"MISSIONS."

Christ Church Celebrates Children's Day with a Beautiful Service—A Memorial Window Unveiled.

Sunday was Children's Day in Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, and never did this handsome edifice look prettier than on this occasion. Rev. D. L. Greenfield in the morning preached on "Missions" in such a manner as to disarm the most strenuous in their "charity begins at home" arguments. His discourse was argumentatively strong and convincing and proved intensely interesting to the large audience. Special music was rendered by the choir, Mrs. Mamie Dodd soloist.

In the afternoon every seat in the Sunday School room was filled and an unusual scene was unfolded. A magnificent memorial window to the memory of Mary Lillian Chapman was unveiled with appropriate exercises under the direction of Dr. Greenfield. Mr. Wm. B. Usilton made the ornate address in which he pointed to the sweet character and useful life of the departed. Her class composed of Mrs. W. F. Russell, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Mrs. A. M. Culp, Misses Fannie Baker and Clara Usilton unveiled the window and sang "Light after Darkness." The window is of Cathedral glass, the design representing St. Cecilia at the organ, and the whole being the work of an artist of repute. The window is in memory of the beloved daughter of Mr. James W. Chapman who pays this just tribute to a loving and filial daughter.

At night the children held forth and presented an attractive program under the supervision of Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley. The exercises opened with singing "The Sunshine Band," followed by the Apostles Creed lead by Mr. Samuel Vannort; singing, "Thanks to God" and prayer by Mr. Willard Melvin, then singing "The Children's Friend" and address by Master Frazier Russell. The feature of the evening was a symbolic exercise entitled "The Garden of Life." The pulpit was transformed into a fenced garden with blooming flowers and plants, while Charles Wheatley as the gardener moved about with hoe and rake and watered the plants. Thoughts from flowers were recited by Lawrence Russell, Reba Davis, Josephine Wheatley, Russell Wheatley, followed by a song by the "Christ Church Trio," Rebecca Aldridge, James Bacchus and Madge Pennell. Then came a fine recitation by Elizabeth Russell entitled "Two Little Sunbeams," followed by recitations by orators who made their iniative bows, viz., Merle White, Wilbur Hubbard, Louise Nugent, Elsie Whiteley, Carmeta Russell, Mason Latham, the whole garden closing the exercises by singing about the flowers. Recitations followed by Marguerite Dodd, Anna Smith and the cute twins, Helen and Louise Russell, after which the school sang "In the Garden of Life."

The main feature of the evening was the collection which was up to the high standard raised by this school. Mr. A. M. Culp rendered a pretty cornet solo during this part of the program. The total amount raised was $67.71, the banner being won by class taught by Fred. G. Usilton with $10.60 and was by them given to the infant class; W. W. Hubbard's class $8.25; Mrs. W. J. Vannort's, $5.55; Infant Class, $5.40; J. D. Bacchus' class $3.53. The banner was presented to the infant class by Mr. W. B. Usilton. The singing by the school was accompanied by the following orchestra lead by Mr. A. M. Culp; J. C. Cannon, and J. N. Dodd, cornetists; Foster Cannon, trombone; Howard Dodd, baritone; J. Hydie Thompson, clarinet; Miss Clara Usilton, organist.

ACROSS THE RIVER NEWS.

Miss Grace Anthony has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. English, near Queenstown, the past week.

The many friends of Rev. R. H. K. Gill, formerly of Washington College, will be glad to know that he is getting along nicely at his new home in Viola, Delaware.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Union M. E. Church, near Chester bridge, met at home of Mrs. P. C. Jester on Tuesday evening of last week. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. James Newnam, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steward, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jefferson, Misses Evelyn Taylor, Edna Sparks, Julia Rolph, Sallie Price, Addie Thawley, Fanny Anthony, Alice Dewberry, Clara Thawley, Lena Smith, Grace Anderson, Messrs. T. Storey, G. Dewberry, Medford Sparks, Mark Anthony, A. Fields, Harry Tucker, Hope Copper. Refreshments were served in abundance. They decided to meet at the home of Mrs. C. H. Jefferson next month. Music, which was skilfully rendered by Miss Taylor and Miss Clara Thawley, was the most interesting feature of the evening. After spending a delightful time, they bade adieu to their hostess at a late hour of the night.
