VOL. 66. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1904. NO.2

Well Marked

Our Fall and Winter Clothing for Men, Boys and Children is in, and marked as usual—in plain figures. We open the line with much the same feeling of confidence that a fellow enjoys when he knows he has a good thing. We never thought that a suit could fit too well, nor look too nice, but they can cost too much and the selection can consume too much of your time. And while ready made clothing is immeasurably better than it use to be, we're spared no pains to get the best. Now is the time to get your FALL SUIT.

A BIG JACKSON CORRUPTION FUND FAILS TO WIN IN THE OLD COUNTY FOR ONCE!

Smith's plurality, 62. Parker's plurality, 115.

The election in Kent passed off very quietly. There was a big vote polled and but few rejected because of fold. The rejected ballots were about evenly divided between the two parties, many Democrats having failed to get the required number of electors while the Republicans in several instances could not locate their candidates. The total registered vote is 4773 and the total vote cast is about 3800. Last year the registered vote was about the same but the vote counted did not equal this year's.

In Chestertown nearly the whole vote was polled and in Edesville all but 16 were at the polls, ten of whom were Democrats and six Republicans. The Rock Hall vote was short about 60, 40 of whom were Democrats. The vote in Millington and Galena was short, the Republicans claiming that most of them were colored. The victory in Kent is specially gratifying as the opposition were well prepared with money and used it wherever they could, but it failed to bring the result hoped for. It would be a great victory for both the parties if they would agree to dispense with this corruption fund. Both parties would be better off and our citizens would rise to a higher plane of manhood. Not only the vote seller but the vote buyer would have a better conscience and have more respect for his fellowmen.

Lost An Eye.—The little 3-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Cohen, of Sandy Bottom, stuck a fork in her eye one day last week while playing. She was carried to the hospital in Baltimore last Thursday and the physician thought she would lose her eye.

Swam The River.—The Devon calf advertised in the NEWS last week as lost has been found. The calf swam across the river near Shallcross' wharf and was found on Capt. Woodall's farm. It pays to advertise in the NEWS.

New Bell.—Miss Thomas, principal of the new school in Piney Neck, has succeeded in soliciting enough subscriptions to buy a fine bell for use of the school. She and her assistants are popular with the patrons there.

THE Tolchester Company has a new schedule in this issue. The Saturday excursion from Tolchester will begin next Saturday.

WEDDING EVENTS.

Mrs. Hester Vernon and Mr. J. Rolph Stoops, both of Chestertown, sprung a surprise on their friends by driving to Fairlee Sunday evening and being united in bonds of matrimony by the Rev. C. T. Denroche. They will reside on corner of Cross and Cannon streets where the bride has a cozy home and well-stocked store.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James D, Wood, in Piney Neck, was the scene of a quiet but lovely wedding on Thursday morning The home was a picture of rare oeauty the fellow-teachers of the bride and friends having festooned the parlors with evergreen and placed banks of chrysanthemums in the nooks. The interested parties were Miss Ida Wood, one of the most talented and popular teachers in Kent county, while the groom was Rev. J. L. Elderdice, formerly stationed at Wesley Chapel and now pastor of Cambridge M. P. church. The bride was becomingly attired in a brown broadcloth traveling dress with waist of chiffon taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses. Little Misses Elizabeth and Alice Wood, nieces of the bride, were the flower girls and in their accordeon-pleated organdies looked like little fairies. Miss Lula Thomas played the wedding march and during the ceremony the new bell in the school belfry was rung in honor of the popular teacher.

Rev. Hugh L. Elderdice, of Westminster, assisted by Rev. Mr. Parris, performed the ceremony in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. A wedding breakfast was served after the wedding. The bridal party were driven to Chestertown and boarded the train for their future home in Cambridge. They were recipients of many handsome presents.

MRS. EDWARDS has opened a bakery in the Sappington store-room and also an oyster dining parlor. She has a neat and tasty room and solicits a trial from the public.

SIG. SAUTELLE'S circus has been sold to English parties for $80,000 in cash and $20,000 in stock of the new company which will improve and push the show!

MR. EDWARD ROBINSON whose contract for running the town sprinkler expired some weeks since, very kindly gave the town a fine sprinkle on Monday, for which the merchants and residents of our little city are very grateful. Many thanks, friend Robinson.

THREE head of Guernseys sired by P. H. McCormick's "Strong Anchor," at Norwood Stock Farm, Belair, recently sold for $700, have been sold by their purchaser to California parties for $3,000.

ALBERT, son of W. T. Pierce, tenant on the George F. Brady farm, near Middletown, was attacked and nearly killed by a savage bull on Wednesday afternoon. Michael Cammile, colored, who went to the young man's help, was also gored and knocked down. Pierce's breast bone was broken and the colored man was badly hurt.

THE painters about town have been busy this fall. Messrs. W. L. Fowler and artists have painted the woodwork about Christ M. P. Church; Mr. W. A. Sappington has painted the M. E parsonage; Mr. M. E. Baker has painted Mr. W. W. Hubbard's home; Mr. Walter Needles has painted Dr. Simmons' new home; Mr. T. B. Elliot has finished repainting Mr. Owen Crow's home on Kent street.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Rose Trout, wife of Rev. J. W. Trout, of St. Luke's M. P. Church, Philadelphia, died last Saturday.

Mr. James H. Garey died at the resilence of his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, in Kennedyville, yesterday at 11 a. m., aged 73. He is survived by a widow and six children, viz, Wm. P. Garey, Harry Garey, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, Mrs. Robert Duyer and Mrs. Lilly N. Garey, and Mrs. Kate Frazier. Funeral services will be held in Kennedyville M. P. church on Monday at 11 a. m., Rev. R. S. Rowe officiating, interment at Still Pond. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

WM. H. FITTEN.

A card was received Tuesday from Mr. Robert R. Calder, of Washington, D. C., as follows: "Mr. W. H. Fitten had his arm torn off and other injuries last Thursday at factory where employed. He died this morning at 7 o'clock at Providence Hospital" The deceased formerly lived in Chestertown near the college and was well-known here.

The following remarkable incident is reported by the Washington papers; "Suddenly and without any warning yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock Rev. Dr. Chastin Clark Meador, pastor emeritus and founder of the Fifth Baptist Church, while conducting funeral services over the remains of William H. Fitton, a member of his congregation fell from his chair behind the pulpit, and was picked up in an unconscious condition by Rev. Weston Bruner, his co- pastor. MRS. HANNAH WILLIAMS.

Died at the residence of her son, in Middlesex county, Va., Oct. the 10th, Mrs, Hannah Williams, widow of the late Joseph Williams, formerly of Kent county and the daughter of the late John Thomas, of Virginia, formerly of Kent. Mrs. Williams was seventy-two years old April last, and has been a great sufferer for several years past, which suffering she bore with Christian fortitude until the Master called her home to reap the reward of her Christian labors. She was a devoted Christian always abounding in the name of the Lord. Mrs. Williams was a kind-hearted woman, always ready to lend a helping hand to those who were in trouble and for her kind disposition and loving heart she was beloved by all who knew her. She leaves behind many friends and acquaintances in this her native county also of Virginia to regret and mourn her loss. To those we would say weep not as those who have no hope for she has gone to rest from her labors and be forever with the Lord.

At her home "Sunny Side" near Middletown, Delaware, Mary Noxon Merritt daughter of the late Thomas Schee and Sarah Noxon Merritt and sister of Mrs. J. J. Lockwood, of Chesterville, Md., after a lingering and suffering illness which she bore with great patience. In health the bible was her daily companion. She was always humble, kind-hearted and conscientious.

Twice within, a few hours the death angel visited our home. At eight o'clock Friday evening the little sufferer, Helen Spicen, who was terribly burned, passed away after suffering great agony, and at one o'clock on Saturday morning the great reaper death, came again to gather in the ripened sheaf. Long and sad were the hours as we sat with our dead, waiting for the light of day, and now as we pass the portal of the door with the insignia of mourning for the aged, we see again on the opposite door the white emblems of youth and innocence, reminding us of the beautiful lines

"There is a reaper whose name is death,
And with his sickle keen
He cuts the ripened grain at a breath
And the flowers, that grow between."
