COME

again merchandise.

This is the sort of Stock we furnish to the trade, which accounts for the retention of old customers and a substantial increase year after year.

various Fall and Winter lines are about complete and ready for inspection and as usual you will find the up-to-date merchandise that has distinguished this house from the sweat shop dealers for the past fifteen years and landed us the credit of being the "Economist's" friend.

is the place where dollars work. We can sell you a Suit or Overcoat for $5.00 and you can depend upon it being the best that can be put together for the price.

BUT

we prefer selling better grades, for every fifty cents you can afford above five dollars is well invested; for here you get your 50c value received.

WE have our clothes made just as we want them and

THEN

make our own advertisements to suit the various lines;

HENCE

when you read our clothes talk, you can depend upon it, as in the past that we have the goods and stand behind every statement we make concerning them.

WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Jessie Virginia Copper, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Samuel A. Copper, of 20 East Montgomery street, and the watchman on the Emma A. Ford, was married Wednesday night to Mr. James Melvin Graham, 1421 Hanover street, the ceremony being performed at Lee Street Baptist Church by Rev. J. Clagett Skinner, pastor of North Avenue Baptist Church.

The bride wore white silk mull over taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by Miss Rose Brown, who wore white French lawn and carried a bouquet. Mr. S. P. Hanson was the best man. The ushers were Messrs. Calvin Howard, Harry Benson, Clarence Bowie and Raymond O. Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham left on a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will reside at 322 North Calhoun street, Baltimore.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hufnal, Dover, when their daughter, Bertha, was united with William Comerford, of Millington, Md., in the holy bonds of matrimony. Dr. Baker performing the ceremony.

The bride was beautifully attired. The parlor was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A handsome arch of pine and holly, with a bell of the same in the center, was one of the decorations. After the ceremony the following guests were shown into the diningroom where sumptuous repast was partaken of. The guests present were as follows:—Rev. Mr. Wilson and wife, Rev. Dr. Baker, Harry Hufnal and wife, Alphonso Sims and sisters, William Pritchett, Harry Godwin, Louis Anderson and wife, Levin Willis and wife, Emitt Hutchinson and wife, John Sapp and wife, Robert Willey and wife, Norman Willis and wife, Mrs. Edward Mason and family, William Willis and family, Jos. Wiley and family, Benjamin Masten and sisters, Samuel Legar and family, Joseph Boyles and family, F. C. Phillips and family, John Willis and family, Walter Moore and sisters, Mr. Huntley and wife, George Huntley, Miss Katherine Huntley, Alfred Massey and family, Mr. Harry Wrench, Daniel H. Casson and wife, William H. Casson, William Ennis and sister, Mr. John Lodge, Pressley Ennis and sister, Alexander Sawyer and Victor Downs.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Fairbank and Mr. Eugene H. Benson, of St. Michaels, were married at the home of the bride in Easton Wednesday by Rev. Chas. A. Grise. The ushers were Arthur F. Grace, of Easton, and Le Roy Fairbank, of Altoona, Pa. The groom formerly clerked for Mr. J. H. Sides, Chestertown.

Rev. Jacob M. Yingling, the noted marrying parson, formerly of Cumberland, was married Wednesday at Laurel to Miss Ella N. Horsey, of Laurel, Del. During his pastorate at Cumberland he married several thousand couples from various points. His first wife died about two years ago. He is a giant in stature. He is of the Methodist Protestant faith. He created a sensation when there by saying, in reply to a criticism by the Ministerial Association, that he prayed God to send him weddings, that his salary was small, and he needed the fees that he might live. A son, Samuel, resides in Cumberland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Greenwood, of Rock Hall, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Laura M., to Mr. George W. Ottinger, on Thursday morning, October the 22, 1903 at 8 o'clock A. M.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheppard are entertaining relatives from Caroline county.

E. H. Brown, near Seaford, has just picked a crate of second crop strawberries from his patch.

There were no services in the Reho-both M. P. Church last Sunday, owing to the preacher not making his appearance.

Mrs. Bessie Vaughn and daughter, of Middletown, was the guest on Monday and Tuesday of her brother, Mr. Stephen Boyer, near town.

Rev. J. A. Prettyman, of Galena, preached to a large congregation a most eloquent sermon on Sunday last, in the old historic M. E. Church at Sassafras.

Owing to ill health, Mr. Stephen Boyer will discontinue farming. He has rented his farm. His sale of personal property took place last Wednesday and was largely attended.

The oyster and poultry supper, under the auspices of the Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held in the town hall on Thursday, October 29th, instead of the 24th, as stated previously. The tournament at Galena on the 24th was the cause of the change of date.

Mr. Augustus Dreka, our oldest inhabitant here, left via boat from Georgetown Tuesday enroute for DeLand, Florida, where he will remain until spring with his son, A. George Dreka. He will visit his daughter, Mrs. Hiekoft, in Washington, for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston entertained on Sunday last most royally their sons and daughters and grandchildren: Mr. and Mrs. C. Stephens, of Blackiston's X Roads, and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Atwell and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and children, Mr. Robert Johnston and three children, Mrs. Rachel Stradley and two children, Mrs. Charles Fillengame, their niece and little girl. A most enjoyable day was spent.

Bishop Leighton Coleman, of the Episcopal Diocese of Delaware, returned home late Sunday night from his annual vacation pedestrian tour. He spent nearly two weeks tramping incognito through the mountains of Virginia and North Carolina. Not once during his trip was he recognized. The Bishop wore coarse and heavy clothing, wide-brimmed black hat and long linen duster and carried a heavy staff. He went by train to a place in Virginia and then struck out on his tramp, going about 200 miles on foot.
