CHESTERTOWN, MD., AUG. 22, 1903

HON. EDWIN WARFIELD will be at the Tolchester Fair next Tuesday.

LET every Democrat today enter into the contest in a spirit of friendly rivalry and let no hard feelings be engendered.

THE use of money and other bribes in any election is deplored, but especially in a primary contest should it be eliminated absolutely as a controlling factor.

HON. EDWIN WARFIELD will have no opposition for the Democratic nomination for Governor, as nearly every county will be for him when the convention meets.

IF the Democrats will display the same amount of energy and hustle in the election of the Democratic ticket that they have shown in the two primaries there'll be no doubt about the success of the whole Democratic ticket.

HENRY WATERSON, the Southern editor, says that the next Democratic candidate for President will be either Gorman, Parker or Gray—each in his own peculiar way a strong man—and that the nominee will be elected.

THE Democrats, Republicans and Prohibitionists have each named their county tickets in Kent. The Democratic ticket will bear inspection and a comparison is welcomed, as it is a strong and representative one and entitled to the support of every Democrat of whatever faction or element.

DR. JOSHUA W. HERING, who for two terms has been State Comptroller, and made a most enviable record, says that he is not a candidate for renomination and that his name will not go before the Democratic State Convention. This announcement makes it sure that the next Comptroller will come from the Eastern Shore.

CLARENCE W. PERKINS, ESQ., of the Baltimore bar, is visiting his mother in Chestertown. Mr Perkins has no opposition for the Democratic nomination for State Senator from the Second Baltimore City Legislative district. This is a normal Democratic district and this year the Democrats are united. He is a worthy gentleman and will be an honor to his adopted city and a credit to his native town. We wish him success and a big majority.

THE oyster reason opens September 1. The Chester river and Swan Point bars have been examined by several oystermen and each report a scarcity of oysters. It is said that what oysters are on the bars are in good condition, and a considerable quantity of young oysters were found, which if left alone will mature very fast. The indications are that the price of oysters will be high this fall, which will in some degree pay up for the scarcity. The oystermen are getting their outfits in condition to go right in from the start.

THE first race between the Reliance and Shamrock was a failure on account of light wind. But when time was called our boat was one mile ahead and was showing her superiority at every point.

HOG CHOLERA ABJUT—That dread destroyer of swine, hog cholera, has made its appearance in Kent. The NEWS has published several good remedies and preventatives of hog cholera and we advise our farmers to use an ounce of prevention right now. Mr. Alday Clements has lost about 25 hogs from the disease in the last week and others in the same neighborhood have suffered smaller losses.

FISH LAW VIOLATORS—A fish law that is not often brought to the attention of the justices was made the subject of a case on Monday before Justice Rasin, of Still Pond. James and John Robinson, of Still Pond, were arrested on the charge of "plashing" in Kent waters and brought before the Justice. They were fined $10 and costs and their rigs forfeited. State's Attorney Urie appeared for State.

ROCK HALL SCHOOL—Great improvement has been made in the Rock Hall school building by the school commissioners. Examiner Peterson has given the work his personal attention, and now has room to accommodate the present roll of 300 scholars and seven teachers and one room to spare. The addition to the building has added greatly to the appearance of the old structure and very much surprised Rock Hall citizens both in looks and practicability. Mr. Joseph Judefind had charge of the work and made a good job of the improvements.

Political Notes.

The Republican ticket nominated on Tuesday is said to have been agreed upon after a great deal of trouble and vexation to the leaders. The first and Fifth districts were left out in the cold almost entirely and only one place was given to each. Chestertown was well taken care of in the distribution. It is said that the personal of the ticket means that a high bid will be made for the doubtful vote. Several surprises are seen in the make-up Capt. Dan. Hill is not on the ticket, while his two associates in the Board of Commissioners, Messrs. Atwell and Hadaway, are again in the running. The old Orphans' Court is also turned down and an entire new trio are put up.

Mr. A. M. Kendall is also replaced by Mr. Wm. G. Smyth for House of Delegates.

The Democrats have their little family trouble to-day and after that the whole party will turn in and work hard for the election of the whole Democratic ticket.

The Republican primaries last Saturday are said to have been managed by the "lilly whites" in the Chestertown district and not a colored person was made delegate on Saturday. But the other districts made up for it and about 23 delegates in Tuesday's convention were colored.

Colored voters in Prince George's county were paid as high as $50 apiece in the Republican primaries Saturday. The Mudd-McComas fight was a bonanza to them and they are anxious for more of the same kind.

The Republican convention failed to nominate a State's Attorney and Surveyor. It remains to be seen whether these two places will be vacant on election day. The State Convention will determine.

One of the features of the Republican convention was the speech of Col. Wm. J. Vannort, who put Mr. Wilber Eliason in nomination for Clerk of the Court.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason says the sentiment in Kent is for Williams for Governor.

The kittens and rabbits play and sport together just as though they were of the same family.

A horse, with wagon attached, belonging to Mr. James Robinson, of Still Pond, wandered down the railroad track and fell into the bridge at Parrott's branch. The animal was extricated with much difficulty. The accident delayed the mail train about half an hour.
