

Trowsers

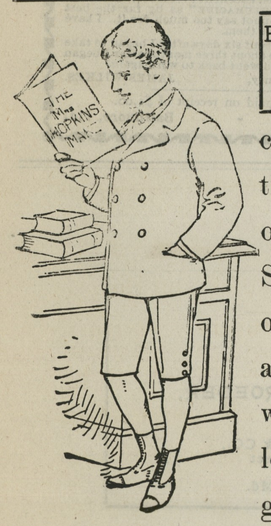

Not alone the best, but cheapest and largest assortment, they are going; we had them made for that purpose.

We don't keep much stuff, we sell it.

Suits

same way. Our output has been unprecedented. Why so? This is it—we have served the public long and faithfully, believing and practicing the fair method system, hence our daily increasing business. Come early if you expect a good assortment, as our stock is being rapidly depleted.

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S

complete and in conjunction with our regular line of Boys' and Children's Suits, we have a quantity of Odd Suits, one, two and three of a kind, that will be closed especially low, and there are some good things among them and very desirable patterns.

Shirts AND Hats

for everybody.

This department receives especial attention also, and most any conceivable style is here and for less money than can be had of city houses.

Come and inspect our claims. There are a few outsiders yet who ought to know the advantages we are dispensing.

Lieut W. Spear Brownley, of Baltimore, has been visiting friends here.

Mrs. J. A. Perkins, Jr., of Lansdowne, Pa., and Mr. Allie Thomas, of Phila., are visiting their home on Washington avenue, Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Stockton Startt and son, of Baltimore, have been guests of Mr. H.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Skirven, at their pretty county home near town.

Mr. Scott Beck, one of the graduates at Washington College, entertained his class at his home near Lankford Thursday evening. The boys were treated to a sumptuous repast of pan rock, soft crabs, chicken, &c., prepared as Mrs. Beck knows so well how to do.

Miss Leonora Oakford is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Beck for the summer.

Miss Sue B. Ford is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. Jesse Medders, the affable stenographer in W. W. Hubbard's office, is attending Western Maryland College commencement. His brother, Mr. Geo. Medders, is one of the graduates.

Mr. Carroll Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Brown, now in the employ of the Adams Express Co., at Baltimore, spent Sunday at the parental home, near Pomona.

Miss Josephine Wickes, of Chestertown, attended the wedding on Wednesday at Princess Anne of her cousin Jos. L. Wickes, son of Judge Pere L. Wickes, of Baltimore, to Miss Ethelinde Page, daughter of Chief Judge Page, of Princess Anne.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Cleaver celebrated their daughter Nellie's 13th birthday June 9th. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. I Cleaver, the grand-parents of Miss Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. W. Attraction at Betterton.—Mr. Howard Turner, the Betterton hustler, is erecting a first-class bowling alley and dancing pavilion which will be in operation July 1. The alley will be the Brunswick-Balke-Collender alley, one of the best in the country, all Maple, and will be one of the principal attractions at Betterton this summer. The pavilion will be directly on the beach and built in connection with the alley. Two dances will be held weekly and the pavilion rented for private hops also. Everything will be run in an orderly way and no objectionable features permitted. The first dance will take place July 4th.

Drowned.—George Lewis, colored, of Georgetown, a deck hand on the steamer Kitty Knight, while trucking phosphate Saturday afternoon, made a sudden turn off Buck Neck Wharf and went overboard with truck and fertilizer. The body was recovered. Lewis had fallen overboard several times previous to this and on one occasion didn't get his feet wet!

Heavy Damages.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Agnes Emmons against the commissioners of Chesapeake City gave her a qerdict of $3,000 as damages for injuries received in a fall caused by a defect in the board walk. This town raises only $1200 for all expenses, and this verdict will impose a heavy burden on the tax-payers. It will no doubt serve as a warning to other town fathers. It is said that some of the jury were favorable to giving her an annuity, but the court could not permit such a verdict.
