VOL. 66. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1904. NO. 21

Well Marked

Our Fall and Winter Clothing for Men, Boys and Children is in, and marked as usual—in plain figures. We open the line with much the same feeling of confidence that a fellow enjoys when he knows he has a good thing. We never thought that a suit could fit too well, nor look too nice, but they can cost too much and the selection can consume too much of your time. And while ready made clothing is immeasurably better than it use to be, we're spared no pains to get the best. Now is the time to get your FALL SUIT.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr Thomas Ashley died yesterday at his home in Rock Hall. He was one of the oldest citzens in that section being over 80 years of age. One son, William, survives him.

Miss Mary Francis Wilkins, daughter of the late Edward Wilkins, died Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Wickes, near Rock Hall, aged 49, after a short illness of Bright's disease. She was loved by all who knew her and her place in this home will be painfully felt. The funeral was held at St. Paul's Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. C. T. Denroche, interment in St. Paul's cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. Thomas and Eugene Smith, Elwood Strong, James Moffett, Albert Morrill and Henry Kimble, Washington; undertaker, John N. Dodd. The funeral was largely attended and floral tributes handsome and profuse requiring separate conveyances to the grave. The designs were made of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums.

Mary C. Moore died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Comley, near Locust Grove, on Tuesday morning of consumption, aged 70 years. Funeral took place from her late home on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. T. Smoot of Galena officiating. Interment in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

James Tilden Brice died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. George Moore, at Betterton on Monday night of Brights disease, aged 77 years, funeral services were held at his late home on Thursday morning at 9.30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Jones officiating. Interment in Still Pond cemetery. The pall-bearers were his four sons and two son-in-laws. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Undertaker Ferguson drove to Eddystone, on Wednesday to inter the body of the infant child of Rev. Mr. McCann and wife, of Pomona.

School Notes.—Miss Bessie Colbourn, of Baltimore, has been appointed as assistant teacher at Piney Neck school.

Miss Ida Wood has resigned as teacher of Skinner's Neck school to the regret of all the patrons. She has made a grand record and retires with the plaudits of "well done" from everyone. Her successor will likely be Miss Lillian Wilson.

SALE OF WESTERN HORSES.

Mr. Wm. Ralston sold a carload of western horses at Whiteley's stables, Chestertown, Tuesday, auctioneer Hurlock in charge. A large crowd was in attendance and the animals brought good prices. The bridling of the horses was an interesting sight Wednesday. Mr. Charles Willis had the end of his thumb bitten off by one of the animals and Mr. S. G. Maslin was slightly injured during a stampede. One of the "cowboys" attempted to ride one and was thrown cutting his head and otherwise receiving bruises. It was a good looking lot of horses. SHORT SESSION OF COURT.

Grand Jury Adjourned Last Wednesday—Cases Moved Elsewhere or Postponed.

The October Jury Term of the Circuit Court for Kent county convened in Chestertown Monday Chief Judge J. A. Pearce on the bench. Associate Judges Wm. R. Martin and Edwin H. Brown arrived at noon.

The other court officers were at their posts of duty as follows: Chief clerk Jas. T. Dixon; deputy clerk, Whittier C. Copper; state's attorney William W. Beck; sheriff, Lionel J. Keyser; deputy, Samuel Startt: court crier, John H. Greenwood; bailiff to grand jury, George C. Atkinson; court bailiffs, Chas. H. Hurlock and S. Q. Moody, court stenographer, John J. Hartnet.

Judge Pearce designated Mr. Alday Clements to be foreman of the Grand Jury, and other members of that body were drawn as follows:

D. James Hall, James G. Harris, W. Tilden Brice, Bartus Trew, John M. Conner, James E. Hurlock, James D. Kelley, Wm. E. Jarrell, Robert S. Crew, Edward W. Hepbron, H. Clay Hendrickson, Samuel F. Cooper, J. B. Hossinger, Clarence L. Turner, Benj. I. Taylor, Edw. E. Woodall, Samuel W. Brown, Bernard J. McCauley, Milton L. Maslin, Harry C. Willis, Thomas G. Wroth and J. H. C. Maslin.

The petit jury comprises the remainder of the October panel and is as follows:

Walter Francis. John S. Newnam Thomas C. Roe, Thomas Casey, Robert C. Morgan, Walter T. Morris, George D. Lofland, Walter M. Spry, C. Frank Wheatley, Thomas A. Parsons, T. Benj. Durding, Jacob B. Crowding, Charles D. McClary, Wm. J. Vannort, Harry Dempsey, Wm. G Smyth, Edward W. Emory, Geo. T. Williams, D. A. Bacchus, Wm. E. Keyser, Wm. J. Tarbutton, James W. Ivens, John B. Parrott, Thos. W. Hyland Jr., Charles L. Leary.

The morning session of Monday was occupied in reading the dockets, noting cases for trial, etc.

The case of Wilson vs. Comegys was tried and judgment of non-pros ordered. Lewin W. Wickes for Wilson, H. W. Vickers for Comegys.

The Grand Jury returned presentments against Emory Sewell, for violation of local option law; Lewis Berry, assault with intent to kill; Curley Robinson, larceny; Ben and Hayes Comegys, for larceny; Elmer Hynson for arson; no bill was found against Mr. David Ford who was under bail on a charge of arson. Mr. Dixon says this is the shortest presentment docket since he has been clerk.

The appeal case of Harry Latham charged with resisting an officer was tried before a jury and verdict of guilty rendered; W W. Beck for State, H. H. Barroll and Herbert Perkins for Latham. He was sentenced to four months in House of Correction and warned not to come before the Court again.

Appeal case of John Clendaniel vs I. R. Leaverton for threshing bill of $46 contracted by Wm. Edwards; jury trial, verdict for Leavertor. Lewin W. Wickes for plaintiff, Marion deK. Smith for defendant.

Shortest Session In Recent Years.

The Grand Jury finished their labors Wednesday morning and were congratulated by the Court. Judge Martin stated that they had done more business in the shortest time of any jury in Kent since he has been on the bench. Their report follows:

To the Hon. Judges of Circuit Court of Kent County, Maryland.

We the grand jurors of Kent County beg leave to report that we have examined all the constables in the county except W. P. Geary, who did not appear. We have examined 42 witnesses, made 6 presentments and found 6 true bills. We have visited the jail and found it in as good condition as the arrangements of the jail allow. We think a better sanitary arrangement would be advisable and we recommend a closet in each cell. ALDAY CLEMENTS, Foreman.

The appeal case from Justice A. L. Harris in which Frank Canby was charged with disorderly conduct was heard and the accused found guilty and fined $1 and costs. W. W. Beck appeared for State; Capt. Bowie for defense.

Curley Robinson, colored, charged with larceny of a dressing case; found guilty and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Beck for State, Perkins for defense.

Louis Berry, colored, charged with assault; verdict not guilty. Beck for State, Hynson for defense.

Walter Milligan, colored, charged with stealing a cultivator, convicted and sentenced to six months in House of Correction. Beck for State, Wickes for defense.

All registration cases will be heard next Saturday morning Oct. 29, at 10 o'clock.

Yesterday morning the case of Henry K. Miller vs. John G. Seney et al was on trial when the parties "got together" and judgement by confession was given in the sum of $60 in favor of Mr. Miller.

Chas. Johnson, of Chestertown, was sentenced to jail for ten days and to pay cost for not answering to the attachment issued by the court.

The case of Joselyn vs. Boyd was tried and verdict for Joselyn given.

The damage suit of Gill vs. Electric Light Co., was marked off the docket.

The case of Mrs. Wilson vs. executor of Wm. Wtats was marked off while several other cases were continued or settled.

Court will likely adjourn to-day.

CASE REMOVED.

The case of Mrs. Fannie Patten vs. the KENT NEWS was called up Monday and the attorney for the plaintiff, H.H. Barroll, Esq., petitioned the court in part as follows: "Mrs. Fannie Patten, the plaintiff in the case, respectfully suggests that she cannot have a fair and impartial trial in this Honorable Court nor in any other county comprising the Second Judicial Circuit, she accordingly prays that an order may be passed directing the record of said cause to be transmitted to some other court in some other circuit for trial. And your Plaintiff further shows that the said defendants are editors of a newspaper printed published and edited in Kent county which paper has a large circulation throughout the Second Judicial Circuit," &c. Marion deK. Smith, Esq., counsel for the defendants, argued against removing the case out of the Circuit and the Court sustained the latter and removed it to Talbot County where the court meets November 21st.

The damage suit against the Tolchester Company was postponed until Tuesday next.

AUTUMN BRIDES.

Toulson—Ringgold Wedding In Chestereown —Cochran—Patton Event In Middletown —Andeason—Price, &c.

Mr. Thomas S. Anderson, formerly of Kent, and Miss Lola Young, of Yellow Springs, Frederick county, were married at her home, "Monongue" on Wednesday, October 19th, 1904, at noon in the presence of only the members of the families. Miss Price Young, sister of the bride, acting as maid of honor, and Miss Margaret Young, another sister, played the wedding march. Rev. F. H. Lewis, of Mt. Royal ave., Baltimore, performed the ceremony. After luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Anderson took the 3 o'clock train for New York and points North, and on their return to Baltimore will reside at 425 Lafayette ave. Many handsome and useful presents were received.

Miss Mattie Davis, of Still Pond, acted as one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Rickards to Dr. Walter Grier in Milford Wednesday. It was a pastel wedding; the bride wore white messaline trimmed with duchess lace, and carried bride roses and lillies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore flowered organdie to carry out the pastel color scheme, with picture hats.

COCHRAN—COCHRAN

"Mount Airy," the home of Mr. and Robert A. Cochran, was the scene of a very pretty, but quiet wedding at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Mary Patton, became the wife of Mr. John P. Cochran, of near Galena, Marvland. The bride was gowned in white crepe-de Cuene, Duchess lace, Chiffon trimmings and veil and carried white chrysanthemums. The house was very tastefully and prettily decorated with Asparagus cosmos and potted plants, and as the bride and groom entered the parlor Miss Bradfield, of Wilmington, rendered Lohengrin wedding march in such a beautiful manner that it could not fail to impress those present. In the absence of Rev. W. J. Wilkie, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Ware, of St. Clements Church, Massey, Md. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations, a luncheon was served, after which the happy couple were driven to the 4.17 train for a trip south. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran will reside near Galena.

RINGGOLD—TOULSON.

The Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Chestertown, was thronged to its utmost capacity at 8 o'clock Thursday evening the occasion being the marriage of Miss Maude C. Ringgold, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Ringgold and niece of Chief Judge James A. Pearce, to Mr. John Milbourn Toulson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson and now associated with his father in the drug store. The unusually large assemblage was due to the personal popularity of the couple, to their wide acquaintance and the ideal time for a wedding.

The color scheme of the wedding was green and white and the sanctuary of the church was massed with white chrysanthemums, green palms and ferns amid which gleamed the brilliancy of the white candles upon the altar and chancel. Before the ceremony and during the impressive service sweet music was rendered by Miss Mollie Laroche, of Washington, D. C. The bride, who entered with her uncle, Judge J. A. Pearce, wore an exquisite gown of Aeolian chiffon over taffeta, embroidered, with chiffon trimmings and wore a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was immediately preceded by her sister, Miss Eloise Ringgold, as maid of honor, who wore a dress of pink silk mull over taffeta and carried pink Japanese chrysanthemuns. Preceeding Miss Eloise were the two cute little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Brice, Elizabeth and Isabelle Brice, dressed in white organdie with flowered ribbon sashes, who acted as flower girls. These were preceded by the Maids of honor, Misses Susan Laroche, of Washington, D. C., Mabel Toulson, Wheeler Peterson, Ethie Ringgold, Hallie Westcott and Hallie Toulson, attired in beautiful gowns of white organdie and green girdles and carrying maiden hair ferns tied with green ribbon, and the following ushers in full dress evening costume, Messrs. William Walter Chapman, Houston Toulson, Thomas Massey, Henry T. Deaver, Hubert Ringgold, Louis Hertz, of Connecticut. One of the beautiful features of the wedding was the arrangement of attendants on either side of the aisle making an aisle down which the bride and her uncle passed to the altar, where she was met by the groom and best man, Dr. Arthur Ewings, of Atlantic City, and united in holy wedlock by Dr. Henry B. Martin, rector of the church. During the ceremony the bridesmaids stood on the second step to the altar while the ushers stood on the first step thus maxing an ideal picture. The ribbon boys were Masters Allan Harris and Stephen Collins.

After the ceremony the bride and groom were driven to Betterton and boarded the boat for Baltimore. They were given a reception in Washington last evening and today will start on a trip North. Upon their return they will reside on Water street until Xmas when they will remove on Queen street. The presents number over 150 and comprise beautiful silverware, cut glass and articles of usefulness and beauty. Among those present from a distance were Mrs. Eastmen, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Vansciver, Phila., Miss Smith, New York, Mrs. Edmund Draper, Baltimore, Rev. J. A. Mitchell and daughters, Centreville, Mrs. J. W. Chapman, Jr., and Mrs. Lowe, of Baltimore, Miss Nellie Valliant, Church Hill, Judge Martin, Easton, Judge Brown, Centreville, Miss Hannah Ware, Masseys, and a host of others.

A marriage license was granted yesterday to Romie Harris, of Chestertown, and Elizabeth Rodney, Rock Hall.

Local Notes.

A FEROCIOUS bull killed itself at Quaker Neck wharf on Monday morning.

THREE shocks of corn were burned on Tuesday in one of Mr. Allie C. Loud's fields near Chestertown. It is thought that it was fired from some stray spark from a pipe or cigar.

THE Tabard Inn Library has been removed from Stam's to Toulson's drug store. Miss Anna G. Lambert is soliciting subscribers to same at a special rate.

JOHN D. URIE, Esq., attorney, sold at public sale on Tuesday the Hayward Middleton property at Rock Hall for $766, Auctioneer, John H. Greenwood. Mr. Urie has since sold it to Mr. Jones, of Rock Hall, for $800.

A COVEY of partridges were seen feeding in the vacant lot on Queen street opposite the home of R. D. Hynson, Esq., and adjoining that of State's Attorney W. W. Beck early Sunday morning. Their visit to our sportsmen will likely be returned at an early date. One day last week a partridge flew into the kitchen of Mr. Chas. Estes in Chestertown.

A STOCKHOLDERS MEETING of the Chestertown National Bank was held Monday and preparatory steps taken to institute the new State bank a full account of which will be given to the public by the proper officials.

BEDWORTH, JR., won his race in Frederick Wednesday in three straight heats; best time 2.12.

A NEGRO was convicted this week of stealing a cultivator with which to work! This man is an exception to most of his race.

A WORTON farmer could not move a tenant in any other way so he took off the roof of the house! The tenant found other quarters.

C. S. HURLOCK, of Massey's, was in town Tuesday. He says he packed more tomatoes this year than ever before. He doesn't think any of his patrons raised as many tomatoes as did Mr. H. C. Willis but thinks it possible if plenty of fertilizer is used.

MARCUS ASHER is employing two boats to freight the large quanities of peais which he is buying at Crumpton and Lankford Bay.

THE Millington Cornet Band made good music at the mass meeting in Chestertown Tuesday. They make a fine appearance in their blue uniforms

MAYOR TIMANUS Tuesday sent to Mr. Michael Jenkins, president of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company, a check for $368, the amount raised by popular subscription for the Millington fire sufferers. As Mr. Jenkins advanced $2,000 for immediate relief, the Mayor notified him that City Solicitor Bruce would prepare an act providing that the balance of the $250,000 appropriated by the last Legislature for the relief of the Baltimore fire sufferers. Baltimore did not respond very liberal to the relief of our sister town.

THERE are but two Republican students at Washington College! This looks bright for the future of the party.

CHESTNUT PARTIES have been popular this week. Mrs. J. E Ferguson accompanied by Mrs. W. R. Aldridge, Misses Clara Usilton and Marion Lusby got several thousand on Wednesday. Mrs. Clifton Jarrell chaperoned a party of young ladies Tuesday but succeeded in finding only seventeen chestnuts! Mrs. B. F. Fleming chaperoned a dearborn party which succeeded only in finding where the cow was mired and getting but few chestnuts! Col. Massey and Mr. Allie Loud have entertained a number of parties at their homes, near town, and saw that they got plenty of nuts! Three of our young men accompanied by Mr. Jas. Coleman got three pecks one day this week.

THE well-known Delaware resort, Rehoboth Beach, was swept by fire on Tuesday. 26 buildings were destroyed before the flames could be gotten under control. This place was very popular with Maryland people and many Kent countians have enjoyed the pleasures of its fine beach.

H. L. BOYD received this week from Lee Durding, Rock Hall, a curiosity in the shape of an oyster almost covered with muscels. It may be seen in Moody & Lusby's window.

MR. FRANK H. HOWARD, who will remove with his family to Baltimore the first of December, has been awarded the contract to paint the inside of the big Bennett Memorial Home, Baltimore.

Severely Injured.—Mr. Wm. Strong was seriously injured at Kennedyville on Monday morning. Mr. Walter Spry's horses became frightened just as Mr. Strong was crossing the road. Mr. Strong who has been feeble for quite a time, did not see the team and before the horses could be gotten under control he was knocked down and his leg caught in wheel. He sustained a compound fracture of the leg. Dr. Barwick attended him and carried him to Wilmington, Del., to a hospital. He is in a critical condition.
