STILL IN THE GAME.

We publish in this issue an account of a game of baseball played in the summer of 1865. This was long years ago, but we believe that the score has never appeared in the columns of this paper. This game is of considerable local interest because of the appearance therein of a young man by the name of Arthur P. Gorman, then and now a resident of Howard county. Mr. Gorman's team won that game by a large majority, and a glance at the score will show that Mr. Gorman himself was an important factor in this contest.

Mr. Gorman is not quite so active in baseball now as he once was, but in the greater game of politics and statescraft he has been for many years a peerless leader and is noted as one of the greatest of the magnates. In this game Mr. Gorman is a heady player and a heavy hitter, and he understands the fine points of the game thoroughly. He is not easily rattled and is always quick to take advantage of chance errors on the part of the opposing team.

But Mr. Gorman is, withal, a steady, quiet player and seldom talks back or indulges in abusive language, though it is said that in a game played in the fall of 1884, when Grover Cleveland slid home, after a long and hard run, Mr. Gorman did threaten to hang the umpire if he should dare to call the runner out. That was a close game, though, and no doubt Mr. Gorman's firmness, at a critical stage, had much to do with winning it.

The standing of the Senators—as his old team is generally known—has been much lower since Mr. Gorman left them in '99. This is due to a lack of leadership and a surplusage of senseless scrapping. Of the two minor league players secured from Maryland a few years ago, one has already been released and the other will, no doubt, follow him in due time. Mr. Gorman, who has signed a six years' contract, will join his old team in Washington early next season, in time for the usual spring practice, and his many friends hereabout expect to see him play the game of his life.

Yes, Mr. Chadwick, your old friend Arthur P. Gorman is still in the game—in that great game in which Jefferson and a long line of illustrious successors have won immortal renown.—Times.

WHAT BEING A CANDIDATE COSTS.

Wm. S. Devery, the "Big Chief," of the Ninth Assembly district of New York City who hopes to be elected Tammany leader gave an excursion up the Hudson last Wednesday to 20,000 of the women and children of his constituents. Here is a list of the provisions taken along to feed the party:

Five thousands pounds of roast beef, 2,000 pounds of corned beef, 200 hams, 2 barrels of sugar, 4 tubs of butter, 50 barrels of potatoes, 25 crates of cooked tomatoes for chowder, 10 crates of raw tomatoes 500 heads of cabbage, 250 pounds of coffee and 20 pounds of chicory.

Three thousand nursing bottles, 2 barrels of onions, 20 pounds of pepper, 24 bags of salt, 15 gallons of catsup, 250 baskets of clams, 1,500 gallons of ice-cream, 30 barrels of pilot crackers, 7 gallons of mustard.

Eight thousand quarts of milk, 1,000 pounds of fancy cakes, 1,500 boxes of sarsaparilla and soda water, 30 tons of ice, 5 gallons of vinegar.

Three thousand large pies, 8,000 pounds of mixed candy, 1,400 bags of popcorn, 10 barrels of birch beer.

Four bands of music, a comic opera troupe and a large troupe of vaudeville performers were taken along to entertain the party. Ten doctors a dozen professional nurses and a life saving crew were on hand to meet any emergency.

TIN ROOSTER FAILED.

Henry Peterson, a farmer residing a short distance north of Virouqua, purchased from an agent a tin rooster which was guaranteed to turn red six hours before each and every storm, thus giving him plenty time to prepare for the blow. Storms came and went, but the rooster did not change color, and Peterson started investigation to recover the $30-check which he had given for the device. He found the check at the village bank. It had accomplished what the rooster failed to do. It had turned to $300.

IT MUST COME.

As inevitable as the changing seasons of the year is the change which comes to every woman. And just as one anticipates the changes of other seasons it is wise to anticipate this change of season and prepare for it. In this way the discomforts and disasters suffered by many women at the period of change can be avoided or overcome.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine for every season of woman's life, will entirely meet the needs of women at this period of change. It cures the physical ills and relieves the mental anxiety and depression usually associated with this critical period. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

J. S. Carlisle, Esq., of Manchester, Coffee Co., Tenn., writes: "I have been using your medicines for the last sixteen or eighteen years in my Poor-house. I am superintendent of the Coffee County Poor-house and Asylum combined. Your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' are the best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended, that I ever used. They saved my wife's life at the time of 'change of life.' I have been recommending your medicine to many afflicted women and have also guaranteed that if it did not cure I would pay back the money spent for it. I have told our druggist that if the people came back and said Doctor Pierce's medicines did not give satisfaction, to give them back their money and charge it to me. I have not once been called upon to refund. I have never found anything to equal the 'Favorite Prescription' for diseases of women."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

143 Market Street,
Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901.

In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I n ver will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.
