SUCCESSORS TO R. BERGEN.

SUICIDE AT ROCKVILLE.

Edward W. England Shoots Himself in the Head.

Rockville, Md., Oct 4. — Edward W. England, deputy clerk in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court at this place, and a young man of acquaintance throughout this county and elsewhere, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting himself in the head with a revolver.

The distressing affair took place shortly after 4 o'clock in the young man's bedroom at the home of his father, John G. England, one of the county's foremost citizens, death resulting about an hour after the shot was fired.

Young England had not been in good health for several months and recently, it is said, he worried much over other matters. It is believed that his mind finally became unbalanced and that he was irresponsible at the time the act was committed.

Young England was about 20 years of age and unmarried. He was born and reared in Rockville and enjoyed the esteem and friendship of the people of the community generally. His parents and and several sisters and brothers survive him. Mrs. Wm. T. Brown, of near Pomona, is a sister of Mr. England and did not hear of his sad end until Monday. Another sister, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Brown in Kent, left for home Monday afternoon.

CHURCH ITEMS.

Rally Day at Christ Church—Large Attendance—Delegates to Conference, Etc.

Sunday was "Rally Day" at Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, and an enjoyable program was presented. The feature in the afternoon was the roll-call of teachers who replied with a verse of scripture, stated the number of scholars on roll and number present, next came a processional by the infant class under leadership of Mrs. A. M. Bowers and Miss Marion Lusby. A beautiful souvenir was given each one present.

The Junior Endeavor Society under Mrs. H. S. Barnett's leadership held a successful rally service. At 6.45 P. M. the Christian Workers held a live song service. This was followed by preaching service, Rev. D. L. Greenfield presenting a remarkably strong sermon on "Comfort for the Bereaved."

Rev. Dr. Martin addressed a large congregation in Emmanuel Church Sunday morning, his theme being "Consolation." He was unable to fill his pulpit at night because of sickness.

The next conference of the M. E. Church will be held at Dover and will be largely made up of lay-delegates. The Chestertown congregation on Friday evening elected Mr. James Brice to represent them and Mr. Joel R. Clements alternate. Mr. Brice is also favorably spoken of as delegate to the General Conference which meets next May in Los Angeles, Cal.

Miss Fannie E. Stuart, of Chestertown, will read a paper before the Easton District Epworth League Convention to be held in Odessa the latter part of this month.

Rev. J. Franklin Bryan, Ph. D., of Dover, delivered a sermon on "Autumn Leaves" in Dover last Sunday which called forth the approbation of a large audience.

ONE FOR DELAWARE.

Washingtos College of Chestertown Defeated in the Opening Game of Foot Ball of the Season by a Score of 27 to 0.

Delaware College successfully opened its foot ball season on Saturday when it defeated Washington College of Chestertown by the score of 27 to 0. The score was exactly the same as in the opening game of last season when Delaware downed Washington College.

The Delaware players were a little heavier than the Marylanders, but not enough to make such a difference in the result. Most of the scoring was done in the last half, but one touch-down and goal being counted in the first. Delaware played too high in the line in the first half, and Garey, Hitch and Crew hit the line for good gains.

Washington kicked off, and Delaware was unable to advance the ball to any extent, so kicked. The visitors gained considerably, but finally was forced to punt. Delaware then steadily carried the ball up the field until Bevan was sent over the line for the first score. Lawton kicked the goal. During the remainder of the first half the ball was going to and fro, but remained in Washington's territory the greater part of the time. Score: Delaware,6; Washington,0.

In the second half quicker charging and faster playing all around told to Delaware's advantage. Delaware kicked off, and Washington was soon forced to kick on downs, and by line plunges and long end runs, Delaware soon scored Lawson carrying the ball over the line and Lawton kicking the goal. The visitors kicked off again, and Delaware scored once more. Twice again the same thing happened before time was called. Delaware played an all around good game and the players showed the effect of the practice work which they have been put through. The score

Garey who was the object of assault by the visitors was put out of the game suffering a fracture of the rib, while Hitch was knocked unconscious but not seriously injured.

OTHER COLLEGE NOTES.

The Senior class, although few in number will be well represented in the next election at the polls. Three of them, Messrs. Garey, Tyler, and Smith have taken trips home to register and will be ready to cast their ballots on election day.

Mr. Howard was the first this year to appear on the chapel stage to deliver a monthly declamation before the student body and faculty. His declamation was a very appropriate humorous selection entitled "Speaking in Chapel," and composed by himself. The Freshmen will soon also appear on the stage, and the older students are anticipating some amusing scenes on that occasion.

Famous Designers of Both Continents.

When you think of the new autumn Costume, Suit or Wrap, think of Hochschild, Kohn & Co.—and turn thought into action.

In buying ready to wear garments you know exactly how you are going to look in them. When you order from tailor, you take chances in this way: You may think you will look well in a corset coat, and so order one; after it is complete you may see that what really becomes you is a long skirted blouse; then disappointment is in store for you.

Come and look at our exhibit. Try on a dozen different styles, if you wish. Choose a becoming one—the salesfolks are ready to advise rightly, if you are undecided because of the number you'll see that look well.

These are especially good to buy—they are all economically priced—

Women's Suits

Women's Tailored Suits of good quality chevoit, zibeline and mannish mixtures Long coat, with straight or blouse front; lined with satin. Skirt has seven or nine-gore flare. Full $20 value. $15.00.

Suits for Misses of 14, 16 and 18 years. Of all wool tweeds and English mixtures. Long coat, collarless trimmed with stitched bands of plain cloth; with belt. Skirt has 7-gore flare. $15 sort at $10 00.

Women's Suits

Women's Tailored Suits of all wool mixtures and plain blue and black cheviot. Three-quarter length coat, with 16 seams; corset effect; lined with taffeta silk. Skirt with nine gores and French seams. $21.50. Worth $30.00.

Walking Skirts

Women's Walking Skirts of all wool mannish mixtures; with stylish 9 gore flare; tailor stitching around the foot; all seams are french finished. Would be considered good value at $5.00. Specially priced at $3.98.

The Trimmed Hats at $5.00.

See the $7 50 to $12.00 Trimmed Hats of average stores—then come here and get as good, or better, for $5.00.

Some styles are adapted from the best of Paris—the fashions of the French capital are not safe to follow exactly; others are copies of successful New York productions: still others—the real gems of the collection—are from our own work-rooms.

Baltimore has never seen so vast a display of trimmed hats at one price—$5.00. Nor have we shown such beautiful, refined hats at $5.00 as are here now.

Dress Fabrics and Silks

Exclusiveness marks our display of Dress Fabrics and Silks. That good judgment and discrimination have been exercised in the selection of these stocks is evidenced by the favor with which tasteful women regard them, as proved by liberal buying.

By reason of business circumstances that worked to our advantage, we are able to offer some pronounced bargains in high-grade goods—

$1.25 All Wool Check Suitings, 58 inches wide, 69c.
$1.50 Imported Black Imperial Serge, 48 inches wide, $1 00.

Abe Cohen

HAS just returned from the Holidays. He was quite surprised to see that his store was ransacked from cellar to garret, but the burglars found everything marked down so low they were ashamed to steal anything. They came back shortly and bought lots of his Woolen and Cotton Goods, which he purchased at last year's prices, consequently the advance in these goods didn't have the slightest effect on his low prices. A glance at his new store will convince the public that good stuff and low prices will succeed.

We also handle a full line of FURNITURE, and we can save you money on anything you buy.
