FAIRLEE NOTES.

Mr. James Willis, on Mrs. John W. Corey's farm, off of one and one-half acres of land has sold 9,000 pounds of gooseberries, for which he received on an average of 7 cents per pound. This patch has paid well each year since Mr. Willis has tenanted the farm.

The children of Fairlee public school will hold a very attractive and pleasant festival this Saturday afternoon.

Miss Laura Greenwood, of Rock Hall, is spending a while with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. M. Bramble.

Miss Blanche Tomlinson, of Baltimore, is with her aunt, Mr. C. B. Lamb, and she will spend the summer here.

Miss Alice Kendall, Fairlee, is with her aunt, Mrs. D. P. Jones, in the City of Brotherly Love and will remain for several weeks.

The Children's Day service in our church last Sunday evening was very impressive and the program was excellently rendered. The children did their part so well that we feel like making special mention of each taking part but will be content by saying that for recitations, singing, etc., the children of Salem (Fairlee) Sunday school are hard to beat. All who took part deserve great credit. The collection was very good.

Mr. Walter F. Sparks is very sick at his home in Fairlee. We hope for Walter's speedy recovery. He is a busy man always and to be down sick is almost more than he can endure.

Dr. Frank Smith has been going night and day. So much sickness around at this time.

Mr. Purnell Jump was real sick last week, but we gladly state that he's able to be around again. His son, Master Willie, who hurt his knee badly some days ago by falling from a bicycle is also improving.

As noted before a goodly number of our ladies attended the W. C. T. U. convention in Millington last week, and they report that there never has been a more pleasant convention held.

Misses Elsie and Georgia Kendall, of Baltimore, visited Fairlee relatives the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Katie Inge, of Baltimore, daughter of the late Samuel Bordley, visited friends in this village a few days ago.

An interesting meeting will be held in the village church this Saturday afternoon by the Fairlee W. C. T. U. An interesting program will be rendered. This union, we understand, secured more members last year than any other in the county.

Mrs. J. C. Staats was called to Middletown last week by illness of her mother. She is better at this writting.

GALENA LOCALS.

Louis Berry, colored, a deck hand on the steamer Kitty Knight was drowned at Buck Neck wharf on Saturday last. He was unloading bags of phosphate by some means he got the truck wrong and he was dumped into the water head foremost with one of the bags of phosphate, though the water was not very deep he never came to the surface. There was no marks on him that would indicate that he struck anything in his face. Squire Parr held an inquest on the body and the Tolchester Co. had him buried decently.

Farmers are busy planting tomatoes. Since the rain the plants are scarce.

They are not through selling Mr. Hicks' store goods yet.

Mrs. Walls died on Friday night last 5th inst., aged about 90 years, was buried Sunday afternoon in the M. E. Church graveyard. Revs. Mr. Creed and Mr. Prettyman officiated, W.T. Hicks undertaker.

Our creamery is getting a large quantity of milk at present. The patrons seem satisfied at the prices they are receiving.

Children's Day Services was held in the M. E. Church on Sunday evening last, there was a fairly good attendance. The threatening weather in the afternoon kept a good many away.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole, of Baltimore, are visiting their father, Dr. Rasin, at old point farm.

Mrs. Woodside, of Pa, and her children are visiting her brother, Dr. E. A. Scott.

Mr. J. E. Ireland has purchased the drugs formerly owned by R. H. Hicks.

Mr. John Walls is improving his fine little home on Main street.

Mr. Wm. Medders, the hustler, of Still Pond, paid us a visit Monday.

Quite a number attended the dance at Dewey Park Wednesday night.

Miss Ruth Creed is spending a few weeks at Atlantic City.

Misses Etta and Bessie Whitaker are visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Messrs. Dr. E. A. Scott, Keeth Cochran, Andrew and Herman McCauley attended the great game of ball in Chestertown Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. A. Hyland, Jr., has added to his stock a fine line of candies.

Mr. R. H. Hicks has accepted a position as traveling salesman and will begin in a few days.

Mr. Unit Horsey visited Chestertown on Wednesday.

Mr. Wm. Boyd has bought the lot of land adjoining the store property formerly occupied by R. H. Hicks and will erect a fine dwelling in a few weeks.

Mr. B. J. McGugan visited our town Sunday evening.

Mr. G. E. Hicks has returned after being in Chestertown taking in charge of the shop of his uncle Sam'l Hicks who visited Baltimore on business.

Rumor is out of a wedding; make a guess.

Mrs. T. C. Hayes and Mrs. Wm. Jester have returned after visiting relatives n Wilmington and Philadelphia.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Meets in Millington M. E. Church—Rev. Alfred Smith Makes a Strong Address.

The 18th Annual Convention of the Kent County W. C. T. U. met in Millington M. E. Church Thursday, June 4, Mrs. L. M. Corey presiding, Mrs. E. R. Sidell extending a warm greeting to the convention which was responded to by Mrs. Avis Vannort.

Memorial services in memory of Mrs. Susan I Nickerson, Mrs. M. J. Archibald and Miss Maggie White were conducted by Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. Jarrell and Mrs. Legg.

The afternoon session was opened with devotional services lead by Mrs. C. V. Skirven, after which Mrs. Shafer gave some pertinent facts about narcotics, which was followed by a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Sidell. The ministers' conference was an interesting feature of the afternoon. They discussed the benefits to be derived from Prohibitary Amendment to the State Constitutions. This was followed by a duet by Mrs. Tonkin and Mrs. Wallen.

Miss Florence Hammond, of Baltimore, spoke very encouragingly of the advancement of the work in young people's societies.

Mrs. Haslup had charge of the question box and conducted it in her usual satisfactory manner.

Mrs. Dr. Jacobs delighted the audience with several recitations during the afternoon and evening.

The President's address impressed her audience with enlisting the sympathy of the church in the work, that the child does not get sufficient temperance training in the school, therefore the church must take up the work. She also impressed her hearers with the importance of wearing the white ribbon.

The election of officers resulted in the unaminous re-election of Mrs. L. M. Corey, president; Mrs. Emma Shafer, vice-president; Mrs. L M. Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. S. M. Usilton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. Lucas, treasurer.

EVENING SESSION.

Mrs. H. Tonkin opened the service with devotional exercises, and the Millington orchestra furnished music. Miss Ahern, Mr. Chance and Mr. Sidell sang solos during the evening.

An interesting feature of the evening was the graduation of the Millington "Y" to a full pledged Union. Mrs. Tonkin president of the Union, presented the society to Miss Hammond who in turn turned over the Union to Mrs. Haslup. The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Alfred Smith, who poured some hot shot into the enemy's ranks and greatly enthused the members in the good work.

The convention was a delightful affair. The Millington ladies entertained about 16 members of the convention over night and did the honors in a becoming manner. The music was arranged by the Millington choir and was a pleasing feature. Among the delegates present were the following: Misses Laura Knabb, Lula Vandyke, Lillie Rowe, Mesdames Mary Bramble, Washington Skirven, L. J. Legg, Mrs. James Weer, Addie M. Staats, Sallie Price, Augie Rasin, Mary E. Smith, J E. Morris, L. J. Price, Thomas Godwin, Mary Miller, A. S. Turner, Ella Burgess, James E. Weer.

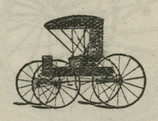

Mrs. A. E. Vannort, Evangelistic; Mrs. L. J. Legg, Sabbath Observance; Mrs. C. V. Skirven, Sunday School Work; Mrs. M. E. Brown, Literary; Mrs. E. A. Nicholson, Scientific Temperance Work; Miss Annie Leaverton, Alms House; Miss Gussie Cannon, Flower Mission; Miss Nannie Redmile, L. T. R.; Mrs. W. B. Copper, Parlor Meetings; Mrs. Emma Shafer, Narcotics; Mrs. S. M. Usilton, Unfermented Wine; Mrs. H. B. Simmons, Non Alcoholic Medicines; Mrs. A. C. Hurlock, Press.

Fairlee Union was awarded the banner for the largest increase in membership during the year, having been closely pressed by Kennedyville which has heretofore been the banner union.
