ANTHRACITE COAL STRIKE SETTLED!

Arbitration Committee Appointed By President Roosevelt—Mines May Be Opened In a Week—Chestertown to Get Coal Within Three Weeks After Work Is Resumed.

John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers has issued a statement approving the revised arbitration plan. A convention of miners will be held in Wilkes-Barre on Monday and the men will likely be ordered to work Thursday.

President Roosevelt, with the operators' consent, modified their arbitration plan to meet the approval of the mine workers' chief, John Mitchell, appointing six men who seem to be acceptable to both sides. These are the arbitrators:

Brigadier-General John M. Wilson.
E. W. Parker, Washington.
Judge George Gray, Wilmington.
E. E. Clark, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
Thos. H. Watkins, Scranton.
Bishop J. L. Spalding, Peoria, Ill.
Recorder—Carroll D. Wright.

Among the guardsmen in the mine region there is rejoicing. The soldiers are apparently delighted at the approach of peace. Their pleasure, however, is somewhat tempered by the realization that their victory or defeat is in the hands of the arbitrators.

Coal will be reduced to $10 per ton on Monday by the retail dealers of New York city.

The dealers in Chestertown say they can get coal here within three weeks after the miners resume work.

LOCAL FUEL MARKET.

Messrs. France & Decorse on Thursday received 46 tons of soft coal, with which they have replenished the bins of a number of families. It is being retailed at $7.75 per ton.

Wood is being sold in Chestertown from $5 to $7 per cord. Some slabs from the saw mill have been purchased for $5.50 per cord.

Mr. H. S. Barnett has a small lot of wood on hand at his brick yard but it would not have remained there long had it not been for the watchfulness of one of his employes. One night this week a certain man was seen at the wood pile helping himself to fuel and as he was leaving the yard the watchman fired. The intruder dropped the wood and ran as rapidly as possible down the road. It was learned that a certain resident of Chestertown applied to a physician early the following morning for relief from wounds caused by shot, and a number of the latter were picked from the man's limb. Mr. B. would likely have given the man fuel if he was in need and had applied to him, but he abhors a thief and although he gave no orders to deal harshly with intruders, he does not regret the stinging which this man received.

It is reported that a Kent county gentleman who has interests in a Pennsylvania coal mine has received seven 2-cent stamps and a 1-cent stamp as his dividends for September. We'd like to hear from him at the close of November.

Florist Kirby is anxious lest the use of soft coal will kill his flowers He hopes to get hard coal in a few weeks to relieve the situation.

Supt. Russell of the Electric Light plant received 50 tons of soft coal Wednesday from Baltimore.

The Middletown Hotel has increased the rate because of high price of coal, food, etc., and all the patrons have agreed to same. The Chestertown hotels are contemplating a change also.

TOMATO CONTRACT CASE.

The farmers are not the only ones who jump their contracts as the following item will show:

The Strasbaugh- Steckel-Hewitt Company, canned goods brokers, with offices at the Chamber of Commerce, Baltimore, Wednesday got an injunction against Robert D. Christie a packer of canned goods at Colora, Cecil county. The bill alleges the making of a contract in June last for the sale and delivery of 4,000 cases of tomatoes at 82½ cents, delivery to be made in October; that the defendant Christie packed the goods, but now refuses to deliver them, owing to the fact that they have increased in value nearly $1,000. Judge James Alfred Pearce signed the order for the injunction on the bill filed by John S. Wirt and John L. G. Lee, solicitors for the Strasbaugh-Steckel-Hewitt Company. The great increase in the value of the canned goods product is keeping many packers from filling contracts made in the early part of the summer. The output in Cecil is said to be the largest in years and will bring over $200,000 into the county.

CHURCH DOINGS.

Reopening in the Chestertown M. E. Church—Special Programs at M. P. Church—David and Jonathan in the Pulpits.

It was indeed a pleasure to once more worship in the main auditorium of the Chestertown M. E. Church after being closed for several months undergoing extensive improvements. Rev. Jonathan S. Willis, Delaware's noted preacher and public speaker filled the pulpit morning and evening and greatly pleased his hearers.

Mr. Willis is a brother to Kent county's T. J. Willis. He has been very active in the politics of Delaware but lately has resigned this field to that of working for Christ and is stationed at Milford, Del. He is an orator of great influence and is in constant demand.

The choir, under Dr. A. S. Hall, rendered excellent music, the solo parts being taken by Misses Bertie Burchinal Hallie Toulson, Messrs. A. L. Sparks, W. S. Brownley and E. F. Hitch.

The improvements comprise a new steel ceiling of tasty design, frescoed walls in the latest pattern, splendid new Brussells carpet and furniture polished. These improvements were made under the supervision of a committee consisting of Messrs. Thomas W. Eliason, Wilbur Eliason and James Brice and the cost was about $1200.

Dr. Roberts, the earnest pastor, has been unwell for some weeks, but we are glad to state was able to enjoy the services Sunday and to direct the excellent program.

The Sunday school under the direction of its superintendent, Mr. M. A. Toulson, held a rally in the afternoon and a souvenir card was presented each attendant.

Sunday was a day of unusual interest at Christ M. P. Church. Rev. George Q. Bacchus, of Lynchburg, Va., filled the pulpit in the morning and delighted his hearers with a sermon of force and logic.

In the afternoon the missionary service in the Sunday school was held. The banner was awarded to the infant class by Mrs. W. J. Vannort, the total offerings being over $16.

At the Christian Workers service, a special program of music was presented, the theme of the evening being "Sermons in Songs." A feeling of good cheer and welcome was inaugurated by the neighborly hand clasp and singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" as the opening feature. The program included a bass solo by Mr. Bordley Sappington, "Evening;" soprano, solo by Miss Flora Wheatley, "Mother's Prayer;" violin solo, by Mr. Warren Hurlock, with piano accompaniment by Miss Clara Usilton, entitled, "The Palms;" solo and quartette by Messrs. Jame P. Parrott, J. H. Thompson, A. M. Culp, F. G. Usilton, entitled, The Wayside Cross;" solo and quartette, "When the Angles Lift the Veil," by Misses May Fallowfield, Marian Lusby, J. P. Parrott and J. Hydie Thompson. The preaching service followed, Dr. D. L. Greenfield delivering a convincing discourse on "Pilateism."

At I. U. Parish Church there will not be any services on Sunday, Oct. 19th. Repairs still going on.

Revival services will be commenced at Worton M. E. Church next Sunday evening, October 19th, and at Salem, Fairlee, Sunday, November 9th. Rev. W. C. Pool is pastor of both charges.

The County Sunday School Convention will be held at Still Pond, October 29 and 30. Every effort will be made to have this convention the greatest ever yet held in the county. An interesting program will be prepared and all the schools of the county will be invited to send delegates. One important feature will be the exhibition of the latest Sunday school appliances.

"Rahab's Faith" will be the subject at Grace Presbyterian church tomorrow at 3 P. M. Sunday school as usual.

Westminster Presbyterian church at Georgetown will be reopened for preaching tomorrow morning at 10 30 a. m. by the appointment of Presbytery, Rev. K. M. Bull preaching.

Bishop Adams preached in Emanuel Church, Chestertown, Sunday evening. He will be here in December to confirm a class.

The committee having in charge the improvements at St. James Church hope to be ready for the reopening on Sunday, Oct. 26th. President F. T. Little and Dr. John J. Murray are expected to be present.

HOCHSCHILD, KOHN & Co., one of the largest department stores in Baltimore, have commenced their Fall advertisement in this issue and it will be found on page 12. Every week some new bargains will be advertised.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

Mr. David Clements, of Chesterville, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Jarrell on Washington avenue. Mr. Clements although 85 years of age is active and enjoying good health. He accompanies Mr. Jarrell on his visit to his farms and looks with keen interest upon the improvements being made about the county. He makes his home with his son, Mr. Alday Clements.

Col. Wm. J. Vannort went to Baltimore this week to accompany his grandson, Lycurgus Rayner, to Saranac Lake. Mr. Rayner has been quite ill and the trip to the mountains is taken in the hope that he will improve.

Mrs. J. S. Patten and her sons, Master Howard and Hewitt, have gone to Baltimore for a short visit.

Mr. John McGugan was the guest of Mr. James McKee in Washington last week and attended the big G. A. R. convention.

Mr. George H. Woodall and mother, of near Cecilton, have been guests of his sister, Mrs. R. J. DuHamell.

Mr. Ray Sparks, brother of Mr. Arlington L. Sparks, has accepted a position in Mr. Thos. G. Wroth's shoe emporium. Mr. Sparks has been clerking for Mr. R. H. Hicks in Galena.

Mr. L. Harris Crewe, of Betterton, spent several days the past week with friends in town.

Mr. James H. Brown, son of deputy postmaster Hiram Brown, left this week for New York where he will enter the practical business world. "Duke" is a bright young man and his many friends wish him success.

Mr. Theodore Dempsey, of Galena, visited his nephew, R. J. DuHamell on Wednesday.

Miss Ida Downs, of Kenton, and Miss Covington, of Philadelphia, have been the guests of Mrs. Ellsworth Bowers, Lynch's.

A "reunion" of Chestertown folks was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dugan in Baltimore last week. Among those present were Mrs. Barnett and daughter, Miss Ada, who left this week for W. Va., Mrs. Green and daughter, Miss Florence, Miss Fannie Smith, Miss Elsie Fallowfield and others.

Mrs. W. C. Peregoy has been visiting friends at Trappe, Talbot county.

Mrs. W. W. Beck and daughter are visiting Mrs. B.'s father in St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Ethel Boyer and Miss Maude Miller, of Hotel Chesapeake, Rock Hall have been the guests of Misses Fannie McIntyre, of Galena, Rachel Wood, Still Pond and Mamie Buchanan at Sassafras.

Mr. Fred. Estes, one of our Chestertown young men, is now manager of one of Fowler's grocery stores, in Philadelphia.

The Hahnemann Monthly of Philadelphia, in its current issue, contains a lengthy paper on Lumbago, from Dr. M. Earle Usilton, 19th and Cumberland streets, which was read before the Hahnemann Medical Society of Philadelphia. The opinions expressed received general favor and endorsement. This young Philadelphia practitioner is a native of Chestertown, and his many friends in Kent will be glad to learn of his success. In the Hahnemann Hospital, on Broad street, he has been respectively resident physician of the hospital, junior physician to the medical dispensary and a clinical lecturer. He is now advanced to the position of senior physician and demonstrator of heart and lung diseases.

Mr. John Gibson has rented the Dodson farm in the fifth district now tenanted by Mr. White.

Miss Annie Gillespie, one of the teachers in the Millington Academy has tendered her resignation, to take effect on November 14. Miss Helen Powers, also a teacher in the Millington school, has been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Gillespie, and Miss Mattie G. Hazell has been named to succeed Miss Power.

Mr. Merritt S. Ford on Tuesday was appointed constable for the first district.

Adam Smith, of Nebraska, and Wm. Smith, of Ill., have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. George Z. Roland.

Miss Anna Grise will leave next week for Baltimore, where she will enter Peabody Institute.—Gazette.

Miss Gertrude Emersom, of Fairlee, was awarded the prize Monday night for being the most popular young Miss in the village.

Miss Essie Smith, of Rock Hall, has been the guest of her friend, Miss Lizzie Saunders, of Lankford.

Miss Anna Stam left home Tuesday to learn the profession of nursing in a Philadelphia hospital. Miss Charlotte Rose expects to take up the profession in a Baltimore hospital.

THE Sale of valuable personalty advertised by Mrs. S. A. McKnett & Sons has been postponed until October 27th. See adv. in another column.
