ATLANTIC CITY SAFE.

Parson Jones Denies Having Made Tidal Wave Prophecy—A Great Army of Visitors.

GUESSERS AT NUMBERS VENTURE AS HIGH AS 300,000.

Parson A. Jones, the colored preacher who was accused of having made the prediction that a tidal wave was to sweep the New Jersey Coast, comes foward with a letter addressed to Charles Jefferson, a friend since his boyhood days who lives on Baltic avenue, Atlantic city, denying that he ever made any prophecy of the kind.

Jefferson declares that Jones would not make such a declaration if his life were at stake unless it were true. Parson Jones, he says, is an itinerary speaker. When he comes to Atlantic City he generally stops at his home. The parson preaches in the Second Baptist Church and is said to be a learned man insofar as the Bible is concerned. Jefferson said that he wrote to Parson Jones to warn him against coming to Atlantic City, as the people here had threatened to put him under arrest. The letter, which was written at Phœnixville, Pa., where he is stopping for a short time, is as follows:

"I am accused of saying things which I did not say in regard to a tidal wave destroying Atlantic City. I have never fixed any specified time, neither have I said anything about a tidal wave to any man on earth. So I am perfectly satisfied concerning all that may confront me, but you all had better watch and pray, for God is coming from New York on down the coast, and Gabriel, Michael and Raphael are going to do the work.

"Now, concerning my being arrested at Atlantic City, I am not afraid, for I have been arrested eight times, and the God who delivered the three Hebrew children delivered me. For I am serving the same God that Daniel served and he is still able to lock the lions jaws. I thank you for warning me, but I am not afraid."

Great Throng There.

Seldom or never before in the history of Atlantic City have there been so many persons there, and everybody is happy. So crowded was the resort in the early part of the week that the room clerks in the hotels had lines of persons standing in the exchanges waiting until they could attend to their wants. Seeing that there was a probability of some of the visitors sleeping on the beach, Mayor Stoy and the police department took a hand in the situation. The Mayor issued an emergency proclamation calling upon the private cottagers to open their homes to visitors who came with the recommendation of the police department or a hotel-keeper. This worked like a charm, and in a few hours all of the visitors had been provided for. The authorities say that there are not less than 300,000 persons there. Each day brings a new throng and the crush may continue for four weeks.

Such a multitude of bathers as there was Saturday and Sunday! The surf was simply packed. The close, muggy atmosphere drove folks into the water, and from 6 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night there was no time when bathers were not to be seen. Night bathing is an August fashion there and it is no uncommon sight to see parties of men and women disporting in the surf under the Boardwalk electric lights.

For the firstime in a long while the police Saturday had to take charge of a woman who appeared on the beach in a striking bathing suit. She was first noticed in the vicinity of young's Pier when the beach was thronged with bathers. She wore a white suit, a pair of flesh-colored stockings. A lifeguard stepped up and invited her to leave the beach. She failed to heed his warning and a policeman then appeared. She still demurred, with the result that the office escorted her over to a patrol box and called up the police wagon. She was taken to the City Hall and placed in a cell. Subsequently friends called at the station house for her and provided her with street clothing, after which they paid a fine of $20 for her release.

This Was A Real Simian.

A monkey in a bathing suit took a dip Saturday. A real, live monkey, in a real low-cut bathing suit! And it is still a question as to which had the more fun—the monkey or the multitude. The monkey is one of the collection exhibited in a gypsy camp on the Boardwalk. The idea of its taking a dip occurred to a little girl who was about to go into the water, and she asked if she might not take the monkey with her. The request was granted. A miniature bathing suit was quickly fixed up, and, attired in this fanciful costume, the monkey danced across the sands, followed by a great crowd. At first the simian refused to enter the water. After some coaxing on the part of its owner, however, it ventured cautiously in. Then the situation was changed. The monkey was so well pleased with the experience that it didn't want to come out of the surf. Altogether it was fun for the monkey and the multitude.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

The powder puff may help to hide the ravages of time but it avails little to hide the ravages of disease. When the face is disfigured by eruptions, the treatment must go below the surface to the blood, which is corrupt and impure.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures disfiguring eruptions which are caused by impure blood. It cures scrofulous sores, erysipelas, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which impure blood breeds and feeds.

"I was troubled with eczema from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet," writes Mrs. Ella Quick, of Cass City, Tuscola Co., Mich. "Could not walk at times nor wear my shoes. Thought there was no help for me—at least the doctor said there was none. I went to see friends at Christmas time and there heard of the good that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had done for them, and was advised to try it at once. For fear that I might neglect it my friend sent to the village and got a bottle and made me promise that I would take it. I had been getting worse all the time. I took thirteen bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and ten vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and used 'All-Healing Salve,' which made a complete cure. It was slow, but sure. I was taking the medicine about eight months.

"I would say to all who read this; try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before wasting time and money."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhœa and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendeane, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901.

I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fleshier than I ever was before, and ate good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day. MRS. RICHARD JONES.
