Three months have passed since the great conflagration which swept our town. Our people have shown wonderful grit and energy in cleaning up the debris and getting a start on the new foundations. Already several dwellings are completed and ready for occupancy. Mr. F. S. Bottomley expects to move into his fine new store and dwelling combined this week. A large number of workmen, under the direction of Mr. B. W. Duling, are rushing the work on the Bailey Hotel. They expect to have it ready to occupy in a month from now. When completed this will be one of the finest hotels in the county. Mr. Furniss and corps of brick masons are rushing work on the Catts store and dwelling to be occupied by Mr. T. A. Vansant. Mr. Ernest Radzewski has his new dwelling and store nearly completed. Messrs. Warner & Blair are putting up a frame building on the site of the old hardware store for Messrs. Feddeman & Collins. Mr. C. M. Hurtt has moved his temporary store on the Brane lot, and the foundations for his fine new store are under way. The masonry work on the bank building is finished and the carpenters are now putting the finishing touches on the inside. The store room and dwelling of Mr. S. W. Cole are completed and ready to occupy as soon as the plaster is dry. Mr. John Hurlock has his store room, next to Cole's, well under way; Mr. John Duling and workmen are hurrying the work. Mr. Leonard Wilson's new dwelling, the dwelling houses of Messrs. Richard Poore, George Harrington, W. C. Jones, George Davis, Eldridge Wilson, Comegys Clow and N. H. Clark are about ready to occupy. Mr. W. J. Porter and Mrs. Manning are occupying their new dwellings. Mr. J. D. Moore's new dwelling is nearing completion. Mr. J. H. M. Garner and corps of workmen, from Warwick, Md., have started work on a dwelling for Mr. J. E. Woodall on the lot next to his new barber shop. The dispute between the town commissioners and Mr. H. H. Beneman over taking some of the latter's land to widen the street, was settled Wednesday morning by a jury of 20 men. Their decision was to use the land and pay Mr. Beneman $5.00 for it.
