Sold Her Hair.—A Texas girl devised a novel way of raising a church debt. She sold her hair at auction, the successful bidder being a wealthy young man from Boston. He asked to wear the hair on his shoulder on lonesome evenings, and when he decided to return to Boston desired to take the flaxen locks along without clipping them.

The church which tnis girl so heroically saved will be the scene of the culmination of this romance, and the Boston man has settled an annuity upon it for support. It's up to the Eastern Shore girls now.

Killed by Lightning.—A severe thunderstorm passed over Cambridge at noon Saturday and the lightning struck several places. Mrs. Samuel I. Gorge, 23 years old, was standing in her house with a young baby in her arms, when she was killed instantly by a bolt and fell dead on the floor, while the baby was unharmed. The same bolt prostrated an old man and burned the heel of a young boy in the same house. Other bolts struck the new hospital building and the freight house, on the steam boat wharf, but with out seriousdamage. The entire town is well shaken up and has been deluged with water. The fine dwelling of Joseph Mundy at Clinton place, two miles from Cambridge, was struck and set on fire, but the flames were extiugnished. The dwelling of Mr. Fred Hurst, on the adjacent farm, was also struck, but without much damage being done.

The news is received with much enthusiasm by the many friends of the ex-Governor, who see in his candidacy much benefit to the Democracy of the Eastern Shore and throughout the State. The feeling is that the contest is an open one and that the ex-Governor will have as good a show for success as any other candidate in the field. Speaking of his candidacy ex-Govenor vJackson said he would make a dignified fight all along the line, paying special attention to the Eastern Shore counties, but that he proposed to interview his friends in every county in the State, as well as Baltimore city.
