HUNG WITH SUSPENDERS!

James Thompson, A Prisoner From Melitota, Ends His Life In Penitentiary—Haunted By Fear Of Lynching.

Haunted by the hallucination that a mob was after him to lynch him for a crime committed six years ago, James Thompson, colored, 34 years old, who was serving a term in the Maryland Penitentiary for the murder of his step son, William Hynson, in Kent county, in 1897, committed suicide in his cell at the institution Monday morning by hanging himself with a pair of suspenders. Thompson was a model prisoner until Sunday, when he went violently insane.

The crime was committed November 28, 1897, and Thompson was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to 18 years in the penitentiary. He was received at the institution May 4, 1898, and Warden Weyler says of him that he was one of the best-behaved and most obedient of all the colored prisoners. Nothing unusual in his demeanor was noticed until Sunday morning, when he startled the guards and other convicts on his tier by loud shrieks.

On going to his cell to learn the cause of the uproar the guards found Thompson crouching in a corner of the cell and begging to be saved from an imaginary mob which he said was after him to lynch him for the crime he committed. With much difficulty the man was quieted, and Warden Weyler at once had him removed to another cell under the doctor's care.

Monday morning Dr. Theodore Cooke, Jr., physician of jail, made his daily tour about 8 o'clock and found Thompson quiet, but still mentally deranged. About half an hour after the Doctor left Thompson Mr. M. P. Hamil, second assistant warden, went to his cell to see how he was getting on and discovered the negro suspended from the barred door of the cell by his suspenders. Thompson had tied one end of the suspenders about his neck and the other end to an upper cross-bar. He had evidently stood on the bench in the cell while he made the suspenders fast to the door and then stepped off the bench.

The body was still warm when found by Mr. Hamil, and the negro had been dead only a few minutes. Every effort was made to resuscitate the man, but it was futile. Coroner Hayden, of the Central district, was notified, and after making an investigation decided an inquest unnecessary, as it was plainly a case of suicide.

The crime for which Thompson was committed took place at Melitota, a village about seven miles from Chestertown. Thompson and Lemuel Carter also colored, together with Hynson and Carter's daughter, were at a picnic, and the two older men became angered at something Hynson said to the Carter girl.

Thompson and Carter got a shotgun and returning to where Hynson was began to quarrel with him. The quarrel was terminated by Thompson shooting his step-son and killing him instantly. Both Thompson and Carter were arrested and convicted, although they averred that they acted in self-defense, and both were sent to the penitentiary. Carter died in prison April 20, 1899, of an abcess on the brain.

The body of the suicide was sent to the morgue, where it is held pending an effort to communicate with the dead man's mother, who is believed to live in Kent county.

Horses Lost.—Mr. Walter Taylor, near Hanesville, had two horses taken from field last Friday night. The horses were good work animals and he has missed them severely.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The little tots of West Hall have begun to feel quite at home, this is no doubt due to the motherly influence of the instructors in charge of that building. All they need is a little "tucking in" at night until they recover from the first attack of home sickness.

The rooms in Normal Hall are in great demand there are many more applicants than can be accommodated. This looks as though we need a new dormitory for the young ladies as well as the young men.

The first reception of the year was held in Normal Hall Friday evening, September 30th. All report a very delightful evening. Refreshments were served at 9.30

The prospects for a Glee and Mandolin Club are at present very bright. One passing by the college at any time night or day will be charmed by the picking of a mandolin or the crying of a violin.

The suits of the Varsity team have arrived and the full equipped men now indulge in daily practice.

On Saturday evening last, both the Adelphia and the Mt. Vernon Literary Societies elected officers. Those elected by the Adelphia were the following: President, Mr. Gill; Vice-President, Mr. Howard; Rec. Sec'y. Mr. Rasin; Treasurer, Mr. McMaster; Cor. Sec'y. Mr. Hopkins; Sergant at Arms, Mr. Tyler; Critic, Mr. Ward; Chaplin, Mr. Brittingham. The Mt. Vernon's elected the following: President, Mr. Coughlin; Vice-President, Mr. Toulson; Rec. Sec'y. Mr. Goslee, Treasurer, Mr. Sutton; Cor. Sec'y. Mr. Bryan; Sergant at Arms, Mr. Breeding; Historian, Mr. Hitch, E. F.; Critic, Mr. Morris.

Dr. Cain left on Wednesday to attend a meeting of the State Board of Education at Annapolis.

At a joint meeting of the students of the college and the students of the two higher Normal classes, a resolution was brought forward to the effect that a college monthly be published under the name of the "Washington Collegian" At a similar meeting held Thursday evening the following staff was elected: Editor in Chief, Mr. Howard; Associate Editors, Miss Griffin and Mr. Goslee; Business Manager, Mr. Robinson; Assistant Manager, Mr. Newton.

The first game of football this season which was to have been played today, (Saturday, October the 8th,) in Baltimore, will be played in Chestertown instead. The manager, Mr. Morris, received word from the manager of the University of Maryland team, stating that they desired to transfer the contest to our grounds and as the arrangement was satisfactory to our Athletic committee, we will have the pleasure of seeing the initial game.

Sheep Killed.—Saturday night, dogs killed eight or ten sheep belonging to Mr. W. E. Jarrell on his farm tenanted by Mr. Henry Chairs, near town. Mr. Jarrell also lost a fine steer some days ago from unknown causes. It is time the farmers of Kent united for protection from the worthless dogs that run at large all over the county.

WEDDING EVENTS.

Judge F. H. Harper, Of Still Pond, Surprises His Many Friends—Married In Baltimore.

The wedding of ex-Judge Franklin H. Harper, one of Still Pond's leading merchants and citizens, to Miss Laura J. Webb, a popular and accomplished resident of the same village, took place quietly in Baltimore Monday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. St. Clair Neal, of the Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, at he parsonage of the church, on Madison avenue, near Lafayette avenue. After the ceremony the bride and groom were given a reception at the home of Mr. James A. Webb, of 1605 Pennsylvania avenue, after which they took the train for a trip to Washington and other points. The News extends congratulations and best wishes.

A very pretty Autumn wedding was solemnized at the home of Judge Thos. J. Shallcross, Locust Grove, last Wednesday, when his daughter, Jeannette Gooding, became the bride of Dr. John Key Brown, of Wilmington, Delaware.

The house, closed and lighted for the occasion was elaborately decorated in holly, laurel, ferns, and goldin rod; while the large porch already nearly enclosed with growing vines, had vacant spaces filled leaving only an entrance open. Rugs, couches and cushions made an inviting retreat where those so inclined enjoyed the sweet October sunshine. Across one corner of the parlor was built an arch of evergreen and ferns supported on each side by columns on the top of which were candles; others were scattered among the decorations, and these together with large lamps, cast a pleasant glow upon the scene. Under this arch, the simple service of the Methodist Church was performed. Mrs. C. W. Prettyman, an aunt of the bride, presided at the piano; and precisely at 12 o'clock, to strains of Mendelsohn's March, the ushers Messrs. Thomas W. and Sereck Shallcross, brothers of the bride, advanced towards the Rev. C. W. Prettyman who performed the ceremony. Immediately preceding the bridal couple came the dainty little flower maiden, Gertrude Somerille, who scattered in their pathway blossoms from her huge bouquet of pink carnations. The bride was attired in a gown of white grenadine over white silk en train, a veil and magnificent shower bouquet of bride roses completed the costume. After the ceremony breakfast was served and amid the loving wishes of friends gathered to honor the occasion, Dr. and Mrs. Brown left on the afternoon train for the exposition and other points of interest. Among the many beautiful presents, consisting principally of cut glass and silver ware, was a piano from the groom.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Thursday at high noon at "Riverside" the magnificent home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l L. Wright, on the Chester river, near Chestertown. Miss Belle Newell Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l L. Wright was the bride and Mr. Thos. C. Peterson, of Philadelphia, the groom. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, of Christ M. P. Church performed the ceremony. The mansion was splendidly decorated for the occasion. The bride was attired in white Paris muslin trimmed with real lace over white silk, and carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley and wore a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Fulon, of Camden, N. J., who wore pink organdy with pink carnations. Mr. Paul Brock, of Washington, D. C., was best man. The flower girls were Miss Grace Sheaper, niece of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Evans, niece of the groom. The matron of honor was Mrs. John M. Wright, of San Francisco. A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony by Weaver, of Balto. The presents were magnificent. Only members of the family received invitations to the wedding. The bridal party left on the afternoon train for a wedding trip and their friends gave them a big send off by decorating their trunk with all sorts of mottoes, etc.

A marriage licence was issued on Wednesday in Baltimore for the marriage of Mr. Claude J. Brown, of Jessup's, Md., and Miss Annie B. Ford, of Kent county.

Hugh Wallis, one of the efficient rural mail drivers of Worton and Miss Bertie Willis have decided to announce their wedding which took place at Worton Station on June 5, 1904, by Rev. Dr. J. B. Merritt.

Accidents.—Mr. Elmer Jarman, of near Chester bridge, met with a peculiar and painful accident last Saturday. He was helping his neighbor to start his stalled wagon and was at the front wheel while the driver sat on the load urging the horses with a long-lashed whip. It seems that instead of the horses getting the blow from the whip it fell upon Mr. Elmer Jarman and caused him to reel and fall as if shot. The lash struck the ball of his eye and and caused the blood to flow freely. Dr. Dudley, of Church Hill, was consulted and treated the wound which is doing nicely under his treatment.

Mr. Thomas Dixon, son of clerk of the Court James T. Dixon, dislocated his shoulder blade Wednesday while practising for foot ball on college campus.

Deputy Treasurer John Hadaway sprained his right ankle Sunday and was unable to be at his desk Monday but was on duty Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Ringgold, the youngest daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ringgold, while playing with her class mates on the school campus last Friday afternoon, during recess, collided with one of the girls and broke her left collar bone. This is the second time that she has been so unfortunate as to break her collar-bone. Dr. H. Benge Simmons set the fractured member.
