DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Emily B. Usilton, widow of the late Sam'l S. Usilton, died at the home of Mr. Wm. J. Elliott, Chestertown, last Saturday morning, after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 70 years. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. D. L. Greenfield; interment in Union cemetery, Worton. Members of the M. P. choir rendered several selections. The pall-bearers were the four nephews of the deceased—Messrs M. M. Robey, P. B. and George Rasin—J. W. Elliott and M. A. Toulson The deceased is survived by one son, Mr. Frank Usilton, of Wilmington, Del. She was a good woman who died in the christian faith, and whose works were always for the best welfare of her fellows. "She has gone to be with Christ, which is far better," is the epitaph we would place upon her tomb. Undertaker J. N. Dodd had charge of funeral.

Mrs. Anna R. Harris, after a lingering illness of consumption, died at the home of her husband, Mr. William H. Harris, in Chestertown, Friday night, aged 50 years. She leaves six children. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. D. L Greenfield; interment in Chester cemetery. The M. E. Church choir sang several selections at the home and grave. The following were pall-bearers: W. E. Ringgold, W. C. Peregoy, M. A. Toulson, Wm. B. Coleman, J. B. McIntyre, J. L. Smyth. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral.

The 13-months-old boy of P. B. Hopper, Esq., of Centreville, the apple of his eye and pride of his heart, died last Wednesday morning at about 11 o'clock. Mr. Hopper has the sympathy of the county in his bereavement.

Mrs. John B. Brown died in Centreville last Tuesday.

Beauties.—Mr. A. L. Wilson, Piney Neck, sustains his reputation for raising fine Keiffers. He brought a basketful to town this week and there were but nineteen in it! They were not only large but fine colored and mellow. Mr. Wilson has won a number of State premiums.

State vs. Wesley Smith, col'd, charged with carrying concealed weapons; tried before Court, convicted and sentenced to six months in House of Correction.

Grand Jury returned true bills against Walter Milligan for larceny; Hayward Middleton and Charles Jackson for violating local option law; J. Merritt Miller, Charles Jackson and Charles Diggs for larceny.

The Grand Jury adjourned after being in session but three days. They recommended that the Court call the attention of the Pennsylvania railroad officials to the inconvenience caused the public by trains remaining so long on public crossings.

THURSDAY,

State vs. Charles Johnson, colored, charged with selling liquor; verdict guilty, and sentenced to House of Correction for twelve months or pay a fine of $100.

Robert H. Latham was convicted of carrying concealed weapons and was sentenced te the House of Correction for 12 months.

State vs. Fannie Mitchell, charged with perjury; jury was out all night and returned without a verdict. It is said they stood 8 for acquittal and 4 for conviction. She will be tried at the next term of court.

The case of W. H. Bowers, for possession of land, was removed to Centreville.

Charles Diggs, colored, was convicted of larceny of bicycle tire and sentenced to 12 months in House of Correction.

Wm. White, colored, was convicted of stealing a half bushel of corn and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

James Mitchell, colored boy, was convicted of assault and placed in care of his uncle.

The case of State vs. Kelley, which has been continued for nine terms of court, was continued to the next term on account of the absence of Detective Smart, of Baltimore.

FRIDAY.

Hayward Middleton, of Rock Hall, was tried for selling intoxicating liquor; he was convicted in two cases, the sentence in each being a fine of $250 and costs, and in default of payment to be confined for 12 months in House of Correction.

Chas. Jackson was acquitted on the charge of stealing a boat.

The petit jury was discharged yesterday and Court will most likely adjourn today.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Hon. Isidor Raynor and W. S. Bryan, Jr., were guests of Hope H. Barroll, Esq., and wife Monday night. Messrs. Warfield and Atkinson stopped at the Pippin House.

Mr. Isaac Groome, of Petersburg, W. Va., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith. Mr. Groome formerly lived in Chestertown, but left here fifty years ago! His description of the town at that time is truly interesting. He first asked for the Eccleston wall and went to look for it, but found the handsome home of Mr. S. Vannort and enclosure. He looked for the old engine house, but found the beautiful square, etc. He has been through much suffering since he lived here. Some years ago one of his daughters fatally shot her sister by accident, and while he was hastening home his wagon broke down, threw him out and crippled him for life! He has not been able to find a single acquaintance as yet.

Mr. Henry S. DeFord, the Cannon street carriage man, attended the Carriage Dealers' Convention in Philadelphia last week.

Mrs. H. S. Barnett is visiting friends in Delaware

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Strong are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Rev. J. T. McSweeney, of Delaware ty, spent several days here this week.

Mr. J. Herman Ireland has been elected vice-president of the underwriters Association of America. A good likeness of this Kent countian appeared in the Baltimore papers last week.

Mrs. Wickham, nee Miss Ella Crouch, and daughter, of Baltimore have been guests this week of Mrs. John Brice on Washington Avenue.

'Squire D. U. Dewees, of Brenford, was a visitor to Chestertown this week.

He has been buying pears this fall, paying from 20 to 30 cents per basket. He has shipped about ten carloads.

Wm. W. Dewees, Esq., of the Caroline bar, was in court on business Tuesday.

Mr. H. Staunton Brown, of New York and Mr. Burchinal Brown, of Wilmington, have been guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Brown.

Mrs. Araminta Burke has been on a visit for several weeks to friends in Wilmington.

Capt. J. W. Anthony was accompanied to the Marine Hospital on Thursday by Dr. H. G. Simpers. Capt. Anthony has been a sufferer from stomach trouble for some months, and it is hoped that he will find relief at this hospital.

Mr. Howard Dodd has accepted a position in a wholesale crockery house in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs Thomas W. Perkins returned on Thursday evening from their honeymoon trip.

Mrs. K. M. Bull has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Kennett Square, Nottingham and Freemont, Pa.

THE wedding of Miss Clara H. Redmile, of Kennedyville, to Mr. George Johnston, of Philadelphia, formerly of this county, took place in Still Pond on Wednesday evening. After the ceremony the couple left for Philadelphia via Ericsson line. The groom has a position in the city as conductor on the cars, and they will make their home at present with Mr. King. The wedding was a great surprise.

MR. VERNON BARNETT has sold his desirable house on High street to Mrs. Sarah A. Decorse, of Quaker Neck. Mr. and Mrs. Decorse will remove to Chestertown. Mr. Vernon Barnett has purchased a brick yard at Perryville and will remove to engage in business there.

DR. JAMES W. URIE was in Kent this week negotiating the sale of his elegant home in Still Pond to Dr. Messick. The price was $2,000. Dr. Urie has purchased a residence at 1513 Madison avenue, Baltimore.

A COLORED witness in a Still Pond assault case testified that he was "so mad he couldn't see" because he was asked if he was going to a "Dimmycrat primary."

BEDWORTH, JR., was brought home this week and placed in winter quarters at Mr. Bell's. His owner refused an offer of $6,500 for him last month.

THE colored population of Chester town will be well represented at the House of Correction this winter. It is a veritable winter resort for many.

IN nearly every instance the verdicts in the appeal cases at this term of court have confirmed the justices' sentences.

THE most practical crusade against the vices of gambling, drinking and cigarette smoking is coming not from the W. C. T. U., the Prohibition party or the churches, but from the employers of men who have need to be brainy, and to remain so. This crusade is not based on purely moral grounds, and is not accompanied with any waving of banners or blaring of trumpets. It simply announces in a very prosaic, yet very eloquent, circular that persons addicted to these vices are not wanted in places of responsibility.
