CHESTERTOWN, MD., AUG. 15, 1903

McComas seems to be getting the better of the Mudd-Jackson combination.

Kent Republicans are quietly doing a lot of caucusing and it is said that the primaries, convention and ticket have been "fixed" to the satisfaction of all.

It now looks like Hon. Edwin Warfield will be the Democratic candidate for Governor and Hon. Stevenson Williams the Republican candidate. It will be a battle royal.

The Real Issue.

There is no longer any doubt about there being another contest in Kent County but when compared to the county primary it is a giant. Some persons would have it appear that the contest in the county was between Warfield and Jones for Governor. This is a false representation. The News' position was taken some months ago in favor of Warfield and others followed. The sentiment in Kent County for this honored gentleman has been on the increase ever since and the delegation that is sent to the State Convention will know this sentiment and act accordingly. There is a certain faction in the county who would have the public believe that they are making an earnest effort to send a Warfield delegation to Baltimore when their real object is to get control of the State Central Committee.

The present committee in Kent County consists of three sterling Democrats who have always labored in season and out to advance the interest of the Democratic party, whose friends have been most active in the work that has been most effective in past campaigns and in whom the public repose their trust and confidence. They have only been in this position two years and never before has a committee been changed except after four years of service.

The primaries will be held in each district of the county on Saturday, August 22nd, and we would caution all Democrats to think twice before acting as there is more at issue than appears on the surface and which some would have us believe. The coming election seems to have been obliterated from the minds of some people. Without unity in the party the Democrats are nowhere.

PROHIBITION TICKET NOMINATED.

The Prohibition Convention was held at Still Pond on Wednesday afternoon, and a full county ticket nominated with the exception of State's Attorney. Mr. George W. Covington called the convention to order and Mr. M. A. Toulson was made secretary. The following ticket was nominated :

Senator—George W. Covington.
House of Delegates—Benj. F. Rash, C. B. Krusen.
Clerk—Thomas Rasin.
Treasurer—E. W. Spear.
Sheriff—Neal Hadaway.
Register of Wills—Samuel W. Brown.
Orphans' Court—Joshua R Jarrell, John H. Weist, Capt. —— Apsley.
County Commissioners—Frank S. Bottomley, Wilmer Ford, Dr J. T. Twilley.

Rev. Mr. McCann, E. W. Spear, B. F. Rash, G. W. Covington and S. W. Brown were elected delegates to the State Convention to be held at Hagerstown on September 13.

At a conference Thursday in Washington of Maryland Democratic leaders it was determined that Hon. Edwin Warfield should receive the support of the organization for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

The old war horse, Col. J. F. C. Talbot, won out in Baltimore county and says the county will give 3,000 Democratic majority for Warfield for Governor.

The Washington College buildings are beginning to take on an entire changed appearance under the direction of Mr. Wm. L. Fowler and his force of painters. Dr. James W. Cain has moved into his new home and is getting things straightened out for the Fall term. The Doctor has made a trip down the Shore and reports the outlook bright for the coming year. New energy is being injected into all the college affairs.

Peach thieves.—Capt. R. S Emory's peach orchard on the Chester river, near Chestertown, was raided on Monday night and a whole variety of peaches taken. Capt. Emory had picked two or three baskets of peaches on Monday and intended to pick all of them the next day, but when he with his men entered the orchard the next morning they were very much supprised to find that thieves had been there before and completely stripped the trees.

The September sittings of Treasurer Copper are advertised in this issue on page 10.

The Grand Jury's Report.

The Grand Jury handed to the court last Tuesday morning the report of Mr. John H. Blacklock, of Baltimore, the expert accountant employed to examine and report on the indebtedness of Kent county. Mr. Blacklock finds that on May 26th, 1903, when the levy for the current levy year (1903–1904) was made, the indebtedness of the county was as follows: Outstanding claims provided for in the levy, $88,894.07 ; outstanding claims not provided for in the levy, $5,811.58 ; bonded debt, $30,000 00 ; making a total of $124,705.65. The expenses for the current levy year, estimated at the average expenses for the past eleven years, is placed at $78,486 04. The levy of May 26th, 1903, provides cash for the expenses of the current levy year, $22,-752.84. This will leave a deficiency or "floating debt" at the expiration of this levy year of $55,733.20. By adding to this sum the amount of $5,811.58, which was not included in the levy of last May, it is found that the total deficiency or "floating debt" at the end of the current levy year will be $61,544.78. On the present taxable basis, and estimating the annual expenses at the average of the past eleven years, it will require a tax rate of $1.05 to pay the annual expenses of the county and to pay off the floating debt in ten years! The deficiency or "floating debt" at the end of the levy year has increased during the past eleven years from $38,114 97 in 1892 to $94,-705.65 in 1903.

The report, which is very full and comprehensiye, shows the indebtedness of the county in detail at the end of each year from 1892 to 1903, the receipts and expenditures of the county commissioners as distinguished from the taxes collected by the county treasurer, the redemption and refunding of the jail bonds, and the disposition of the proceeds of the refunding loan of $10,-000. The report concludes with extracts from the minutes of the county commissioners and with a number of important recommendations.

Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, in commenting upon the report, congratulated the jury that there was no evidence of criminal negligence or insinuation of that character ; that our humiliation would have been considerable. "It is tempered," said the Judge, "with mortification that our county affairs should have been allowed to go on for so long in such a condition. The situation calls forth to everyone to give heed to the condition of affairs and to realize that economy must be practised. Our first obligation is to pay our debts, and in order to do that we must expect a heavy tax rate for a period of years and deny ourselves many up-to-date improvements."

The special committee, Messrs. Groves, Bowers and Emory, have done their work well, the Grand Jury have acted wisely and the Judge's comments judiciously made.

The tax-payers understand the situation and will no doubt put an end to extravagance and to piling up debts.

A marriage ceremony on the beach is a most unusual event. Nevertheless quite a number of tenters at Fenwick Island Camp of the Methodist Protestant Church witnessed just such a ceremony one afternoon this week. When Rev. J. M. Sheridan, of St. James' Church, had finished his afternoon sermon he was approached by a young man who desired him to perform a marriage ceremony on the beach. Rev. J. M. Sheridan, fortified with a Methodist Protestant Church discipline, immediate y followed the young man to the surf. There he found the prospective bride waiting in a buggy. The preacher had them stand close to the water's edge. Soon quite a crowd gathered to witness this unusual event. Near the margin of the roaring surf, stirred up by an Eastern gale, Rev. J. M. Sheridan began the ceremony. It was with great difficulty that he made the couple understand his questions, and the "I will" of the bride and groom was almost lost in the roaring of the sea. Finally without any perceptible wetting of feet, Curtis Hudson, of Maryland, and Maggie Truitt, of Delaware, were made man and wife. Rev. J. M. Sheridan afterward said he was in constant dread lest the waves should come up on them.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of Mrs. HENRIETTA BRAMBLE, who departed this life at the home of her son William, near Tolchester, August 6th, 1903, aged 72 years 6 months and 6 days. Interment was made at Kennedyville M. P. Church Saturday afternoon. Rev. E. P. Roe officiating.

O mother thy gentle voice is hushed
Thy warm, true heart is still ;
And on thy pale and peaceful face,
Is resting death's cold chill.

Thy hands are clasped upon thy heart.
We have kissed thy lovely brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no mother now.

Asleep in Jesus ; far from thee,
Thy kindred and their graves may be,
But thine is still a blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep.

SON WILLIAM AND WIFE.

The pulpit of Still Pond Church will be occupied on Sunday morning by the pastor, and in the evening by Rev. W. C. Poole, of Fairlee.
