LOCAL NEWS

House Burned.—Lightning set fire to Richard Nobbett's fishing shanty on Worton Point shore last week destroying the house and contents. His loss will amount to about $400 in nets, clothing, &c.

Tournament.—A big tournament will be held at Tolchester next Friday. The prizes amount to $250 and the knights will number about 35. The orators will be Richard Laws Lee, Esq., and J. W. Chapman, Jr., Esq. C. H. Hurlock is to be chief marshal; T. E W. Crew, first assistant; Alfred Bramble, second assistant; Frank Johnson, time keeper.

Improved Quarters.—Mr. J. H Sides, jeweler, has rented of Mr. J. K. Aldridge the store-room occupied by Mr. Wm. R. Aldridge, next door to the hardware store. A new front will be put in, the interior of the room very much altered, new fixtures added and when completed Mr. Sides will have one of the best rooms and largest display of jewelry, clocks, &c. on the Shore.

Big Potatoes.—Mr. John Seney, on the Miller farm near Chestertown, brought to the NEWS office samples of his potato crop. They were beauties, too, and show what extra care will do. Three potatoes weighed 3½ lbs. From one patch of less than one acre he will get about 300 baskets. This potato crop was raised from Early Rose seed potatoes bought of F. H. Harper & Son and fertilizer of Wilbur W. Hubbard.

Sale of Property.—Herbert G. Wilkins on Tuesday purchased the Buck Boyce property at public sale for $1,440. It is an elegant home located at Rock Hall.

Sylvester Briscoe has purchased of Fred. G. Usilton a house near Georgetown formerly belonging to the Samuel Clark heirs for $150.

Joel R. Clements has purchased of A. M. Culp the old freight room at the wharf for $10.

Resigned.—Prof. Edw Reisler, of the Chestertown Public School, has resigned to accept a more lucrative position. He was very well satisfied here in every respect, but one, and his brief stay among us was pleasant. It is to be regretted that the conditions were not such as to warrant Prof. Reisler's return. It is said that Prof. Smyth will be offered the position with inducements that may warrant his acceptance of same. The appointment will be made July 30th. Prof. Reisler is reported to have accepted the Havre de Grace school which pays $1200 salary.

Court Notes.—The non-jury July term of Court met Monday, Judges Pearce and Brown on the bench. The case of Harry B. Parsons, who was protesting against the ratification of the sale of his interest in farm, occupied the attention of the Court and a verdict was given in favor of defendants, Messrs. Hynson and Beck, purchasers.

The Willie Wickes case has been appealed and will be heard before the Court of Appeals. Also the noted Rickards "Christian" horse case, from Caroline, and the Emmons, Chesapeake City, damage suit.

Wheat Yields.—The NEWS of last week contained reports from wheat all over the county. Among others who have threshed are the following: Jesse R. Copper, 19; C. H. B. Massey, 24; J. W. Chapman on Campbellsworth-more 26; Josiah Massey 12; Jacob Shirley 22; C. S. Hurlock 644 bushels off 52 acres; S. T. Moffett, on Hon. C. T. Wescott's farm, had 55 acres and got 450 bushels; Mr. Frank Newnam, on Thos Hill's farm, had 55 acres and got 350 bushels; C. G. Hadaway had about 70 acres and got a little over 600 bushels; Moses Cranor sowed 12 bushels and got 28 bushels. It is the poorest crop raised in Kent county for 30 years.

R. G. Nicholson got 21 bus. per acre. The grain was fine.

Mr. Charles T. Willis, on the Leaverton farm, near Chestertown, got about 16 bushels to the acre.

Mr. H. P. Skipper got 559 bushels off 50 acres.

Mr. J. C. Wood on the Island got 10 bushels to the acre.

Married.—The wedding of Miss Mary Louise Switzer, daughter of the late Richard Switzer to Mr. Ephraim Bacon took place Thursday morning at the residence of Dr. George W. Truitt, Roland Park. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Douglass, pastor of the Roland Park Presbyterian Church. Only the families and intimate friends of the couple were present at the nuptials. The bride was attired in a handsome white Persian lawn and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mazie Finknaugh, and Mr. James Shuster, of Wilmington, Del., was the groom's best man. After the wedding the bridal couple and witnesses were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. James O'Brien, 521 East Twenty-first street, where the bride had made her home for some time past. After the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Bacon left for Atlantic City to spend their honeymoon. The groom is manager of Truitt's pharmacy, at Roland Park, and is very popular in that vicinity. He is a son of Mr. John Bacon, formerly of Kent county, and a grand-son of James Shuster.

THE up-town butcher shop formerly operated by Roland Bros. and later by Mr. Thompson, has been purchased by Mr. Chas. Copper, an expert butcher.

THE sub-committee of the Col. Philip Reed memorial will hold its final meeting Sat., Aug. 1. Capt. C. A. Leary is chairman of this committee and to his untiring zeal and faithfulness is due in no small measure the success of the committee's work. The committee has expended $70.15 more than it received. If there is any one who would like to share in this commendable memorial the committee will gladly receive their contribution.
