DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING at WORTON STATION

A DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING will be held at Sheets & Gears Hall, tonight,

SATURDAY, October 8, 1904,

The following speakers are expected to be present:

WILLIAM F. RUSSELL, ESQ.,
HOPE H. BARROLL, ESQ.,
REV. HENRY K. MILLER.

J. DUYER, Chairman.

NEXT Tuesday is the last day of registration. Don't fail to get your transfer if you have moved and ask your neighbor if he is on the books.

GENERAL VICTOR BAUGHMAN has announced his ambition to be Governor of this State. This is a very worthy ideal and the people of Maryland could not select a better man. He is a Democrat all the time, through rain and through sunshine, and has always done valiant service for the ticket.

IF any of our Democratic friends have an idea that the Republicans are doing nothing, they are deceiving themselves From one end of Kent to the other the white leaders are getting the voters into line, forming schools and teaching them how to vote. S. P. Townshend, Esq., represented Kent in the Republican caucus at Easton last week and he came back with the cheering news that Jackson was going to give them all the money that was required! Is there a white man in Kent county who will allow himself to be bought to support the men who will deprive him of representation?

HON. HENRY G. DAVIS, the Democratic nominee for the Vice Presidency, will be in Baltimore Monday, October 10th, to meet the people of Maryland. In the evening of that date will be held a Mass Meeting at "The Lyric", which we hope and believe will eclipse, in point of numbers, enthusiasm and influence, any political event of similar character ever held in this state. Mr. Davis will be accompanied by Ex-Governor David B. Hill, of New York, Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, Ex-Governor Wm. Pinkney Whyte and Senator Arthur P. Gorman, all of whom will address the meeting.

IT IS not often we hear of anyone relinquishing a $75,000 salary. But this is what President L. F. Loree did last Monday when he resigned as head of the great Rock Island railroad system. Mr. Loree was formerly the president of the B. & O. railroad with headquarters in Baltimore. He has a five year contract, however, and had only served nine months of it, so that he will continue for four years to get $75,000 per year and do nothing!

Why No Prohibition Nomination?

The question is being asked all over the First Congressional District: "Why has there been no Prohibition candidate for Congress nominated this fall?" Two years ago, when there was an effort made by some of the prohibition friends of the Hon. James E. Ellegood to have his candidacy endorsed by the Prohibition Convention, the proposition was turned down, and a straight party nomination made by the convention. Who is responsible for this omission?

THE "readjustment" at the Joliet plant of the United States Steel Corporation has resulted in a sensational and unprecedented reduction of wages. Nearly all of the 4000 men employed at the big plant are affected, and in many cases the decrease amounts to 50 per cent. Our Republican friends call this prosperity. So it is for the Trust, but how about the wage earner?

HENRY C. PAYNE, postmaster general of the United States, died at 6.10 o'clock Tuesday evening at his apartments in the annex to the Arlington Hotel. That he would die had been a foregone conclusion for the past two days, and the wonder of it was that he lived as long as he did. His successor will likely be Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican national committee, but he will serve only a short time as the next administration will be Democratic.

CARL SCHURZ one of the greatest writers in this country has declared for Judge Parker and in his letter says: "The President was the loudest of reformers. . . . No sooner does he get into positions of power than he acts very much like other people in trading with the bosses and the machines.

Mr. Roosevelt has been led to not only abandon, but to positively oppose and denounce the policy which of all policies proposed would be surest to hurt the trusts in their really vulnerable point. And he covers this surrender with argument that looks like subterfuge."

THE Republican cause must be desperate indeed when lies are made out of the whole cloth and spread broadcast this early in the game. Last week the Republican newspapers on the Shore were furnished with a plate matter article purporting to be an interview with some reputable citizens of Judge Parker's home town, in which he is made to appear as the foe of the working man. The interview says that Judge Parker said a dollar a day was enough for any working man. The men who were quoted as having heard Judge Parker make this and similar remarks have issued a sworn statement in which they say that no such conversation ever took place, and that Judge Parker never made any of the statements attributed to him. On the other hand one of the men, who is a Republican and denies the whole article as a lie, says he knows that Judge Parker has always paid the prevailing rate of wages without question or kick. He is indignant that he should be used in the manner the Republican campaigners have done, and as a result will cast his vote for Parker and Davis. Another lie is nailed! Next!!

A Great Meeting in Baltimore.

An audience that filled the Lyric in Baltimore in every part and remained seated and standing for three hours, heard the issues of the campaign presented Tuesday night by speakers competent to peform this duty. It was the first big democratic mass meeting held in this state, and if those to follow are to be judged by this there will be nothing apathetic about the campaign in Maryland.

Not in recent years has there been such an awakening. From the moment the band began business until the last word was spoken enthusiasm was rampant, and even when it was all over many, loath to leave, remained seated, hoping for more "flow of reason."

The scene in the galleries was very different from that witnessed several weeks ago when the republicans held forth in the same hall. Then the blacks had the right of way and the ladies were obliged to accept what was left. The south gallery was dark as Erebus, while the western tier was very much mixed. Tuesday night the ladies were given the preference, and instead of a storm cloud overhanging the auditorium there was an illumination. In the boxes there were seated the families of the speakers and other notables who took a leading part in the exercises, while the stage was given up to the fortunate possessors of tickets.

Using Tuesday night's meeting as the pulse of the white people of this community, there is no question which issue is uppermost in their minds. There may be a good deal said to the contrary, but in Maryland, at least, the negro issue has a strong hold upon the people. Every suggestion from the speakers that the races be separated by a distinct line politically as well as socially was greeted with applause of the wildest kind. Mr. Rayner said President Roosevelt's efforts to bring the two in close contact on equal terms, and his apparent belief that equality would be an established fact one of these days, was the "dream of a dreamer." The crowd seemed to think so, too.

Governor Warfield made one of the best speaches of his life while Senator Rayner and Senator Culberson made fine addresses.

NEGRO FOR CONGRESS.

George L. Knox to Run Independently Against Representative Overstreet.

Indianapolis, Ind., September 24.

Geo. L. Knox, editor and proprietor of the Freeman, the organ of the negroes of this State, announced today, after having the matter under consideration for a week, that he would be an independent Republican candidate for Congress in this district. Petitions are in circulation to have his name placed on ballot. The required 200 signatures were gotten in a few hours and now the number has increased to nearly 500.

Knox has twice been an alternate to Republican national conventions. With the single exception of Booker T. Washington Knox is probably the best known negro in the Northwest. There are about six thousand negro voters in this Congressional district, and Knox will poll a large majority of this vote. His candidacy will injuriously effect Representative Overstreet's chances.

MURDER OF CARRIE FORD!

Carrie Ford, a colored girl of Chestertown, was murdered in Wilmington by Jesse Hinton, also colored, about 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, in a second-story room in the home of William Richardson, colored, at No. 2000 West Second street. Hinton arrived in Wilmington on July 4 with the Layton Carnival Company, with whom he traveled as a professional "snake-eater." Since then he and the Ford girl had been intimate.

Hinton was jealous of her and several times had threatened to kill her if she spoke to other men. Only a few days ago he placed a pistol at her breast and said he would shoot her if he saw her with other men. Hinton and the girl were together in a room in the Richardson home, but Joseph Richardson, who was on the same floor, says he did not hear any shot fired. The first he knew of the shooting was when Hinton called downstairs, "Miss Mary, come up here, I've shot Carrie."

Hinton then dashed into the street and ran to the Ford girl's home at Sixth and duPont streets and told the girl's parents of the shooting. Hinton then fled, the last place he was seen being near Horse Show Park. It is believed that he boarded a freight train on the B. and O. railroad and left the city.

Persons in the Richardson home found the Ford girl breathing her last when they rushed upstairs after Hinton left. She had a bullet wound through the breast that probably penetrated her heart. A razor lay nearby. The police were not notified of the murder until nearly half an hour after it was committted. The body was brought to Chestertown and interred under Undertaker Ferguson's direction Wednesday.

LONG GASH IN HIS THROAT.

Rev. George W. Feelemeyer Nearly Severs Jugular Vein—Relative to Kent Countians.

Rev. George W. Feelemeyer, until his retirement, about 15 years ago, one of the leading Methodist ministers in Baltimore and State, was found by his niece in his bedroom at his home, 3003 Frisby street, Waverly, Sunday morning about 9.30 o'clock with a deep gash in his throat on the left side within a hairsbreadth of his jugular vein. It is thought that he will recover.

Miss Effie Sanford, his niece, thinks that the wound was accidentally inflicted by the aged divine while he was shaving, but the police are of the opinion that, acting under an hallucination, he was for a moment seized with a desire to end his life. When asked by the physicians at the City Hospital why and how he cut himself Rev. Mr. Feelemeyer replied that he did not know. He would not say that it was accidental.

Rev. Mr. Feelemyer was known among his neighbors and numerous friends as a deep thinker and a constant reader. Until the death of his son, Dr. William Feelemeyer, about six years ago, his faculties were as clear as when he was a young. But since November, 1901, when his wife died, he has suffered with temporary nervous spells and occasional melancholia, it is said.

His wife was a sister of Capt. Sam'l Copper, of Kent, and Mrs. C. J. Reiche, Mrs. Wm. J. Hudson, of Chestertown, are also relatives.

Drowned.—John W. Johnson, colored, of Baltimore, was drowned off Green Point one day last week. He was a sailor on a vessel carrying tomatoes out of Worton Creek and while his vessel was at anchor decided to take a sail in the small bateau. By some means the boat was capsized and Johnson was drowned. The body was sent to Baltimore, but returned to Kent in order to have an inquest held.

—"CAN'T"—

"Can't" is the word of the weak of the sluggish, as we oftenest meet in. "I can't" has strewn the shores of the sea of life with wrecks innumerable; has been the great stumbling block over which even the strongest have fallen.

Yet, in many of the things that affect life, "Can't" can be made a helping word—a strong staff on which to lean.

For example:

I can't shop comfortably in any store but Hochschild, Kohn & Co's. There's an atmosphere—a something—about that store that I like.

I can't do as well in any store in Baltimore as I can at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s.

I can't be as certain that styles are right—that a hat or gown is fashionable—anywhere else as I can be at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s.

I can't stay away from Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s—that's all there is to it. I can practically put myself into the salespeople's hands there, and be satisfied.

I dan't find fault with a single method in use at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s. Their money-back-if you-want-it saying is lived right up to.

Baltimore's Best Store is always Baltimore's Best Store.

MARION DEK. SMITH, Attorney.

Order of Publication.

Marion deK. Smith, Admr., of Sarah Chaney, deceased, vs.
Edward Chaney and Maggie Chaney, his wife, and Lemuel Blake.

In the Circuit Court for Kent Co in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain property in Kent county in this State which was mortgaged by a certain Thomas Chaney to a certain Sarah Chaney.

The Bill states that on or about the 2nd day of November 1865 a certain Thomas Chaney, now deceased, conveyed certain real estate, which is particularly described in said ded. unto a Sarah Chaney, now deceased, by way of mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Four Hundred Dollars, which was then due and owing by the said Thomas Chaney to said Sarah Chaney, payable two years after date with interest thereon.

That said Thomas Chaney died on or about the year 1902, intestate, leaving the said Edward Chaney and Addie Chaney, his children, and said Lemuel Blake, his grandson, his only heirs at law.

That the said Edward Chaney and Maggie Chaney, his wife and Addie Chaney are non-residents.

That the whole of the said sum of Four Hundred Dollars and all interest thereon still remains due and owing by the said Thos. Chaney to said Sarah Chaney.

That said Sarah Chaney died about 1892, and the Orphan's Court for Kent county, Maryland, has granted letters of administration on her estate unto Marion deK. Smith.

It is thereupon this 9th day of September, 1904, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent County once in each of four successive weeks, before the 19th day of October, 1904, give notice to said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 4th day of November, 1904, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
