SPRING!

Clothing For Men

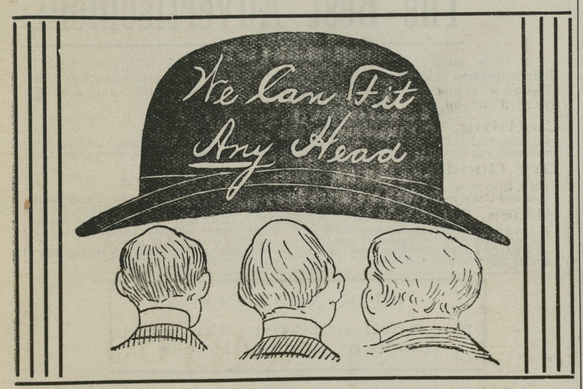

THE fitting kind, The wearing kind, the kind that holds together both material and friendship. The original kind, handled by original people, who lead but never follow, don't go estray, but come to headquarters for your Spring Suit where you are assured of being handed out the best for your money every time and no bouquets.

CLOTHING

in great profusion. If you have two or three suits to buy (and want to take a pleasure trip to Baltimore) come here and we will hand you enough difference in the cost between the markets, to pay your expenses for a little trip, this is a fact we are demonstrating to close observers every day.

Hats and Caps

to suit anybody most ; all the new shapes in Soft and Stiff for Men, Boys and Children, are now ready for inspection and when you hear us talk of seasonable goods, we have them on the spot, we have them right here to fill hurried demands, hence you are not compelled to wait to have ordered for you.

SEPARATE TROUSERS in all conceivable weaves at all prices. NECKWEAR, FANCY HALF HOSE, GLOVES and all the little perquisites to complete your toilet.

All our various lines will be quoted (as usual) at fair square prices with no bouquets or bates pinned to any one special article, uniformity pervades our entire system.

LOCAL NEWS

THE name of Geo. W. Powell, associate editor, has been withdrawn from the editorial column of the Enterprise.

THE property deeded to Mr. Amos Reed by his mother consists of but one farm—the Home farm.

THE town police began their new system of alternating this week. Officer Cooper has been on day duty and Officer Hudson at night. The sprinkler will be started June 1st.

SUN BROS show arrived here by wagon Sunday and showed to large audiences Monday. The conduct was most excellent and the exhibition was not attended by the usual bunco men. It showed in Millington Tuesday.

THE old school building formerly used as a church is now occupied in part by a family named White from Rolph's Wharf. They moved five children, furniture, chickens, etc., Wednesday. When one of the little boys was told that he was moving into a church he remarked that it ought to be a good place to live !

CAPT. EBEN CREW was in town Tuesday and says the Betterton fishermen have had a splendid season, getting two prices for their fish ! These men deserve big prices as their occupation is one requiring hard work and exposure to all that is disagreeable.

CASH buyers will be allowed a discount of 4 per cent. at the sale of cattle in Chestertown on Tuesday May 26th.

THE first strawberries of the season were brought to town last Friday by Mr. J. W. Anthony, of near Chester bridge. Messrs. Wallen and Wiggs had them in market Wednesday.

The Printers' Athletic Club defeated the Chestertown Public School Saturday in a game of baseball, score 14 to 5 in favor of the printers ; batteries—Barnes, Bramble and Duyer for the "Devils" ; Finley and Westcott for the public school.

THE fine driving horse belonging to Mr. Alday Clements which was injured near town some weeks ago, died on Wednesday of lock-jaw.

Mr. Wm. Robinson's fine colt died the past week of lock-jaw.

ORGANIZER AKERMAN, of Baltimore accompanied by Dr. A. P. Sharp, has been canvassing Rock Hall during last week trying to secure subscribers for Bank Stock, the Bank to be known as the Rock Hall Savings Bank. The Bank is to be organized on the same plan as the one put in operation at Galena last week. The citizens of Rock Hall are asked to subscribe $15,000 capital stock and a private banking concern of Baltimore will furnish $15,000.

L. W. WICKES, ESQ, has been appointed trustee in settling up the estate of Mr. R. Heston Hicks, of Galena, bankrupt.

THE roller mill owned by Mr. Harry Moore, near St. Paul's, is being refitted with new machinery and when completed will be better able to serve the public than ever before.

THE new depot at Chestertown is about finished and Supt. Rusk has put the track and road bed in fine shape. It will be open to public use about June 1st.

WILLIAM G. TUCKER, who severely cut "Curt" Cosden in a quarrel at a fishing shore on the Sassrfras river, in the First district, on April 19, was arrested Saturday by Constable Milliken, and is now in Elkton jail.

THE annual meeting of the Baltimore & Delaware Bay Railroad Co., a Pennsylvania railroad corporation, was held at Chestertown, Md., Saturday. The directors and officers were re-elected.

CAPT. WILLIAM E. MOORE caught two tons of rock fish at one haul near Black Island one day last week. The fish brought ten cents per pound.

THE P. E. rectory in town is being improved by replacing the old windows with those of modern style. &c. Mr. Charles P. Hodgkin has added a new porch to his house on Queen street.

THE entertainment at the Crumpton school on Saturday cleared $30. The Children's Bazaar held in Chestertown cleared over $22.

EX-JUSTICE J. W. WRIGHT has resigned his position as standard keeper for Kent county. He says the same law is on the statute books now that was used seventy years ago when the number of stores could be counted on your fingers. The law says every measure shall be tried, and to do this, the ex-Justice says, would require three times as long as is usually given the position, and the pay of $40 does not justify a person in accepting it.

THE strawberry crop in Kent this year will be very light, and on the whole Peninsula it is said that it will be the shortest, poorest and smallest in the history of Peninsula berry growing.

THE public schools in Kent will close June 17th.

Hill, Miss Lillie Cornelius, Miss Lillie Rowe. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Carson Harris, Thursday, May 28th.

A NEGRO POSTMASTER.

A dispatch from Hillsboro dated May 14th, says : The sensation caused in Somerset county by the appointment of a negro postmaster brings out the fact that the postmaster at Toulson, Caroline county, for a number of years has been a colored man.

The mail carrier between the Hillsboro and Griffin postoffices is a negro, and sometime ago it was suggested to him to apply for the postoffice here. He did not take kindly to the suggestion.
