICKSON.
