CHESTERTOWN, MD., JUNE 13, 1903

THE Democrats made a clean sweep in Wilmington last Friday, electing the Mayor and city officers.

THE Republican State Central Committee met in Baltimore last Wednesday and decided to hold the State Convention September 9, and primaries in all the counties August 15

A MILITARY REVOLUTION in Servia culminated in the assassination, early Thursday morning, of King Alexander and Queen Draga, the Queen's two brothers, Premiet Markovitch and General Panolvitch, minister of war. Two aids-de-camp and several officers of the Palace Guards were also killed. A new government was formed and Prince Peter Karageorgevitch proclaimed king.

THE Democratic primaries in Queen Anne's will take place today and will be hotly contested, especially in Centreville, Crumpton and Kent Island. It is said the fight now is between Messrs. Charles W. Clements, of Crumpton, and Senator Kirwin, of Kent Island, for the State Senatorship, but takes in every other position on the ticket. The leaders on both sides have made frequent trips to Baltimore and both claim to have the backing of strong influences outside the county.

NEXT WEEK is commencement week in Chestertown. Preparations are being made to make both the Washington College and Public School closing exercises a success. Washington College will be honored on Wednesday by the presence of Gov. John Walter Smith who will confer the diplomas. We welcome the Governor to Old Chestertown and bespeak for him an Eastern Shore reception. He will arrive on Tuesday evening by boat and will be the guest of Ex-Comptroller Marion deK. Smith.

Who for Governor?

The Republicans seem to be "getting together" on the same man for Governor—Hon. S. A. Williams, of Harford. He is very popular in his party. The factions are as wide apart on other matters, and Williams will have to be very careful lest he antagonize one or the other of the wings before the nomination day rolls around.

It seems that the Democratic nomination is not to be as harmonious as has been generally expected. Hon. Edwin Warfield has had a clear field up to this week. The Baltimore Sun of Wednesday last states that Hon. Spencer C. Jones, of Montgomery county, has announced his purpose to contest with Mr. Warfield the Montgomery county primaries, Mr. W. having notified the election officials of that county that he would be in the fight there. The Sun says:

"The primary election in Baltimore city will most likely decide the contest for Governor. There will be in the State Convention 128 votes, 65 being necessary for a choice. Baltimore city has 28 and Baltimore county, which usually goes with the city, has 7, and Montgomery 5. With 40 votes to start with there would be little trouble in getting the other 55 The Eastern Shore has 35 and at least 30 of these, it is believed, will go together.

"Senator Jones is a man of exceedingly popular manners and one who makes friends wherever he goes. He is probably as well informed as to the public affairs of Maryland as almost any man in it. That his own people will support him at the Montgomery primaries, where the Crawford county system prevails, goes without saying. He is an exceedingly popular man, not only in Montgomery county, but throughout the State. When he was Clerk of the Court of Appeals he was not only competent, but exceedingly obliging, and he made influential friends in every county in the State. As State Treasurer he administered the finances admirably. He is liked wherever he is known and would make an ideal candidate."

Cecil and Talbot counties are the only two that have yet held primaries and both elected uninstructed delegates to the State Convention.

WHEAT HARVEST in Kent will be general about the 20th inst. Some wheat will be cut next Wednesday. The crop will be shortened by the May drouth, but has been improved very much by the late rains, so that most of our farmers expect crops fully equal to last year, which was about three-fourths of a crop. Some fields we have noticed are remarkable for their fine heads. Between Chestertown and Tolchester about the best wheat is on the farms of J. Walter Skirven, J. K. Aldridge, J. P. Nicholson and Wash. G. Skirven. Mr. Wilbur Eliason, near town, has a field of Eclipse wheat that beats any we have seen for large heads. A half dozen heads pulled measured nearly six inches in length.

Mr. Walter Francis, on the Rees' Corner farm, is said to have the finest field in the lower district, but Mr. W. K. Judefind also has a fine outlook for a good crop.

Mr. George W. Sutton, in upper Kent, is said to have the best field of wheat from Chestertown to the Sassafras.

WHEAT was quoted at 79 cents yesterday.

THE B. S. Ford will begin excursions from Baltimore to Chestertown next Monday.

ST. JOHN'S cadets at Tolchester behaved in a gentlemanly manner and had a fine time. Thousands of excursionists have visited the resort this week.

THE ladies of Bond M. E. Church cleared $151.05 on their festival held last week.

THE Cambridge butchers have publicly agreed to deliver no more meat on Sundays.

THE first tomatoes of the season grown in Dorchester were in market Saturday, a full month in advance of the usual time.

THE plucky Kent County horse, Reddy Russell, took third money in Baltimore Tuesday. She won the first heat in 2.19¼. There were six heats, best time 2.16¼.

A LADY bicyclist caught her dress in the wheel while descending Goose Hill on Thursday and received a terrible fall. She saved her life but very few clothes.

GEO. HENDRICKSON has purchased of Col. Lloyd, of Easton, a fine Hereford bull which weighed about 1500 pounds. Mr. P. A. M. Brooks has also bought a big bull from Col. Lloyd.

THE Commencement Dance will be held in Stam's Hall next Wednesday evening. The patronesses are Mesdames M. C. Ringgold, W. F. Hines, Allan A. Harris, J. Roy Micou, James A. Pearce, H. M. Brown, W. W. Beck, Lewin W. Wickes, R. D. Hynson; invitation committee, H. W. Vickers, Jr., Samuel H. Greenwood, Frank B. Hines, Joseph A. Bradley, Wilbur Eliason, Jr.

MR. JOHN DODD, real estate broker, on Saturday sold a building and lot on Main street, Church Hill, belonging to Eugene H. Foster, of Philadelphia, to Mr. Jas. H Clough, of Church Hill. Consideration $565

THE following increases in postmasters salaries appear: Centreville $1600 to $1700; Cumberland from $2,900 to $3,000; Cambridge from $2,000 to $2,100; Berlin from $1,600 to $1700; Belair from $1,700 to $1800; Crisfield from $1,600 to $1,700.
