Masquerade Party at Mr. A. J. Hacketts—Mr. Moffett's Horse Found After a Year's Lapse—Personals.

One of the most enjoyable socials that has been held in Still Pond for some time was a Masquerade party, held at the home of Mr. A. J. Hackett's, last Friday evening October 31. Between 20 and 30 young people were masked, representing ghosts, old maids, policemen, colored men and many other odd characters, after meeting at Miss Dea Crossley's Millinery parlor they paraded through the streets and stores and visited different houses of the town they then gathered at the home of Mrs. Hackett when within an hour's time, five more appeared dressed as clowns, ghosts and cooks which were distinguished after a considerable time and enjoyment was spent. After indulging in different games they were invited out in the dining room where refreshments of all kinds were served. It was then drawing time to bid our host and hostess good by, all seemed to have spent a most enjoyable time.

Mr. L. Atwell, of Baltimore, is spending a few days with his father, enjoying fine sport gunning.

Mr. Chas. Harper, of New York, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Wm. Medders

Rev. S. F. Beauchamp spent last Thursday in Wilmington with his brother attending a convention.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thomas, who have been registered at the Hotel Parr, for the past two weeks have returned to their home in Wyoming. Mr. Thomas has been loading pears from Still Pond station for sometime and expects to return to finish up.

The Still Pond cannery is still running, canning keiffer pears.

Mr. Price Stanley, who has been working over in Delaware for the past three months, is spending a few days with his folks in town.

Mrs. J. W. Harper is spending this week in Baltimore.

Rock Hall Locals.

Rally Day at Rock Hall Church—Revival at Piney Neck—Locals.

The "Schley Fete," held at the Eastern Neck public school on Friday evening last, was a decided success.

The festival to be held by the public school of this place this (Saturday) evening promises to be a big affair.

Tuesday's election at this place passed off very quietly. But oh my! the boodle from Jackson's barrel flowed freely at $5 per head, so we hear.

The oyster market is quite dull so far as concerns the buyers here, some of whom think of quitting the business, as there is nothing in it for them.

Glorious weather and happy people were two of the many pleasing features of last Sunday in our town and vicinity. All our church services were largely attended.

Messrs. D. K. Ayres and T. H. Ayres, who have been on the invalid list for quite a while, are both able to be about and we hope to see them fully recovered in the next week.

Revival services still continue with some success at Pine Neck M. E. Church. Rev. Thomas Lowe, of William street I. M. Church, Baltimore, assisted Rev. Mr. Morris a few evenings ago, which resulted in much good to the people in the Neck.

Rally Day service at the M. E. Church was a brilliant affair. A special program was happily rendered in the morning. The afternoon service consisted of a regular session of the Sunday school, during which the annual roll was called and 251 answered. An interesting address was then made by Mr. Samuel S. Ford, of Baltimore. The evening program consisted of an Epworth League service, conducted by Miss Delma Middleton, and preaching by the pastor. The decorations were profuse and consisted of flowers, plants, grasses and leaves, the altar being banked with an abundance of fruits and vegetables. The pulpit was nicely draped with Old Glory and a splendid display of the national colors in various parts of the church.

THE NEW ST. JAMES M. P. CHURCH, WORTON.

Mr. Grover Sutton who has been in charge of our Electric Light plant has resigned his position here and he is contemplating to leave for Philadelphia to accept a similar position.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Pippin, of Wilmington, have been visiting his brother, Mr. S. H. Pippin.

The Epworth League social was held at the home of Mr. Albert Jervis last Thursday evening November 7, quite an enjoyable evening was spent, music and recitations were heartily enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

The Sunday School Convention was a success in every way and every one seemed to enjoy themselves, quite a number of schools were represented by the delegates and all seemed to be benefitted by attending. Mr. Nock was very much in evidence by his fine sermons and witty sayings. The delegates from Millington seemed to catch the eye of some of our young men of this town. Come again all of you.

Miss Winnie Price, of Cecilton, is visiting her brother, Mr. H. C. Price of our neighborhood.

Very little interest was manifest in Tuesday's Election, judging from the past, one would hardly have thought it was Election day. While some were pleased at the result the majority hoped for something else.

The young men of our neighborhood are contemplating holding an Autumn dance in the Chesapeake House, Betterton, on Friday evening November 14th, 1902.

Mr. John S. Moffett, who had his horse and carriage stolen from the church here on Sunday evening, Nov. 3rd, had the satisfaction of finding the horse in Philadelphia this week and brought it home with him Monday night. It having been gone just a year to the day.

In Memory of C. H. J. Sparks.

WHEREAS, by the dispensation of His divine providence our Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove from our midst our esteemed friend and brother, CHARLES H. J. SPARKS; and

WHEREAS, in his membership of more than thirty years in Kent Lodge No. 74, I. O. O. F., he has endeared himself to his brethren and in his daily life exemplified the teachings of the order: therefore, be it

Resolved, That we deeply and sincerely deplore the loss of our brother and co-laborer, and realize that a good citizen has gone out from among us.

Resolved, That we extend to his bereaved family our sincere sympathy and that we forward to them a copy of these resolutions and also send copies to the county press.

Big Corn.—Justice Willard Melvin has finished husking his 2½ acres of corn on the lot near the college, and gathered 72½ bushels per acre. He raised 60 bushels per acre there last year. Let's hear from others.

The election Tuesday resulted in a tie vote in this precinct. A light vote was cast, the day passed quietly and everything was orderly.

Harvest Home services were held in the M. E. Church last Sunday. The alter was prettily decorated with corn, potatoes, pumpkins, wheat, etc. Rev. Mr. Sidell delivered a very appropriate sermon morning and evening.

Friday of last week being Halloween, the young folks had a gay time in town, all kinds of costumes could be seen flitting around the dimly lighted streets, several of our young ladies donned gents attire and had the wise one's guessing.

Mr. Ralph Stevens assistant operator at the depot stole a march on his friends last week by taking a trip to Washington and returning with a bride. The masqueraders wound up their jolifications by giving Mr. and Mrs. Stevens a rousing seranade. The bride is Miss Ida Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reese, near Chestertown. She is one of Kent's bright young ladies and her friends wish for her and her popular husband much happiness. They will make their home at the hotel this winter.

Mr. Harry Toulson and Mr. Mingen, of Chester, Pa., spent the first of the week with relatives in town.

Mrs. J. L. Smith spent the week in Philadelphia visiting friends.

A party of young people spent Thursday evening with Mrs. Seward Barwick at Sudlersville.

A delightful family reunion was enjoyed by the three brothers and three sisters of the Hurtt family in Millington the first of this week, at the home of Misses Fannie and Annie Hurtt. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Hurtt; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hurtt, of Delmar; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hurtt; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Spear. The three brothers before parting tried their weights; Henry tipped the scales at 200; Charley 182; Albert 182½.

The Tolchester fishermen are shipping some fine Rock fish to Baltimore markets. Over thirteen boxes were caught one day last week.
