

Trowsers

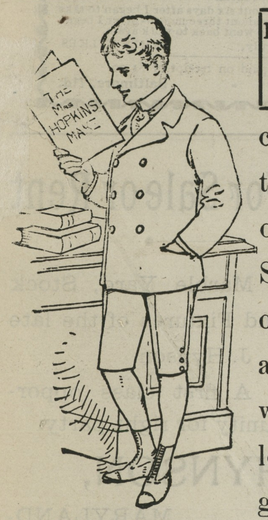

Not alone the best, but cheapest and largest assortment, they are going; we had them made for that purpose.

We don't keep much stuff, we sell it.

Suits

same way. Our output has been unprecedented. Why so? This is it—we have served the public long and faithfully, believing and practicing the fair method system, hence our daily increasing business. Come early if you expect a good assortment, as our stock is being rapidly depleted.

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S

complete and in conjunction with our regular line of Boys' and Children's Suits, we have a quantity of Odd Suits, one, two and three of a kind, that will be closed especially low, and there are some good things among them and very desirable patterns.

Shirts AND Hats

for everybody.

This department receives especial attention also, and most any conceivable style is here and for less money than can be had of city houses.

Come and inspect our claims. There are a few outsiders yet who ought to know the advantages we are dispensing.

LOCAL NEWS

The Peach Estimate—Supt. I. N. Mills, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and considered an expert on estimating the peach crop has made his prophecy. He says there will be 485,703 baskets of peaches on the Md. & Del., peninsula and 131,113 baskets of Keiffer pears. He estimates that upon the Queen Anne's & Kent railway from Townsend to Centreville there will be 61,025 baskets of peaches and 22,000 baskets of of pears. and on the Balto. & Delaware Bay Railroad 31,800 baskets of peaches and 26,000 baskets of pears.

A Heavy Contract.—Mr. A M. Kendall, contractor and builder, Fairlee, has contracted with Mr. John T. Morris, counsellor at law, Union Trust Building, Baltimore, Md., for the erection of a very fine dwelling on his fine estate in Southern Maryland, on the banks of the Potomac. The building is very artistic in design, fronting three ways on the river being on a beautiful point and the fourth front facing the entrance from the main land. The dwelling will cost about $6,000. Mr. Kendall & Son with the following mechanics, Messrs. Wm. H, Ayres, C. B. Lamb, Arthur Kendall, W. B Barnes left on last Tuesday via Tolchester to Baltimore, thence via Weems line. Mr. John Myers, of Worton, has been working on the foundation for several weeks. Mr. Frank Howard, of Chestertown, and his force of workman will do the painting.

New Steamboat Office—The Chester River Steamboat Company has decided to make some needed improvements at their Chestertown wharf which will be highly appreciated by all their patrons. A new building has been contracted for with W. S. & A. M. Culp, which will serve as an office and freight house. The building will be 29x85 feet and will extend partly over the wharf. The old factory on the Company's wharf and formerly used as a canning house by Mr. DeCoursey Ruth and a box factory by Capt. Emory is now being torn down and the improvement made to the Company's buildings and surrounding property will be very great.

Exciting Runaway.—Last Friday evening the horse attached to Pippin's Hotel 'bus ran away. One of the shaft bolts broke causing the shafts to fall against the horse's legs. The frightened animal ran down High street and the colored driver dropped the reins and jumped to the ground leaving Mr. Pippin, who was on the inside of the 'bus, to his fate. The horse turned into Court street where it came into collision with Mr. Hope H. Barroll's team, and was stopped by several gentlemen standing nearby. Mr. Pippin was released from his perilous position without injury.

THE Duyer Bros. are tearing down the old "Foundry House" on corner of Queen and Cannon street. A new store and dwelling will be erected by Capt. Pheffer.

AN ENJOYABLE house party was given the past week by Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Skiryen at their beautiful home near Chestertown. Straw rides, picnics and moonlight drives were enjoyed hugely under the direction of their hospitable son Mr. Lewin U. Skirven. Among those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. H. Stockton Startt, of Balto., Mrs. A. C. Hurlock, of Cambridge, Miss Marie Harvey, of Virginia, Miss Grace Seward and Miss Viola Eidman, of Balto., Miss Ella French, Kent, Mr. Harry Hurlock, Phila., Messrs. D. B. Ford and Warren Hurlock.

THE first peaches of the season were in the Chestertown market this week from the orchard of Col. Sam'l Wallen, of Queen Anne's.

THE dances at Dewey park, under the management of Messrs. Shallcross and Massey are very popular. A large crowd was present Wednesday evening and a splendid time enjoyed. There will be no dance on July 15th on account of the excursion.

GALENA LOCALS.

The Galena bank is doing a good business so far their deposits are increasing every day. Our people take great pride in having a bank in our midst, the officers of this bank are pushing it as best as they can. We understand they propose paying interest on deposits, equal to if not more than other banks in the county.

Mr. Parr received his second free library about a week, or so ago, it is a great boon to those that like to read, as it is nearly free, the charge to each reader is only a few cents a month, just enough to pay for boxing and shipping the library. The reading public appreciates this advantage very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parr and son, Holten, of Still Pond, spent Sunday, with his father's family in Galena.

Mr. Heston Hicks has a position as traveling salesman.

The farmers are very much discouraged at the quantity of wheat they are getting several are now threshing. We have not heard of any getting over 12 or 13 bushels to the acre and some getting less. The quality is not good either, the hay crop is fairly good.
