WEDDING BELLS.

A Beautiful Wedding at Still Pond—Mr. W. W. Lynch Weds a Delaware Widow.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Melvin, at Lynch's Station, was the scene of an interesting wedding Wednesday evening. Mr. Wm. Wesley Lynch, formerly of Chestertown, aged 76, was the groom while Mrs. Mary E. Hanson, of Wilmington, aged 62, was the bride. Rev. J. M. Sheridan, of St. James M. P. Church, performed the ceremoney. The serenaders made things lively. They will reside in Wilmington where the bride has a cozy home. We wish them health, happiness and prosperity. Next.

Barnette — Moffett.

John S. Barnett, a prominent merchant of Dover, was married Wednesday morning at 6 30 by Rev. Mr. Beachamp in the Still Pond M. E. Church to Miss Daisy Moffett, of Still Pond. The wedding was a pretty event, occurring at that early morning hour and in this picturesque country church. Paul Barnett, of Dover, and Walter Moffett, the former a brother of the groom and the latter brother of the bride, were the ushers, while Daisy Ford and Mary Barnette attended the bride as flower girls. The bride looked pretty attired in a neat-fitting cream colored dress of voile. She is a recent graduate of a Pennsylvania college and is popular in Galena where she taught school for some years. Prof. L. Harris Crewe skillfully played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Barnette left after the ceremony and a wedding breakfast for a trip to Canada, after which they will reside at Dover.

Frazier — Carville.

Miss Grace Carvill, formerly of Chestertown, and Dr. Jos. W. C. Frazier, of the department of chemistry of Johns Hopkins University, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride on Madison ave., Balt., by Rev. J. Houston Eccleston. The bride wore white crepe de chine and was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Carvill, wearing aeolian trimmed in applique. She was given away by her brother, Mr. Henry Ward Carvill. Dr. John Bishop was best man.

Bought a Farm.—Mr. S. F. Evans of Queen street, Chestertown, has purchased a farm of 173 acres including stock, implements, canning house, etc., etc., for $12,800. The farm is located near St. Michaels, Talbot county, and Mr. Evans will remove thereon at once. Mrs. Knight will remove to the house vacated by Mr. Evans and Mr. Heydrick, jeweler in J. H. Sides' store, will occupy the Knight house.

Fine Fruit.—Some of the best yields of peaches heard of this year have been raised in private yards of some of our Chestertown citizens. Among the number are Messrs. Lewin S. Fowler, W. R. Aldridge, Walter U. Lusby, J. W. Chapman, Harry Hoyle and others.

Cotton.—Marion deK. Smith, Esq., gathered his cotton crop this week grown in his garden on Washington avenue. The pods were large and the quality of cotton very fine. It is difficult to mention a fruit or nut that is not raised in Mr. Smith's yard.

FOR SALE.

CONDENSED PARAGRAPHS.

Kernels of News Gathered Here and There With the Hull Removed.

DR. C. P. GILPIN had fine sport after rail birds Thursday afternoon--killed 50.

THE show yesterday had excellent horses. The performances were well attended and creditable while the behavior was perfect.

THE sale of three-quarters of an acre of land in Sandy Bottom advertised by R. D. Hynson, Esq., mortgagee, was purchased by Mr. Jacob Shriley for $148.

A VISITOR to Mr. Barrett Smith's corn field one night this week was so scared by officer Hudson that he dropped his basket, bag and shoes! The owner can get same by applying to Mr. Hudson.

MR. THOMAS C. MASLIN has sold his farm, near Rock Hall, to Mr. George T. Whaland for the sum of $3,500. The tract contains 60 acres.

ALFRED L DAVIDSON has purchased the stock and fixtures of the late A. J. Hynson and will remove same to his establishment on Cross street near Vandegrift's barber shop. Mr. Davidson will now be prepared better than ever to serve the public with marble or granite pillars, tomb stones, etc., etc. Let him figure on your work.

THE excursion Monday by Revs. McEaddy and Parker to Port Deposit was enjoyed by over 600 persons and was well conducted. The Georgetown Club left Tolchester Saturday with 400 excursionists for Cambridge but owing to the fact that a cannery was located on the wharf and fearing lest all his employes would leave they were not allowed to land.

THE good will and fixtures of the National Hotel, Middletown, Del., have been sold by Charles Devalinger to Walter W. Aiken, late proprietor of the Howard House, Elkton, for $6,500. Mr. Aiken has taken a four year's lease upon the property at a rental of $1,800 per annum.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES PERRY live happily in an "ark" on Scott's Point Chestertown, with a family of five children! The stork brought twins to the home last Sunday, a boy and a girl, All are doing well.

A scow loaded with fertilizer sunk in Morgan creek last week and three tons of phosphate were dumped into the creek. The fertilizer was consigned to Col. Josiah Massey.

IT is said that Mr. John C. Davis will resign as a member of the election supervisors because of his name being on the ticket. It will prevent any contention if Mr. Davis resigns, otherwise he may find his election (?) contested.

THE festival at St. Paul's P. E. Church last week was a grand success and over $100 were cleared, the receipts being about $171. The Wesley Chapel ladies served one of their most sumptuous suppers last Saturday evening to a large number of persons. Menu comprised pan rock, oysters, turkey, duck, etc.

School Commissioner Appointed.—Gov. John Walter Smith on Tuesday appointed Mr. John P. Ahern School Commissioner for Kent county for the remainder of the term of six years from May, 1900, vice J. Thos. Pennington, Esq., resigned. Mr. Ahern is a prominent and well-known business man of Millington and his selection means that Kent's excellently managed schools will not be allowed to take any retrograde steps.

Declared a Dividend.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' Trust, Banking and Deposit Company of Baltimore was held Thursday in the Calvert building. The following officers and directors were re-elected for the ensuing year: President, J. W. Woodland; first vice-president, E. S. Johnson; second vice-president, J. F. Thomas; secretary and treasurer, W. D. Allen; directors, E. S. Johnson, A. H. Robertson, C. P. Woodall, M. Mets, P. S. Vogel and Dr. Edw. A. Scott.

The directors declared an annual dividend of 3 per cent. This company has been in business for one year and has had its banking branch in operation for only six months.
