Commencement Week In Chestertown.

Governor John Walter Smith Delivers An Able Address To The College Graduates—Mr. Leonard Smith Wins Medal in Elocution—Cashier Wm. Walter Chapman Presents a Grand Piano To The Chestertown Public School — Jr. O. U. A. M. Gives The School A Big Flag, Etc.

The 121st commencement of Washington College has been one of the most successful and pleasant affairs ever held by this venerable institution, and the retiring president leaves the institution in a flourishing condition.

The annual "lawn" fete of the Pieria Literary Society was held last Friday evening in Normal Hall. It was an enjoyable affair although the usual rainstorm made its visit. The reception committee was composed of the officers: Miss Culver, pres.; Miss Gillespie, vice-pres.; Miss Burris, cor. sec.; Miss Beaver, treas.; Miss Bell, rec. sec. The Board of Visitors, the Faculty, the Literary societies and the ball team, were invited guests.

The Baccalaureate sermon was preached Sunday morning in the M. E. church by Rev. Dr. E. A. MacNichol, of Cambridge. His text was "Learn of Me," and his sermon was practical, thoughtful and impressive. The feature of the singing was a solo by Miss Hallie Toulson.

The sermon before the Students' Christian Association was preached in Emmanuel P. E. Church Sunday evening by Rev. J. G. Gantt, of Berlin. His theme was "Influence," and the learned divine presented in a delightful manner the good that may be done by men of sweet influence The best thing that could be said of any man was that "he made bad men good." The sermon was of that delicate, refined character appealing to the best side of nature and which encouraged men in spreading abroad the influence which is as sweet incense from roses. The feature of the singing was a sweet solo by Miss Isabel Beck.

Hon. L. Irving Handy Speaks.

Hon. L. Irving Handy, of Delaware, addressed the Adelphia Society in Stam's Hall on Monday evening A large audience greeted the well-known orator. He chose for his subject "Growing Up—Growing Old," and for one hour held the undivided attention of his audience. The noted speaker referred to his visit here of ten years ago, when he thought he was getting old, but now he thought he was young. "The ten years," said he, "has passed as quick as the flap of a swallow's wing." Mr. Handy has had a wide experience in teaching and in superintending schools, and when he entered upon the subject of the child and the different stages of its life he spoke from practical knowledge. He followed the "traits" of the child from the time he wants to eat the candle flame, explore his daddy's pocket-book, speaks his first word, asks his millions of questions, tells his first lie, to the time when he falls in love, marries and finally grows old and counts a greater number of friends on the other shore than there are about him. His address was full of wit, pathos and common sense and greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The Declamation Contest.

As usual, the elocution contest proved an interesting event. The contestants were: Emmet F. Hitch, of Seaford, Del., whose subject was "George W. Curtis on the Public Duty of Educated Men;" L. C. Robinson, Millington, "Democracy Defined;" Miss Sara N. Hessey, Hanesville, "Mad Anthony's Charge;" L. B. Smith, Cambridge, "The Progress of Civilization;" Miss Daisy E. Culver, Delmar, Del., "The Stigma;" Alexander L. Harrington, Jr., Frederica, Del., "The Value of Reputation;" Thos. F. Garey, Jr., Denton, "Regulus to the Carthaginians." The judges, Marion deK. Smith, Jr., A. T. McDorman and Miss Hallie Toulson, awarded the first prize to L. B. Smith and the second to T. F. Garey, Jr. The prizes were gold medals given by Dr. H. G. Simpers and the young alumni.

Tuesday evening the Pieria and Mt. Vernon Literary Societies presented Miss Jenet H. Young, niece of Prof. A. W. Hawk, elocutionist, who delighted her audience with familiar selections.

Commencement Proper.

Wednesday morning Stam's Hall was a scene of splendor and interesting events. His Excellency, Governor John Walter Smith, added eclat to the occasion and was the centre of attraction for hosts of citizens. The graduates were as follows: College Department—Arthur Smith Walls, Charles Norman Jefferson, of Queen Anne's; Walter Mills Carmine, of Ridgely; S. Scott Beck, of Lankford. Normal Department—Misses Mary A. Brown, E. Burton Burchinal, Edith W. Harley, of Chestertown; Daisy E. Culver, Delmar; Viola G. Woodall, Ruthsburg; Simeon Jester and Charles Norman Jefferson, of Queen Anne's. Mr. Walls won first honor and spoke on "The Enemy Under the Flag;" class orators were Mr. Jefferson, who spoke on "Liberty and Progress," and Mr. Carmine, "The Monroe Doctrine;" Mr. Beck won second honor, his excellent address being on "The South." Miss Culver won first honor in the Normal department and the subject of her address was "The Scholarship of the Teacher;" Miss Burchinal, class orator, spoke on "The Scholarship of the Teacher." Gov. Smith delivered the diplomas to the graduates and conferred the degrees in an able manner. [His address in full is on the 9th page.]

The commencement ball on Wednesday evening was one of the most delightful ever held. Weber's orchestra furnished music and everything was managed perfectly.

Chestertown Public School.

Thursday was an eventful day in the history of the children and of education in Chestertown. The town has one of the finest school buildings on the Shore and on Thursday other gifts were presented that equip it equal to the best. Mr. Wm. F. Russell, cashier of the Savings Bank, on behalf of the Jr. O. U. A. M., eloquently presented the school with a handsome and large flag, which was appropriately accepted by Prof. Edw. Reisler. Recitations were given by Emerson Roberts and Daisy Barnes.

Prof. Joseph Peterson, examiner, presented to the school a Grande piano, manufactured by the Kimball Piano Co., the gift of Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman, cashier of the Chestertown National Bank, and a former student of the Chestertown Public School. Prof. Peterson spoke of the donor in none too high terms as such a spirit as thus displayed is worthy of emulation and of the highest appreciation. Miss Mary W. Carroll, one of the teachers, made the unique address accepting the piano. Miss Lillian Matthews played the accompaniments to the songs excellently rendered by the school.

The scholars and visitors were assembled on the spacious lawn, and under the direction of Miss Nettie Gooding, the salutation and oath of allegiance was given, after which "America" was heartily sung. Master Fred. Hirons hoisted the flag.

Prof. Peterson also gracefully acknowledged the receipt of nearly $300 for furnishing Assembly Hall; of 30 volumes of an Encyclopedia from Dr. W. F. Hines, president of the Kent School Commissioners; of eight vols. of choice literature from Mr. L. B. Russell; a large hall clock from Mr. A. Levine and a steel engraving of George Washington from Mrs. George B. McWhorter.

Yesterday afternoon at 2.30 the regular commencement of the school was held. Rev Dr. Henry B. Martin delivered the address to the graduates—Miss Mary Adelaide Howard and Mr. Robert Earle Latham.

The following prizes were awarded: A book from M. A. Toulson to R Earle Latham for scholarship; a book from Mrs. G. B. McWhorter to Estelle Anthony for leading 2-6th grade; a pearl handle knife from Mrs. McWhorter to Russell Wheatley for leading 1st grade. Miss Laura Thomas awarded a prize for improvement in writing.

MISS BAKER'S KINDERGARTEN.

One of the enjoyable commencements of the year was Miss Idel Baker's up-to-date Kindergarten. The yard about Miss Baker's home was made to represent a scene in Holland. Varied-colored electric lighted globes flickered from the shrubbery while the scholars, like fairies, flitted about the velvety lawn. Refreshments were served to scholars and guests. Gold medals were awarded Carolene Hynson and Hiram Eliason for meritorious work.

A Men's Festival.—The Christian Endeavor Society of Christ Church announce a novel festival to be held in Toulson's new store room, on High street, next Thursday evening, June 24th. The men will manage the whole affair, decorate the room, wait on the tables, make the ice-cream, make the cake and tell your fortune. Among the committeemen are the following: Hydie Thompson, W. A. Wheatley, Dr. H. G. Simpers, J. D. Bacchus, J. Waters Russell, W. W. Hubbard, J. E. Ferguson, Fred. G. Usilton, M. Elwood Baker, Harry and Jack Cannan, Harry Hoyle, W. B. Usilton, Jr., C. S. Smith, Wm. F. Russell, Walter U. Lusby, Ralph Barnett, A. M. Culp, J H. Sides, Wm. Sutton, J. D. Lucas, Harry Barnett, J. F. Wheatley and many others.

Farms Sold.—Mr. Garrett Foxwell as administrator of the late Wm. T. Lusby sold at public sale Tuesday the two fine farms near Chesterville. The "Greenwood Farm" containing 171 acres was purchased by Mr William M. Clendaniel for $7,750, or about $45.50 per acre; the farm known as "Marrowbone," containing 213 acres was purchased by Mr. Pearly Moffett for $6,950. The former farm is tenanted by Mr. James E. Taylor and the latter by Mr. Coleman.

Fincastle, 135 acres, in Queen Anne's, was bought by John F. Godwin for $54 per acre.

The McCollister farm, 217 acres, to J. E. George for $50 per acre.

Northwest Point farm, 163 acres, to Frank Lewis for $33.10 per acre.

Part of Fincastle, 100 acres, to E. B. Walls for $33.75 per acre.

Lightning Bolt.—The gable end of Mr. Hervey McClary's home in Morgnec was torn into splinters Friday night about 8.30 o'clock by a bolt of lightning. Bureaus, mirrors, valises and articles of furniture were completely wrecked. Mr. McClary and wife were fortunately down in the kitchen and it was the only room not damaged. Carpenters advise the building of a new home as the present one is hardly worth repairing so completely it is wrecked.
