Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful, I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, MRS. MAY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." (Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried travelling saleswomen in the West.)—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

What Jackson Stands For.

The Republican national platform favors reduction of the representatives in Congress and the electoral vote of the Southern States, which have by constitutional provision eliminated a large part of the negro vote. The Republican press and orators are more bold than the Republican platform in proclaiming their purpose to make the reduction.

Wm. H. Jackson, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, was nominated on a platform indorsing the national platform, and accepted the nomination with full knowledge of its declarations. He is, therefore, committed to a reduction of the representation in Congress from the South and of the electoral votes of the Southern States.

Will any Democrat vote for a candidate for Congress upon such a platform?

Mr. Jackson believes in a high protective tariff—a tariff that fosters trusts, which have grown strong enough to crush labor unions and fix the price of labor to suit themselves—a tariff that enables the few to lay the many under tribute.

Will any Democrat vote for a candidate to such doctrine?

Mr. Jackson is pledged to support the shipsubsidy scheme, which provides for taking money out of the United States treasury to give to the ship trust

Does any Democrat favor such a scheme?

Mr. Jackson was nominated upon a platform that endorses the acts of the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations and promises a continuation of the same. This means that Mr. Jackson favors the holding of unwilling peoples as subjects; forcible expansion of territory; imperialism and a colonial policy; the support given a clique in Panama, who set up a separate government; intermedding in foreign policies the maintenance of a large army in time of peace, and continual expansion of the navy until all powers are outstripped; in short he endorses all that has been done by the Republican party for pass seven years and favors a continuation of its policies and practices.

Will any Democrat vote for Mr. Jackson?

Will any peace-loving, conservative or business man vote for Roosevelt, to continue his usurpation of power, his big stick policy, his inclination to intermeddle in foreign controversies, his favoritism to friends and oppression to others, and vote for Mr. Jackson to sustain him?

JUDGE PARKER WILL WIN

In a speach made before Tammany Hall in New York recently Representative Wm. Sulzer said in part: "Judge Parker will win. In my opinion we will easily carry the State of New York. Everywhere I go I find public sentiment in favor of the brilliant New York jurist. He is popular with all classes of people, and I have no doubt he will be the next President. The Democrats are united and enthusiastic this year. They are alive to the task before them to wrest control of the country from the Republicans, and are working with vim, confidence and determination for a sweeping Democratic victory.

"The Empire State is safe for Democracy, and we will carry all the other doubtful States. The people know Judge Parker is an honest, an upright, an able and fearless man, a great jurist—and a Democrat through and through. The more the people know about Judge Parker the more they like him. He is growing stronger with the voters every day."

General Convention of P. E. Church.—The general convention of Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States is meeting in Boston, Mass., the present week. The General Convention is the highest legislative body of the church. It meets once in three years. It is made up of two houses—the House of Bishops and the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies. Every Bishop is a member of the house of Bishops by virtue of office. The deputies are elected by the Diocese. Each Diocese in the country sends four Clergymen and four Laymen to represent in the General Convention. The General Convention corresponds to the Congress of the United States. It legislates for the Episcopal Church in every State, Territory and possession of the United States, and also for the Missions of the Church in foreign field. This Convention will legislate not only for the Church in the United States but also in Alaska, Hawaii, Brazil, Porto Rico, Cuba, Hayti, China, Japan, Africa, Bishops and delegates from all these will attend the Convention. It is the one ecclesiastical body in the country which legislates for precisely the same geographical area covered by the legislation of Congress; but it also covers missions in foreign lands. The Clerical deputies from the Diocese of Easton are Rev. E. R. Rich, Rev. D. Gibs. Truitt, Rev. F. B. Atkins, Rev. W. Y. Beaven.

The Lay deputies are Col. W. Hopper Gibson, of this county, Dr. W. Frank Hines, of Kent county, J. G. Kerbin, of Worcester county and Hon. Chas. F. Holland, of Wicomico.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers. The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ROCHELLE, GA., Jan. 30, 1902.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 20 per cent. better.
