A CONFIDENTIAL CHAT.

"It's perfect nonsense, Bessie, for you to talk of being laid on the shelf. Why, it all depends on yourself. Forget your worries, your aches and ailments; do as I did, take plenty of out-of-door air, cultivate happiness by not allowing your mind to dwell on the trifles and the worries of life. I sent thirty-one cents in stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for his 'Common Sense Medical Adviser,' and found it contained much useful information about the care of my health, about physiology, anatomy, and everything a woman should know. I then decided to write Dr. Pierce and tell him all about my ailments. I received such a nice, carefully considered and confidential letter, in reply, giving me advice about my diet, exercise and all. This advice is free to everyone and I wonder you don't write him at once. It didn't take me many months to regain my good looks. Ever since I was fifteen I have suffered untold agonies periodically but now I am free from pain, worry and bad temper. Occasionally I took Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—this for the complexion, and to stimulate the liver. Then I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription three times a day for those womanly weaknesses I told you about. That's my secret of beauty. It's the easiest thing in the world to be happy and keep one's good looks. Look at the thousands of women who have been made well by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; look how they keep their good looks. Dr. Pierce offers $500 reward for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which he cannot cure. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure."

THE REPUBLICAN TARIFF POLICY

Handicaps Americans and Favors Foreigners.

Aside from the gross injustice of which manufacturers are guilty when they utilize their protection to compel home consumers to pay more than a fair price for goods and more than foreigners are regularly paying; aside, also, from the base ingratitude of the trusts which smite the hand that feeds them, as they do when they take the protection bonus from the American people and then charge them higher prices for goods than they charge foreigners, there is a sound business reason why this practice should be discouraged rather than encouraged by tariff legislation. These reasons hold good even if the generally accepted theories of protection be true.

It is a bad economic policy for a nation so to legislate that its own manufacturers and workers must pay more for materials and goods than is paid by foreigners for these same materials and goods.

1. Such a policy handicaps home manufacturers and producers and gives their foreign competitors a great advantage, not only in foreign markets, but often in home markets, even when tariff duties are fairly high.

2. Instead of encouraging and building up home industries, such a policy discourages and drags them down by enabling goods to be manufactured more cheaply abroad; foreign manufacturers, to whom our trusts sell unfinished goods at lower prices than our own manufacturers can obtain the same goods at, are naturally, because of their cheaper materials, able to undersell American manufacturers.

3. Such a policy tends strongly to induce manufacturers, who might otherwise do an extensive export business, to establish branch factories in foreign countries, where they can manufacture more cheaply; where they can, in fact, get more benefits from "protection" than they get at home. That hundreds of branch factories are being established abroad for this reason is certain. Numerous articles and editorials have appeared on this subject in the trade and commercial papers, during the last three or four years. A notable article appeared in the Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science in January, 1904. It was written by Mr. S. N. D. North, Director of the Census. It tells of scores of big manufacturing plants that have recently established branch factories in foreign countries.

4. Such a policy leads to retaliatory tariffs on the part of foreign countries which wish to save their industries from some of the evils of what is called the "dumping" process. These high tariffs tend to keep our products out of foreign markets and also encourage the establishment of branch factories abroad.

CONVICT MADE GOODS.

Prison Made Goods to be Marked for Identification.

In an opinion handed down in the case of the People vs. Hawkins, Judge Alton B. Parker, while presiding over the New York Court of Appeals, passed upon the question of convict made goods. He said:

"It is now too late to consider the subject generally from the point of view of the political economist, for the people, in whom reside all power, have set at rest that question so far as this State is concerned. This statute neither prohibits nor attempts to prohibit other States, or the citizens of other States, from putting prison made goods upon our markets; nor does it prohibit our own citizens from buying or selling them; if it did, then, concededly, the statute would be in violation of the commerce clause of the Federal Constitution and void; it simply requires that prison made merchandise shall be so branded that our citizens shall know where the goods they are buying were made.

"This they have a right to know, for they voted to burden themselves with additional taxation rather than longer to permit a competition which they regarded as a public wrong, and they are, therefore, entitled to such legislation as will permit them to know the truth in regard to articles offered them for sale, in order that they may not, through lack of information, have forced upon them that which they would not buy advisedly. The commerce clause of the Federal Constitution does not stand in the way of their having such information, inasmuch as the Constitution of this State establishes a public policy in the working out of which the Legislature may go to this extent at least under the police power of the State."

PRAISE FROM THE ENEMY.

Paying his respects to Judge Parker, J. Sloat Fassett, as temporary chairman of the Republican New York State convention, at Saratoga, said:

"Of the Democratic candidate I have only the kindest words to say personally. He is a high type of man, with a clean personal and official record."

WE believe the exigencies of the times is such that the Banker can no longer sit back on his Dignity and take all the profits. Banks always pay interest on deposits to a favored few—why not treat all alike?

We were fortunate in being undisturbed by the great Baltimore fire. Local demand for money outside the fire district will be unusually good for two years at least. We do not, however, depend entirely on the local demand, as our wide acquaintance with banks throughout the country affords us a continuous market for surplus money through the Spring trade, the coming season, the Western harvest and the cotton crop—these accommodations are in the form of short-time rediscounts for National Banks in these various sections—are the safest loans that can be made, and always at a good rate of interest.
