THE Republican howl is "boss" "Gee!" Have we a Pearre, a Mudd, a Goldsborough or a McComas?

SHAKE off the chaff and look at the thing as it is! If it never was before, this campaign is—Democratic or Republican or white or black. Which?

NEXT Tuesday will be the last day of registration. Each Democrat should make himself a committee of one to see that the party vote is fully registered and that the names of all Republicans who have moved from any district are stricken off the registries.

Good and Pointed Advice,—W. E. King, a negro editor of Dallas, Tex., said a pointed thing about the need of his race when he stated that the negro needs work and plenty of it—work six days in the week and every week in the year. He declares that idleness, wilful or otherwise, is unwholesome for his race, and that if all could be kept busy there would be less "hip pocket" industry and fewer "razor plays."

JEWELL PLEADS GUILTY.

Goes to the Penitentiary for Three Years for Forgery.

Jervis Maxwell Jewell pleaded guilty in the United States District Court Tuesday to an indictment charging him with forging the indorsement on a pension check and to three indictments charging him with impersonating a Government officer, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by Judge Morris. The check to which Jewell forged the indorsement was for $24 and was payable to Philip Frazier, colored, of Centreville, Md.

Jewell impersonated a Government officer by representing himself to be a physician sent out by the Government to examine pensioners for the purpose of ascertaining if they were not entitled to an increase of their pensions. He operated mainly among colored persons and swindled large numbers of them, it is said. A number of former slaves are said to have been victimized by him under the pretense that the Government proposed pensioning those who had been slaves. He obtained from 50 cents to $10 from each of his victims. To those who doubted him, Jewell, it is said displayed a game warden's badge as proof of his sincerity.

Jewell's wife and sister were in court and were much affected by his sentence. Jewell took the matter coolly and made a strong appeal to the court for leniency. He is about 32 years old. He said he is a native of Kent County, Maryland, and served in the United States Army during the war of Spain. He declared he had repented and constantly prayed while in jail, and he knew his sins had been forgiven. When he asked if he had ever been in trouble before, Jewell replied that he had been arrested for horse stealing, but had been acquitted of the charge.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE NOTES.

Are We to Have a New Professor? Football Schedule—Officers Elected, Etc.

The football interest is continuously increasing. Two teams are on the field every afternoon, and the boys are "getting in the game" surprisingly well. Dr. Cain's interest, shown by the exertion of his efforts on the field nearly every day toward coaching the team, seems to inspire every player with an aspiration to work hard in the game. Manager Porter has arranged the following schedule: Oct. 3d, with Delaware College at Wilmington; the second with Maryland Agricultural College, at College Park, Oct. 10th; the third at Chestertown, with Wilmington Business College, Oct. 17th; the fourth at Chestertown, with Mt. St. Joseph's College, Oct. 31st; the fifth at Chestertown, with Johns Hopkins University, Nov. 7th; the sixth will likely be with St. John's College, at Chestertown, Nov. 14th; the seventh at Dover, with the Wilmington Conference Academy; and the last with Western Maryland College, at Westminster, on Thanksgiving Day. The line up, as suggested by Capt. Hitch will be the following: Centre, Stevens; right guard, Tyler; left guard, Pattison or Derickson; right tackle, Moore; left tackle, Brice; right end, Hughes; left end, Grey; quarter back, Schutz; right half back, Hitch; left half back, Crew; full back, Garey. There are a number of good players to be used as substitutes, who will be ready to assist the team ably in any case of emergency.

The literary societies have begun work also, and elected officers for the fall term. Mt. Vernon, the venerable old society, which has always upheld a record of worthy praise, has chosen a corps of officers which will no doubt do her much credit. They are:

President—T. F. Garey, of Caroline.
Vice-President—J. G. Moore, of Delaware.
Recording Secretary—C. B. Morris, of Somerset.
Corresponding Secretary—W. H. Davis, of Harford.
Treasurer—Houston Toulson, of Kent.
Critic—E. F. Hitch, of Delaware.
Historian—L. B. Smith, of Dorchester.
Sergeant at Arms—Curtis Long, of Wicomico.

Adelphia's officers are the following:

President—H. O. Stephens, of Cecil.
Vice President—A. S. Garrison, of Harford.
Recording Secretary—J. R. Brittingham, of Worcester.
Corresponding Secretary—E. F. Gill, of Washington City.
Chaplain—Lusby Nicholson, of Kent.
Sergeant at-Arms—Austin Whittington, of Somerset.
Critic—H. P. Porter, of Worcester.
Treasurer—Norman Ward, of Delaware.

It is said that we are soon to have a new member of the faculty. The classes are very large and it has become quite a necessity. The new teacher will have some of the primary classes.

SENATOR McCOMAS AS BOSS.

What a Republican Paper Says of Harmony, Strife and Contention Among Their Members—Mr. Mudd Pays His Respect to Mr. Goldsborough.

From the Salisbury Courier, rep.

If lack of harmony, strife and contention are healthy signs in a political convention, as Chairman Pearre stated in his opening speech at the State Convention in Baltimore on Thursday, then the Republicans are in about as healthy condition as it is possible for a party to be. The meeting was marred by the most divergent opinions, the proceedings being conducted with the brute force of might, overpowering the opposition as though they were a captured enemy without reason to expect other than to be treated without consideration. They received none, at any rate, and were overridden in the approved McComas manner when the Senator has control. An illustration of this was the selection of Mr. Pearre as chairman. The Allegany delegation protested against Mr. Pearre, but without avail, and he was named over their heads—the representatives of his own county. The same tactics were followed all through the convention. The result is simply to confirm the opposition in the State to the re-election of McComas. Were it not understood that Mr. Williams, the gubernational candidate especially, (as well as the candidates for Comptroller and Attorney General) will not stand Senator McComas' dictation and will refuse to use their influence, if elected, in Senator McComas' behalf, the ticket would not have a ghost of a show. As it is, Senator McComas only riveted the determination of at least a portion of the Republicans in Maryland that he shall not succeed himself. If a majority of the Legislature is Republican the expressions among these people were universal that the votes would never be cast for Senator McComas under any circumstances.

THE following resolutions were passed by the Princess Anne Quarterly Conference on Saturday night, Sept. 19, 1903:

WHEREAS, our pastor, Rev. A. H. Covey, has by reas n of ill health, been compelled to sever his relations with this church—

Resolved, That this Quarterly Conference hereby place upon record its profound regret at the suspension of the happy relations which have endeared Bro. Covey to this people, trusting that by suitable rest he may be speedily and completely restored to health.

Resolved, That this Quarterly Conference hereby request that a supply be arranged for this charge until the Annual Conference, with the further request that if then his health will permit, Bro. Covey shall be returned to this pastorate.

Suits Entered.—Dr. Beall, who has but recently located at Rock Hall, has entered suit against the Chester River Steamboat Company for $10,000 damages, alleged to have been done him while at Deep Landing. It is said that the Doctor wanted to get off the boat before the plank was thrown out, and that he was simply prevented from so doing.

Mrs. Elsie Shuster, widow of the late Mahlon C. Shuster, who was recently killed on the railroad at Edgemoor, has entered suit for damages against the P. B. & W. Railroad Company.

Is Maryland a northern or a southern State, and does it wish the trade of the South or is it willing to see this trade go elsewhere? Decide for yourself if a Democratic ballot on the 3rd doesn't answer this double question correctly.
