COME

again merchandise.

This is the sort of Stock we furnish to the trade, which accounts for the retention of old customers and a substantial increase year after year.

various Fall and Winter lines are about complete and ready for inspection and as usual you will find the up-to-date merchandise that has distinguished this house from the sweat shop dealers for the past fifteen years and landed us the credit of being the "Economist's" friend.

is the place where dollars work. We can sell you a Suit or Overcoat for $5.00 and you can depend upon it being the best that can be put together for the price.

BUT

we prefer selling better grades, for every fifty cents you can afford above five dollars is well invested; for here you get your 50c value received.

WE

have our clothes made just as we want them and

THEN

make our own advertisements to suit the various lines;

HENCE

when you read our clothes talk, you can depend upon it, as in the past that we have the goods and stand behind every statement we make concerning them.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The local canneries have been in operation this week.

When were the fire plugs and hose in Chestertown tested? Is the town prepared to fight fire?

Several college lots have been sold by Mr. A. M. Culp and the outlook is for one or more residences on the avenue at an early day.

Dan Miller a well-known local colored politician was thrown from his carriage on Chester bridge one night last week and suffered a fracture of his arm.

The town commissioners will remove their engine house to other quarters. A lot on Cannon street is under consideration.

An employe of the basket factory was given a "run" by his fellows Tuesday night. He took refuge in the Brick House Club and was as scared as a rabbit!

The "Romeo & Juliet Co.," showed in Stam's Hall Wednesday evening to about 250 people. The principal characters were professionals of a high order, the support was very strong, while the scenery was appropriate and skillfully arranged. It was decidedly the best company of actors ever in Chestertown.

The supper at Sacred Heart Church this week was largely attended and the menu comprised all the delicacies of the season which was well served. Father Curran was everywhere meeting friends and making all feel at home.

The entertainment next Friday evening promises to be a rare treat. This is the first musicale under the management of the young men of the town and they guarantee a program of good music.

CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. E. P. Roberts was absent from his pulpit Sunday being on a visit to his mother in Wicomico.

At the recent quarterly conference of the Easton' Md., M. E. Church, the Rev. Dr. C. A. Grise informed the official board that he believed the methodist itinerancy was served by a three-year time limit, and that he would ask the appointing powers to assign him elsewhere at the next conference. His announcement was a surprise. He has made many friends by his able administration in the Easton church and it is said that he will be asked for at Chestertown. The Easton congregation has asked for Dr. E. P. Roberts, of this town.

The Epworth League of Chestertown held its regular business meeting on Tuesday evening of last week. Officers: President, Mr. J. L. Smyth; Dept. of Spirituality, Miss Emma F. Davis; Dept. of Evangelism, Rev. E. P. Roberts; Dep. of Mercy & Help, Mrs. R. F Parks; Dept. of Literary and Entertainment, Miss B. Burchinal; Secretary, Kemp Bordley; Treasurer, Miss Ethel Coleman. Misses Hallie Toulson and S. Elizabeth Stuart were elected delegates and Mrs. R. F. Parks and Miss Maud Kemp, alternates to the District Convention to be held at Odessa Oct. 28-29th.

Revival meetings will be held in the M. E. Church South, Chesterville, commencing October 25th. The meetings will be conducted by the Rev. H. M. Strickler, I. Ryder and others. The public are cordially invited to attend.

On October 14 the Rev. William A. Cole was kind enough to hold a "quiet day" in Christ Church, I. U., at the request of its Father Martin branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. The order of the day was Holy Communion at 10.30, with address; litany at 12, with address; evensong at 8, with address. Hearty singing of hymns was a feature of the day. Subjects of addresses were "Motives for working for God," "The work itself" and "Reward for such work." The instruction offered was plain and to the point, the exhortations deep and moving. This meeting was well attended. The Rev. Mr. Coale has consented to give a mission at St. Paul's in the spring Revival services have been discontinued at Lynchs until Sunday afternoon, when extra services will be held. There have been four converts.

Mr. Alfred C. Loud has been elected as delegate to conference from Bond church and Mr. S. W. Brown alternate.

Farm sold.—Dr. W. H. Jacobs, of Millington, Kent county, has purchased the Edward C. Coppage farm, near the Delaware line, in the upper part of Queen Annes county. Dr. Jacobs was in town Friday, ready to settle, but was disappointed, as the principals did not put in an appearance to give title. The price to be paid is private.

Harmony, beautiful harmony, our republican friends have in their midst. Even Mr. Williams couldn't get Frank Wachter on the same platform with McComas. Wachter said some things about McComas too when he got the invitation.
