IMPORTANT OYSTER DECISION.

Judge Edwin H. Brown, of Centreville, rendered an important opinion in the Circuit Court at Elkton, Saturday, regarding the Maryland oyster law. Last spring Capt. Houston W. Todd, of Dorchester county, was arrested by State officers at Chesapeake City aboard his schooner while en route from Maryland waters to the Delaware River via the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, for having in his possession unculled and undersized oysters. He was fined by the local magistrate at Chesapeake City, from which he took an appeal to the Circuit Court. The testimony before the court several days ago showed conclusively that the oysters found in Todd's possession had been taken from private beds or bars. The court reversed the decision of the Chesapeake City magistrate, and found Todd not guilty, on the ground that they could find nothing in the oyster culling law passed by the Maryland legislature in 1897 prohibiting undersized oysters being taken from private beds, etc.

THE STAM DRUG CO.

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me, I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use."—MRS. FLORENCE DANFORTH, 1007 Miles Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.

A medicine that has restored so many women to health and can produce proof of the fact must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which cannot be equalled by any other medicine the world has ever produced. Here is another case:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I was troubled with falling of the womb, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhœa, bearing-down pains, backache, headache, dizzy and fainting spells, and stomach trouble.

"I doctored for about five years but did not seem to improve. I began the use of your medicine, and have taken seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, three of Blood Purifier, and also used the Sanative Wash and Liver Pills, and am now enjoying good health, and have gained in flesh. I thank you very much for what you have done for me, and heartily recommend your medicine to all suffering women."—MISS EMMA SNYDER, 218 East Center St., Marion, Ohio.

"FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN."

Women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice as soon as any distressing symptoms appear. It is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence thus entrusted to her, and although she publishes thousands of testimonials from women who have been benefited by her advice and medicine, never in all her experience has she published such a letter without the full consent, and often by special request of the writer.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.
Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

HE STOOD THE TEST.

She looked up at him with fondly questioning eyes.

"How much do you love me?" she said.

Her lover paused in doubt. Words failed him for the moment. Finally he spoke.

"I love you," he said, "as much as Bryan loves to talk."

"That is a good deal," she replied, "but it is not enough."

"Then I love you as much as Carrie Nation likes to see her name in print."

"Very good, but"——

"I love you as much as Alfred Austin's poems are feeble."

"Splendid, but still not enough."

"I love you as much as Pierpont Morgan loves a railroad combination, as the Beef Trust loves its profits, as the theatrical syndicate clings to rotten plays"—

"You are getting very warm," she replied.

He raised his head proudly.

"I love you," he said, "as much as Theodore wants to be President"

And she fell into his arms with a loud cry.

"My darling," she exclaimed, "your love is indeed the real thing."

CASE DISMISSED.

No Evidence To Support Charges Against Dr. Rickards.

The case against Dr. H. N. Rickards, of Caroline county, on the charge of alleged malpractice was dismissed last Friday night by Justice Wm. E. Temple, of Ridgely. Dr. Rickards was arrested by the Queen Anne's county authorities, who claimed that they had evidence to secure his conviction in the case of Blanche Chance, of Chestertown. Justice Temple held Dr. Rickards, who was arrested on a train at Wilmington, Del., while en route to the St. Louis Exposition, for a hearing in order to give the Caroline grand jury an opportunity to investigate the case. This the jury did this week, but no evidence wae produced before that body, it is understood, connecting Dr. Rickards with the affair. The outcome is very gratifying to his friends, all of whom claimed that the arrest was unwarranted and that the Doctor was entirely innocent. He enjoys the reputation of being one of the most skillful physicians in this State and is a man of considerable means and enterprise and is interested in several business lines.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
for children; safe, sure. No opiates

In loving remembrance of Samuel F. Crew who fell asl eep 1 year ago today Aug 19, 1903

Just one year ago today
With aching hearts we watched beside his bed.
For we knew bef ore the sun would set
Our love one would be numbered with the dead.

Yes one sad year has passed away
Since from me he was bourne,
Yet! O God I miss him every hour,
And still for him we mourn.

In the grave yard sweetly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave.
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
One we tried so hard to save.

Farewell Papa, may your slumbers
Be as gentle as your love.
And when God will call us homeward,
May we meet in Heaven above.

By his wife and daughter.
