

Ask a healthy woman what she would sell her health for and she would tell you that the choicest diamonds in the world could not buy it. What use for diamond rings to emphasize the shrunken fingers, or earrings to light up the cheeks hollowed by disease?

Health is the first requisite to womanly happiness. General ill-health in women has its origin in local womanly diseases. Cure the diseases of the delicate womanly organism and the general health is perfectly restored.

The remarkable benefits experienced from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are due to this medicine's perfect cures of womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"It affords me great pleasure to be able to say a few words in regard to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mrs. Flora Arn, of Dallas, Jackson Co., Mo. "I was tempted to try these medicines after seeing the effect upon my mother. At an early stage of married life I was greatly bothered with painful periods, also a troublesome drain which rendered me very weak and unfit for work of any kind. I became so thin there was nothing left of me but skin and bone. My husband became alarmed and got me a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription.' After he saw the wonderful effects of that one he got me two more, and after I used those up there was no more pain, and I began to gain in flesh very rapidly."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Acccept no substiute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

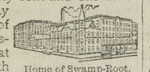

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

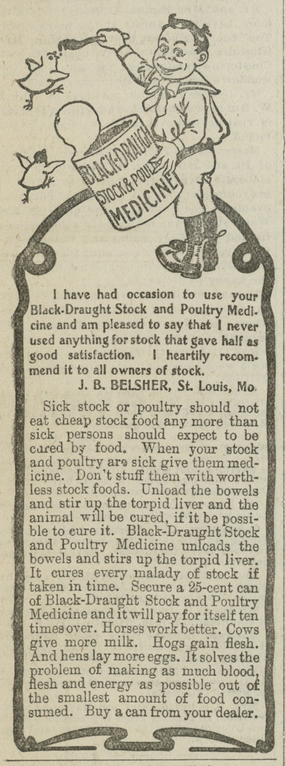

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.

J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

MEETING AT THE SHORE.

To the many kind hearts, that I met at the "Berkshire Inn" Hotel, Atlantic City, March, 1903, is this poem respectfully dedicated, by the author, Joseph W. Thompson.

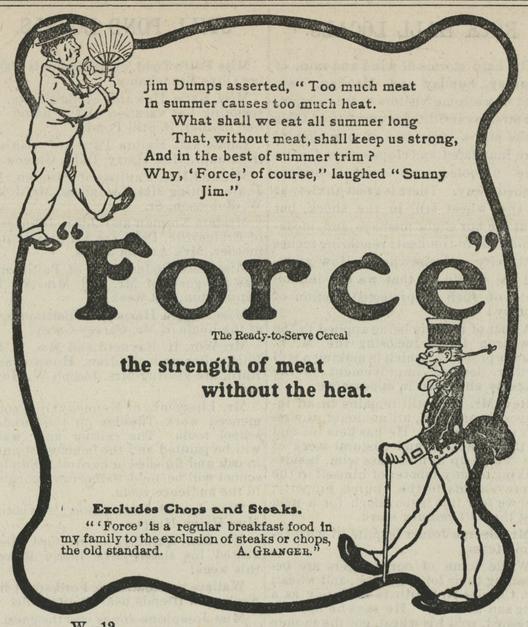

What a happy world we live in, if we choose to make it so,
As we sail lifes seas well over, no matter where we go:
For this glorious privilege is ours, if we perchance aright,
To make our hearts so happy, and our faces look so bright.
For the sun may still be shining in our life, though clouds be dark
If we live in hope rejoicing, with a song upon our harp;
And we lisp the sweetest moments, as we sing them o'er and o'er,
When our hearts are filled with gladness, with "The meeting at the shore,"
Oh! what a sweet communion and what a blessed tie,
When we can name our blessings, and count them without sigh;
Though sickness may encompass, and fever hold us strong,
Yet we bear the ills with patience, as we sweetly pass along.
And the glowing prospects ever bids us on the hopeful mood,
To chide us in our weakness, though we bear a heavy load,
But we loose their heavy pressure, as our thoughts on high do soar,
When we remember sweetly, our "Meeting at the shore,"
Oh! what a blessed privilege that strangers thus can meet,
And be happy with each other, and each so fondly greet;
Or what a happy pleasure to feel each laugh or sigh,
As the moments swiftly passing, of a friend that is nearby.
It takes the sadness far away, and bears us on to bliss,
When we grasp a friendly hand, or receive a friendly kiss.
And though we may be parted, yet we hold them more and more,
And never forget the giver, of the "Meeting at the shore,"
If the world would only grasp it, when happiness comes along,
And instead of crying ever, would sing some happy song,
For many a heart goes weeping, with a dull and heavy load,
Because they live on grieving for the sorrows they have mowed,
If they would look to hopeful ties, it would awake a peace,
That would calm each troubled heart, and let them live at ease,
And would throw them off forever, to be lost evermore,
By a sweet and gladsome greeting of the "Meeting at the shore."
How our hearts grow heavy when we see a brother down,
Who never wears a smile at all, but always looks a frown,
Or how we wish that sometimes, when we see hearts very sad,
That we could take them to our breast, and tell them to be glad,
For the world is full of sorrow if we choose to make it so,
If we borrow from the morrow, and let the twilight go.
But if we grasp the sunshine as it passes o'er life's door,
We will give it fondly greeting, as "The meeting at the shore."
But should we sigh or sorrow, for the times that long have passed,
Or give ourselves to weeping for the things that are the least,
For we ne'er can recall moments, but must look for future day,
And live in sweetest music, to while the time away.
For we cannot stay the action of the hands of moving time,
But can keep up with smiles and joys, and keep well in the line,
So when the clouds are the heaviest, we'll simply look them o'er,
And think of pleasant moments of "The meeting at the shore."
What a joy it is, when sunshine is in our lives portrayed,
And we do not count the sorrows, that have been momently been made,
But we live in brighness ever, without one care or sigh,
To think of future happiness in the sweet bye and-bye.
How our greeting comes before us, when we think of parting soon.
With hearts that have stood by us, in sunshine and gloom.
But Oh! when twilight fadeth to open Heavens door,
We'll then have a fondly greeting as "The meeting at the shore."
And as we rest our spirits on him who did atone,
We will join the happy chorus, and sing the new, new song,
And give our heartfelt praises to whom it doth belong,
Hallaiujah! let rejoicing, give us all the "Heavenly" strain,
As we sweetly join the chorus, to sing it o'er again,
And we bow before the throne on high to worship evermore,
To give our loved ones greeting at "The meeting at the shore."

What shall we eat all summer long
That, without meat, shall keep us strong,
And in the best of summer trim?
Why, 'Force,' of course," laughed "Sunny Jim."
