F. H. HARPER & SON,

STILL POND, ... MARYLAND.

Rock Hall Notes.

Rev. Warren Burr was quite sick last week. Rev. Mr. Conoway, of Piney Neck, officiated for him Sunday morning and Rev. Jas. Downey at night.

Rev. J. W. Talley, who has been given a few weeks vacation by his congregation, has been spending a portion of it here among his former parishioners much to their delight.

Rev. Mr. Downey conducted a highly enjoyable social meeting in the church here on Monday evening.

A new feature among the ladies is going to church hatless. It is a great improvement.

Don't forget the supper on the M. E. church lawn this evening.

A number of our purse net fishermen struck it rich last week. Had the G. O. P. a hand in ordering this, or is it because Parker is going to be the 27th.

The writer spent Monday, for the first time in two years, on Swan Point oyster bar. The reports we have heard about the condition of the bar were marvelous, but the half had not been told us. Never have we witnessed such a fine growth of spat on the old shells, and oysters are literally covered with young oysters. It looks like the biggest kind of a pity that the bars were disturbed until the first or middle of the current month.

The bottom of the oyster prices about fell out this week.

Contractor Downey is erecting a commodious house for Dr. Sharp on his farm for use of a tenant.

Mr. E. E. Leary has in his boom in Grey's Inn creek two saw logs literally covered with young oysters. If kept until they mature they would easily make 50 bushels to the log.

Mr. Chas. Smith tendered his daughter, Lillian Florence, a delightful party on Saturday, Oct. 1st, in honor of her 18th birthday. Various games were indulged in after which refreshments were served. She received many very pretty and useful presents. Among the number present were Mr. Chas. Smith and wife, Mr. Chas. Porter and wife, Misses Lizzie Saunders, Edith Ryan, Olive Mariner, Lillian Smith, Daisy Ryan, Sue Trimble, Essie Smith, Birdie Sewell, Bertha Jones, Clara Biggs, Reva and Marie Smith, Messrs. Nelson Rodney, Geo. Trimble, Leo Gale, William Menche, Elston Brown, Pearl Wheat, Albert Winchester, Elmer Jones, Irvin Ashley, Milton Dill, Frank Beck, Milton Maslin, Sam'l Brown, Wm. Webb.

EARLEVILLE NOTES.

We congratulate the KENT NEWS on its much improved appearance and convenient form.

Mrs. Sarah Spear was the guest of her daughter Mrs. H. F. Price one day recently.

Mrs. Jessie L. Stradley was entertained lately by her mother, Mrs. W. L. DuHamell.

Miss Mabel Allen is visiting friends in Trenton, New Jersey.

R. A. DuHamell was a Middletown visitor Monday.

The granary and all out buildings on the farm tenanted by Wm. Mathews were destroyed by fire last Tuesday, Origin of which unknown. It was a large fire, including 150 bushels of potatoes, all his hay and his threshing outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. DuHamell visited her brother Clayton Templeman Sunday.

Marian and Ellen the bright little daughters of Mr. H. F. Price, have returned home from a long visit to the home of their Aunt, Mrs. Finley Roberts, at Sudlersville.

Maxwell F. Woodall and family visited his sister, Mrs. Alice DuHamell last Sunday evening.

Mrs. John Taylor and Miss Mattie Taylor spent Wednesday with Mrs. James Bolton near Reybolds.

Miss Mary Brown has been the guest of Miss Blanche Matthew this week.

Mrs. James Bolton and Mrs. Thos. Creg spent Tuesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor.

Mrs. Al. Brown visited Mrs. Grace Bailey Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. DuHamell and Mary Geisinger spent part of this week the guest of Maxwell Woodall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fillingame and daughter Marion, spent Sunday with relatives in Chesapeake City.

Mrs. Bladen B. Craycroft spent the first of the week in Philadelphia on a shopping tour.

Mr. Wm. Knight, of Baltimore, visited his farms in this vicinity the past week.

Mrs. John Taylor visited relatives in Elkton last Saturday.

Mrs. Harry Jones entertained Mrs. Harry Hessey, of Philadelphia and Mrs. George Jones Monday.

Smyth; Prison and jail, Mrs. James Brice; Press work, Mrs. S. A. Hurlock; narcotics, Mrs. E. Shafer; Kindergarten, Mrs. S. L. Thomas; Legislation and petition, Mrs. H. B. Simmons.

Resolutions were passed commending the work of Chestertown Union in its effort to protect children from the use of tobacco and cigarrettes; also expressing appreciation of the cooperation of the Press, Church, Young People's Societies and the School; also thanking T. F. Garey, Jr., for lecturer and to the singers who furnished music; and to all who contributed to the success of the late convention thanks were extended.

Don't Flirt.—Frank W. Barnes, a Pennsylvania railroad brakeman, while waving his hands to girl acquaintances in the Columbia silk mill, lost his balance and fell under the train Saturday. The shrieks of the girls attracted the attention of the engineer, but when the train was stopped Barnes was dead, his head almost severed and his body mutilated. Now reader you should take this as a terrible warning and don't flirt especially when on a train or trolley car.
