This farm lies just below the celebrated SWAN POINT BAR, one of the richest Oyster Beds in the Chesapeake Bay. The entire waters opposite the farm are bedded with good oysters. There are VALUABLE FISHING SHORES on the farm, and in winter there has been on the waters of the farm unexcelled Wild Duck, Geese and Swan Shooting. The farm contains

The tenant, Mr. Notley O. Willson, will take pleasure in showing the place to any one interested.

An interesting fact connected with this fine estate is that this is the first farm which was ever settled in Kent county. Certain of Claiborne's men from Kent Island having settled here in earliest colonial times.

10 PAGES TO-DAY

DEATH'S HARVEST SHEAVES.

S. Frank Smith—Mrs. Effie M. T. Hopper—Thomas Cochran.

After many days of patient suffering the angel of death came Saturday night and called away from earth that lovely character in the person of EFFIE M. T. HOPPER, aged 39, the affectionate wife of Mr. Charles C. Hopper, one of the editors of the Transcript. The deceased for some years had been a sufferer with that most dreaded of diseases, consumption, but bore up with womanly forbearance and fought with grim resistance against its inroads and doubtless prolonged her life. She leaves, besides a husband, two children, Catherine of about six years, and a baby girl several weeks old. She was before marriage Miss Effie Pearson, daughter of the late William T. Pearson. For many years she taught school in Chestertown and made a most excellent teacher. She was a lady who won everyone with whom she came into contact by her sweet disposition, lovable manners and womanly devotion. She was an indulgent mother, a helpful and loving wife, a zealous worker in the benevolent department of Emmanuel P. E. Church, a charming member of society with attractive graces that made her presence sought after and surrounded her with a wide circle of sincere friends. The Kings Daughters, of which she was a member, attended the funeral and participated in the services. Dr. H. B. Martin and Dr. C. T. Denroche conducted the services, interment private in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were Frank and Ridgeley Hopper, George, Blackiston and Benj. Perkins and Wm. Janvier.

Like some giant tree fallen amid the mighty oaks of the forest our friend and fellow citizen, SAMUEL FRANKLIN SMITH, passed away and to-day lies sleeping beneath the rose-covered sod in Chester Cemetery. After lingering for a few days in a comatose condition he died Monday morning, aged 66 years and seven months. As noted in the NEWS, he was stricken with paralysis and although he gave some signs of hope, he never gained his strength and died as stated.

The deceased learned carpentering with the late John T. Dodd but entered mercantile life when a young man, and for at least 30 years has applied himself to this business with a degree of success. He leaves a widow who was Miss Mary E. Chambers, formerly of Queen Anne's county, and seven children, viz, Charles S., one of Chestertown's leading merchants; Owen C., druggist of Baltimore; Dr. Frank W., of West Virginia; Mrs. Minnie Morningstar, of New York; Mrs. Hallie Kelley, Misses Katie and Fannie.

He joined Christ M. P. in 1851 and ever since then he has been an earnest, humble and devoted worker in its advancement, and he loved it as he did the apple of his eye. He was an indulgent parent, a home lover and constant companion to a devoted wife, a friend to the poor and needy and a citizen of whom we were proud. He stood in the front rank of our public spirited citizens; he was plain spoken and earnest in all his undertakings, and nothing could swerve him from the path of duty. He was just and liberal to a fault, and many a poor family has felt the aid of his kindly hand. He was by nature of a very excitable temperament, which caused him many annoyances and frequent tears of penitence.

Our friend has gone! yes, he is gone from trouble into peace. He had many a weary day, many a sleepless night, but he will now sit down at the banquet table of his Lord and be forever at rest. He has gone to hear that Saviour whom he loved say unto his redeemed spirit, "Well done, good and faithful servant, Thou hast been faithful in a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things."

"Servant of God, well done;
Thy glorious warfare's past:
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

The funeral services were held in Christ Church Wednesday afternoon conducted by Rev. D. L. Greenfield in his simple and impressive manner. The choir sang two selections entitled "Crossing the Bar" and "Good Night." The official board of the church, of which he was a member, served as honorary pall-bearers, and the following as active bearers: James W. Lambert, George W. Hatcherson, T. R. Hubbard, J. W. Chapman, Lewin S. Fowler, George E. Lambert. Undertaker, John N. Dodd.

R. T. Cochran, aged eighty-seven years, brother of the late former Gov. John P. Cochran, died at his home near Middletown, on Monday. Up to a year ago his health had been excellent and he only became seriously ill a few days ago. Mr. Cochran was farmer, and always resided in St. George's hundred. Four sons and two daughters survive him—Robert A. Cochran, Richard R. Cochran, Thomas Cochran, Daniel M. Cochran, Mrs. Mary Reynolds and Mrs. Alice Nowland. He holds 1900 acres of splendid land, among which are the farms tenanted by Messrs. George S. Biddle and Aleck Crew, near Chestertown, and these gentlemen speak in the highest terms of him. The funeral was held Thursday interment in Middletown. Messrs. A. H. Crew, G. S. Biddle, Josiah Massey, J. B. Hossinger, J. P. Cochran, W. A. Crow, John and Spencer Comegys, A. F. Huey, and others attended the funeral. A good likeness of Mr. Cochran appears elsewhere in the NEWS being kindly loaned us by the New Era.
